THE WORKER'S VISION
By Mrs. C. S. Johnson

Have you ever heard the invitation:
"Come heavy-laden one to me?"
Have you worker ever caught the vision
Of a soul lost through eternity?

Do you know the meaning of redemption
Through His blood, who hung on Calvary?
Have you ever followed in the footprints
Of the one who came to sit you free?

Have you taken up your cross, though very heavy,
Daily dying out to self and sin?
Have you given up your own desires and wishes,
That for Jesus precious jewels you might win?

Have you visited the ones in dingy prisons?
Have you given to the hungry ones their needs?
Have you visited the one in sore afflic-tion,
Comfort given through both kindly word and deed?

Has such service seemed to you so very little?
Jesus said: "You did it unto me."
And the blessing of his kingdom he will give you.
Heavenly kingdom through eternity.

Has the voice of God to you been calling?
Go and tell to sinners far and near,
That I sent my only well beloved,
Who so ever will believe need have no fear.

Then go tell it, tell to every nation,
Jesus died, yes died to set you free.
He is calling now to you to do his bidding.
Will you answer, "Lord here am I,
send me!"

The Service of Our Stores
Extends In Every Direction

The star on the above map indicates a mining town in Wyoming. Here, in 1902, James C. Penney opened a small dry goods, clothing and shoe store.
He served squarely and honestly and won friends and customers.

Business increased as the service improved.
More stores were opened as enough money was made to buy stocks for them. Years passed. Growth continued. Service—extended. Ten years later there were 34 stores, twenty years 371 stores.
This year 105 new stores are being opened, making 676 in all.

The benefits accruing to you from this far-reaching Retail Store Service are important. You are given large savings on the things you wear and use in your household that only the dynamic buying power of these combined hundreds of stores makes possible. Your own comparisons will prove it.
