MODERN SCIENCE AID TO SURGERY

Dr. Emmons Successful in Caesarean Operation With Local Anesthetic

That Salem physicians are keeping abreast of recent advances in medical science was indicated here recently when Dr. Carl W. Emmons, local specialist in obstetrics, successfully performed at the Salem hospital what is known in the profession as a classical Caesarean section under local anesthetic.

Performance of the delicate operation under local anesthetic by a method only recently developed in the east, was the first time that it has ever been performed here and one of the first times that it has been performed in the state. Three nurses from the Marion County Child Health Demonstration watched the operation.

Dr. Emmons is one of the many medical specialists to locate here recently. Ability to perform the operation under the newly devised method of local anesthetic will mean the future saving of many lives and babies during maternity, according to doctors who watched the operation.

Modern medical practice has made it possible that today a mother and her baby have a 50 per cent better chance of life when under the care of trained doctors than ten years ago, according to Dr. Emmons. Application of the principles of surgical antisepsis to obstetric operations and improved methods of parental care of the mother over a period of months before the birth to prevent complications are making vast strides in protecting the lives of mothers, he declares.

ADAM AND EVE AND THE APPLES EATEN

Can You Figure Out That They Ate Several Car Loads of Apples?

How many apples did Adam and Eve eat?

Some say Eve 8 and Adam 2—a total of 10 only. Now we figure the thing out far differently. Eve 8 and Adam 8 also—total 16, and yet the above figures are entirely wrong. If Eve 8 and Adam 82, certainly the total will be 90. Scientific men, however, on the strength of theory that the antediluvians were a race of giants, reason something like this: Eve 81 and Adam 82—total, 163.

Wrong again: what could be clearer than if Eve 81 and Adam 812; the total was 893. If Eve 811 and Adam 812 would not the total be 1,623?

We believe the following to be a fair solution: Eve 814 Adam, Adam 8124 Eve, total 8938.

Still another calculation is as follows: If Eve 814 Adam, Adam we thing this, however, not a sufficient that Eve 814 Adam, Adam if he 8181242 keep Eve company—total 8,182,046.

All wrong. Eve, when she 81812 many and probably she felt sorry for it, but her companion in order to relieve her grief, 812. Therefore when Adam 8181242407 Eve's depressed spirits. Hence, both ate 81,896,864 apples.
