GRAND THEATER DARK ; REMODELING STARTED
Hendricks, local realtors, by September 15. The real estate firm has been located in the United States National bank since organizing about five and one-half years ago.
The decorating is being made under the personal direction of William H. Bell, president and manager of the company bearing his name with offices in nine northwest cities. This year marks the firm's 18th.

Before the theater is opened to the public a new moving picture machine will be installed as well as a new modern organ, the installer for which is expected in a few days. According to Mr. Holt Salem theater goers will not recognize the remodeled playhouse.
As a fitting opening to
