IN THE HISTORIC Waldo Hills of Marion county, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Currie, the marriage of their daughter, Helen Gertrude, to Mr. Frank Alm of Longview, Wash., was solemnized at noon Tuesday, August 25.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Julia Currie, with Mr. Otto Alm attending his brother, the bridegroom, Miss Phyllis Hall of Portland, cousin of the bride, seated as flower girl. The marriage ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles E. Ward of the First Congregational church of Salem. Mrs. Skiena of Burns, Or., cousin of the bride, sang delightfully Cadman's "At Dawning," while Miss Leone Pooler of Corvallis played the wedding march.

The bride was charmingly dressed in white, the veil being that of one of her aunts, trimmed with old lace formerly belonging to the bride's grandmother, and adding most effectively to her attire. The decorations, both profuse and colorful, were artistically placed in the spacious living room, hall and dining room.

At the wedding luncheon Mrs. Clarence W. Keene of Silverton and Mrs. Karl Emerson of Portland presided. Assisting were Miss Nancy Savage, Miss Genevieve Junk, Miss Vivian Kraemer and Miss Gladys Paul.

Many relatives and guests from Portland, Salem and other out-of-town points attended the wedding, among them Dr. L. E. Hubbard, an uncle of the bride, and his family of Burns, Or.

Among the gifts, which were many and beautiful, was a coupe, a surprise gift from the groom's father and mother, in which Mr. and Mrs. Alm left for their wedding trip. They will make their home at Longview, Wash., Mr. Alm being connected with the Columbia Mercantile company of that city.

Tasty Touch of Color

A girl with lots of pretty bandeaux to match her party frocks always feels well dressed. One girl we know has a bandeaux for every dress. She makes them herself, with scraps of the dress material and pieces of net or ribbon for the band. She uses bits of chiffon or taffeta for flowers which she glues on to the bandeaux. So as not to stain the delicate fabric she lets the best quality of liquid glue become partially dry before she applies it. When it is almost dry, just a mere touch of the tip of the pen is all that is necessary. Any girl can make a
