THE Alpha Chi Omega luncheon yesterday noon at the Gray Belle is another intimation of the nearness of the college season. Complimenting a group of girls who will enter college next month, Miss Catherine Hartley, Miss Lucille Moore, and Miss Amelia Babcock were hostesses at the attractive Alpha Chi Omega luncheon of yesterday. Miss Edna Mae Roof of Portland was an out-of-town guest for the occasion. A bowl of yellow margolids centered the table with favors and place cards carrying out the chosen motif.

Covers were placed for: Miss Caroline Lambirth, Miss Marjorie Mellinger, Miss Dorothy Kesar, Miss Edith Brotherton, Miss Helen Campbell, Miss Edna Mae Roof of Portland, Miss Amelia Babcock, Miss Lucille Moore, and Miss Catherine Hartley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Howard, who have returned home from a six thousand mile motor trip which took them over the Lincoln Highway by way of the Oregon Trail to Kokomo, Indiana, and home again through Rock Island, Sioux City, Yellowstone National park, Spokane and Seattle.

Miss Alice Boock was united in marriage to Mr. Glen Gorton on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boock, with Reverend R. L. Putnam, pastor of the Court Street Christian church performing the ceremony at 7:30 o'clock. Forty friends and relatives witnessed the ceremony.

An improvised altar was arranged before a living room window massed with pink roses and ivy. Immediately before the ceremony, Mrs. Harold White sang "Thine Own." Mrs. Albrecht Boock, in powder blue flat crepe, attended the bride, as matron-of-honor. The bride's charming gown was of white satin backed crepe elaborated with lace. Her veil fell in full length folds from the wreath that bound her hair.

The groom was attended by the bride's brother, Albrecht Boock, as best man. The youngest members of the wedding party were Master Bobby and little Miss Wanda Boock.

Assisting at the informal reception which followed the ceremony were: Mrs. Harold White, Miss Sara Henry, and Mrs. Carl Boock.

After a two weeks' wedding trip to Mount Rainier, Seattle, and Vancouver, B. C., Mr. and Mrs. Gorton will return to Salem. They will make their home at 395 South 23d street. For the past eight years, Mrs. Gorton has been a member of the staff of the secretary of state's office. Mr. Gorton is engaged in business here.

The guest list for the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gorton, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Boock, Bobbie, Wanda and Wallace Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Albrecht Boock, Mr. and Mrs. Harold White, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gorton, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Gorton and daughter Gene, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Gorton, Mrs. Lucy Killiam, Mrs. Lydia Henry, Miss Sara Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Baker and daughter Sara Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Hileman, Miss Ellen Rickert of Long Beach, California, Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Halberg and sons Alfred and Raymond, Mrs. Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. E. Grothens, Mr. and Mrs. Gynther Halseth, Mr. and Mrs. Landgraf, Mildred, Alice and Bertram Halseth, Wilford Landgraf and Maria and Ruth Landgraf.

The women of the Leslie Methodist church entertained on Tuesday afternoon in the church parlors honoring Mrs. J. H. Fairchild who left this week for her new home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr. entertained as their guests at Neskeuin last week Mr. and Mrs. George L. Dunsford.

Honoring Mrs. J. F. Randall, who has been extensively entertained during her stay at Silverton, Mrs. John Goplerud gave a party Wednesday afternoon at the Goplerud home at Brush Creek. Guests were Mrs. Randall, Mrs. O. S. Hauge, Mrs. Esther Weaver, Mrs. M. Fränzer, Mrs. Christine Hansen, Mrs. Daniel Dybseter, Mrs. Levi Goplerud, Mrs. A. Har-

Mrs. Axel Larson, Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, Mrs. Gilbert Underdahl, Vivian Bunes, Cora Goplerud, Louise Dybseter, Gorgild Underdahl, Lucille Larsen and Mabel Fränzer.

Mrs. O. M. Elliot, wife of the late O. M. Elliot, a number of years ago superintendent of the Salem public schools, is a house guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Edgerton at 675 North Church street. A host of Salem people remember the high esteem and popularity in which this family was held. Mrs. Elliot arrived here Wednesday after a visit with her daughter in Sidney, Mont., and her son in Spokane.

Mrs. F. J. Roderick (Belle Crouse) and little daughter, Margaret Louise, of Vancouver, Wash., are house guests at the home of Mrs. Roderick's mother, Mrs. D. M. Crouse.

Trinity Dorcas society will meet next Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. I. Benson. Hostesses will be Miss Alice Jensen, Miss Thea Jensen, Mrs. Marie Bunes and Mrs. Glenn Howe.

Miss Emma Rodgers of 480 N. 18th street enjoyed a two weeks' vacation in McMinnville and at Pacific City and Neskeuin as the guest of Mrs. Ernest M. Smith, at the beaches, and of Mrs. J. M. Honnold in McMinnville.

Miss Velma Taylor whose marriage to Mr. Leon Du Bois will be an event of 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the Unitarian church was the inspiration for the delightful miscellaneous shower on Wednesday evening at which Miss Ruth Davidson was the hostess. Bowls of gladioli were used about the rooms where a mock wedding was the feature of the evening. The gifts were presented to the bride in an elevated U. S. air mail box. Light refreshments were served at a late hour.

In the group were: Miss Veda McCoy, Miss Bessie Taylor, Mrs. Lewis Swift, Miss Lois Hockett, Miss Rhea McCoy, Miss Clara Wiley, Miss Gladys Beardsley, Miss Juanita Hockett, Mrs. Curtis Loter, Mrs. E. B. Taylor, and the hostess, Miss Velma Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby and Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Stearns left this week for a two weeks' motor trip which will take them along the Oregon and Washington coast to British Columbia.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Schomaker of San Francisco were recent guests of Mr. Schomaker's mother, Mrs. Olive Schomaker at 1296 South Commercial street. During their visit they were pleasantly entertained by their many friends here. Mr. and Mrs. Schomaker and Mrs. Schomaker's sister have been on an automobile trip through Glacier National Park and as far north as Calgary, Canada, making the way back to San Francisco by way of Eugene and Roseburg. In the latter places they were guests of a brother and a sister. Miss Nana Putnam returned to San Francisco with the Schomaker's for a two weeks' visit. She will make the trip home by boat.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Clarke spent Monday at Champcoog with friends.

Mrs. Elmo S. White had children are back in Salem after spending a part of the summer with Portland friends.

Son Searches 26 Years to Find Father's Slayer; Suspect Held

C. P. Hannah believes a 26-year search for the slayer of his father William H. Hannah, ex-police chief of Dalton, Ga., is nearing its end. He has had taken to Dalton jail from Gainesville, Texas, a man he believes can throw some light on the murder. The man is called "Bill" Jones. Photo shows Jones left, in the Dalton jail with Sheriff W. P. Cleecker. Drawings are of Hannah and his murdered father. Jones ridicules the charges.

Miss Loretta Fisher left this week for Goidendale and White Salmon, Washington, where she will be a guest for the next two weeks.

Sweetser Expects to Set Fast Pace in Golf Meet
OAKMONT, Pa.—Jess William Sweetser has given warning this year that he will make trouble for the nation's amateur golfers in their annual meeting at Oakmont Country Club beginning August 31.

At Merion a year ago the former Yale star failed to qualify for the match play, one of the greatest surprises of the tournament, for he was a youngster who had just come into the ranks of the leaders through winning the intercollegiate championship of 1920, beating Chick Evans in the finals of the amateur title play in 1922, and gaining the runner-up position to Max Marston in 1923, the Philadelphia winning at the 33th hole.

In his first appearance in the amateur, as a collegian in 1920, he reached the third round where he was eliminated by Fred J. Wright.

This year Sweetser forced his way through to the title in the Metropolitan amateur tournament and gave critics reason to believe that he had regained the consistency and confidence, shown when he marched to his national conquest at Brookline three years ago, pushing aside Willie Hunter, Jess Gullford, Bobby Jones and Evans.

Defendant Wins Slander Case by Illusion Means

BERLIN—Professor Albert Moll, one of Berlin's foremost psychophysicists, was victorious recently in a slander suit brought against him by Frau Rudloff, a spiritualistic medium, for criticizing one of her performances. He had said that one could speak of a spiritualistic phenomenon only then, if every step of the "seance" could be carefully watched and controlled by some licensed state institution, such as the Techno-Physical Institute.

As the trial progressed Professor Moll proposed that a seance be held then and there in the courtroom, and that Frau Rudloff be requested to show her "tricks." She strongly objected, however, stating that the atmosphere of a courtroom was not conducive to summoning spiritual phenomena. Professor Moll then played the part of the spiritualist without darkening the courtroom and requested the judge to be the "medium." The latter's eyes were covered and the professor placed both points of a drawing-compass upon his hand, then removed one point. The judge failed to notice this, and maintained both points were still resting on his hand. Several other experiments of a similar nature were made by Dr. Moll to prove that many things that the occultist may seem like something supernatural have quite a rational explanation.

The court found Dr. Moll not guilty.

IRISH INTERESTED IN

DUBLIN.—Entries for the annual horse show of the Royal Dublin society, the first week in August, created a new high record this year with 916. Despite the growth in popularity of the automobile, there has been a considerable increase in interest in harness horses. For the bloodstock sales more than 800 horses were entered.
