

SALEM SOCIAL NEWS

By AUDRED BUNCH, Phone 106

SOCIAL CALENDAR

TODAY

Willamette Shrine, No. 2. Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem. Tuesday evening, 8 o'clock. Yomarco club. First Methodist church. Pot-luck dinner.

Wednesday

Young Married People's club. First Presbyterian church. 6:30 o'clock dinner.

Thursday

Salem Woman's club. Club house. 8 o'clock.

Friday

SILVERTON, Sept. 7. (Special)—Honoring Miss Nettie Hatteberg, Miss Agnes Hatteberg, Reuben Jensen who leave soon to take up their work at the Oregon agricultural college, Miss Alice Jensen and Miss Lillie Madsen were hostesses at a party Sunday evening at the Jensen home. Margolds and golden glow were used about the rooms. Guests were the two Misses Hattebergs, Mr. Jensen, Alfred Jensen, Edwin Hatteberg, William Hatteberg, Cora Satern, Wiona Palmer, Harold Larson, Victor Madsen.

The B. S. Prather melon gardens at Yoderville, a few miles east of Silverton, are drawing considerable attention from Silvertonians. Mr. Prather has increased his acreage this year to six acres. He has added several new varieties, among which were some for which the seed for planting cost him as high as fifty dollars a pound. Hundreds of people from both Marion and Clackamas counties visit the gardens each Sunday.

Miss Ida Twedten of the Marion County Health Bureau of Salem has located at Silverton. Miss Twedten is a trained nurse and will look after 15 school districts. Her headquarters will be at Silverton where she has taken rooms at the H. B. Latham home.

A number of hoppickers worked in the Silverton fields on Labor Day. Growers feared the unsettled weather of the past few days and wished to get their hops harvested as soon as possible.

STAYTON

Over pressure height and at least one case on record where a ship was brought over "pressure height" at a speed of over 15 meters per second. This ship came out of the difficulty somewhat strained, but with flying colors.

years. She leaves her husband, one son, Edward Clark, two sisters and a brother to mourn her loss. Rev. Hay of the Christian church read the burial service. Many neighbors from the Howald district where the family resided, attended the funeral service.

The Second street bridge across the Salem Ditch company's canal, which has been in a broken down condition and a menace to the traveling public as well as an eyesore to the residents of the community for the greater part of the summer, has been repaired and put in a condition to be traveled over once more. Street Commissioner Henry Smith had the work in charge.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall left Saturday noon for Roseburg where they remained over the week end, spending the Labor Day vacation with Mrs. Hall's son, Orville Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roy and their two sons left Saturday for their home in New York City after a 6 weeks visit at the home of Mr. Roy's parents. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. William Smith, a sister of Mr. Roy's.

Mrs. Anna Stayton enjoyed a week end visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adele Scheiberg in Salem, returning home Sunday evening.

Peter Hirszeffen and wife were among those coming from a distance to spend Sunday with Stayton relatives. They returned to their home in Portland after a visit with his mother Mrs. M. Hirszeffen.

Mr. and Mrs. Theil of Salem were here for a few hours Sunday visiting with their niece, Mrs. E. T. Mathien.

Among those motoring a distance away from town Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mach who spent the day at Eugene. Their children accompanied Miss Rose Dozier to her home near Shaw, where they enjoyed the day on the farm.

W. W. Spicer of North Santiam, a laborer with the county rock crusher crew, was taken suddenly and seriously ill at the plant here Saturday morning. Dr. Beauchamp was called and found it necessary to at once transfer the stricken man to an Albany hospital where medical attention was given.

The Misses Cora Turnidge of Eugene, Pearl Turnidge of Portland and Laura Turnidge, who spent the summer at Gates, were guests at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Carey Nott over Sunday and labor day. Another guest at the Nott home was Eugene Coats of Vancouver, Wash., a brother of Mrs. Nott.

The remains of Mrs. Edith Lake wife of William Lake, was brought here for burial, funeral services being held from the Weddle chapel Sunday afternoon with interment in Lone Oak cemetery. Mrs. Lake passed away in Salem Friday noon at the age of 41.

and had been turned over by her constructors to the government with "safety valves sufficient in number to withstand any kind of weather conditions, which our past experience had taught us. I do not limit the successful combat of the ship to 'any ordinary weather'. We have had cases where such ships have been hurled

16 miles of water separates us from Asia. Summarizing the situation on the Pacific, the report says: "The fleet must be fully maintained, naval bases must be built and above all, our air defense must be developed."

HALIBUT BANKS FOUND SEATTLE, Sept. 7.—Discovery of new halibut banks off the Aleutian islands is likely to bring about the revival of the halibut trade through this port a report of E. A. Wakefield, American consul at Prince Rupert, B. C., made

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall left Saturday noon for Roseburg where they remained over the week end, spending the Labor Day vacation with Mrs. Hall's son, Orville Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roy and their two sons left Saturday for their home in New York City after a 6 weeks visit at the home of Mr. Roy's parents. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. William Smith, a sister of Mr. Roy's.

Mrs. Anna Stayton enjoyed a week end visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adele Scheiberg in Salem, returning home Sunday evening.

Peter Hirszeffen and wife were among those coming from a distance to spend Sunday with Stayton relatives. They returned to their home in Portland after a visit with his mother Mrs. M. Hirszeffen.

Mr. and Mrs. Theil of Salem were here for a few hours Sunday visiting with their niece, Mrs. E. T. Mathien.

Among those motoring a distance away from town Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mach who spent the day at Eugene. Their children accompanied Miss Rose Dozier to her home near Shaw, where they enjoyed the day on the farm.

W. W. Spicer of North Santiam, a laborer with the county rock crusher crew, was taken suddenly and seriously ill at the plant here Saturday morning. Dr. Beauchamp was called and found it necessary to at once transfer the stricken man to an Albany hospital where medical attention was given.

The Misses Cora Turnidge of Eugene, Pearl Turnidge of Portland and Laura Turnidge, who spent the summer at Gates, were guests at the home of their aunt, Mrs. Carey Nott over Sunday and labor day. Another guest at the Nott home was Eugene Coats of Vancouver, Wash., a brother of Mrs. Nott.

The remains of Mrs. Edith Lake wife of William Lake, was brought here for burial, funeral services being held from the Weddle chapel Sunday afternoon with interment in Lone Oak cemetery. Mrs. Lake passed away in Salem Friday noon at the age of 41.

and had been turned over by her constructors to the government with "safety valves sufficient in number to withstand any kind of weather conditions, which our past experience had taught us. I do not limit the successful combat of the ship to 'any ordinary weather'. We have had cases where such ships have been hurled

16 miles of water separates us from Asia. Summarizing the situation on the Pacific, the report says: "The fleet must be fully maintained, naval bases must be built and above all, our air defense must be developed."

HALIBUT BANKS FOUND SEATTLE, Sept. 7.—Discovery of new halibut banks off the Aleutian islands is likely to bring about the revival of the halibut trade through this port a report of E. A. Wakefield, American consul at Prince Rupert, B. C., made

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall left Saturday noon for Roseburg where they remained over the week end, spending the Labor Day vacation with Mrs. Hall's son, Orville Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Roy and their two sons left Saturday for their home in New York City after a 6 weeks visit at the home of Mr. Roy's parents. They were accompanied as far as Portland by Mrs. William Smith, a sister of Mr. Roy's.

Mrs. Anna Stayton enjoyed a week end visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Adele Scheiberg in Salem, returning home Sunday evening.

Farewell Party
The home of Reverend and Mrs. F. W. Launer was the scene of an enjoyable farewell surprise party on last Friday evening honoring Franklin B. Launer who left last week for Columbia, Missouri. A musical program added to the pleasure of the evening. At a late hour delicious refreshments of punch, ice cream, and cake were served.

In the group were: Reverend and Mrs. G. W. Lovell, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilson, Miss Verna Martin, Miss Leolyn Barnett, Miss Lorenze Combassol, Miss Susan Martin, Miss Helen Tooze, Miss Annabel Tooze, Miss Ruth Pence, Miss Margaret Orr, Miss Margaret Lovell, Miss Lois Wheeler, Miss Effie Grimes, Mrs. Burch, Miss Beulah Launer, Linden Maetin, Fred Blake, Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Launer, Franklin B. Launer, the honor guest, and Reverend and Mrs. F. W. Launer.

Guests at Churchill Home
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Churchill entertained at their home guests over the Labor Day week-end, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Elton and daughter, Jane, and Mr. and Mrs. George Weller and son, Gordon Churchill Weller, all of Portland.

Ruth Ross in Medford
Miss Ruth E. Ross will return tomorrow from Medford where she is assisting in the organization of a Southern Oregon Girls' Conference. Miss Ross motored as far as Wolf Creek with Mrs. J. E. Ferguson and daughter, Martha. In Wolf Creek she was the guest of Bob and Helene Storey who took her, on an excursion to the Oregon Caves. Miss Ross writes that the Medford Chamber of Commerce is treating every conference girl to a trip to Crater Lake.

To Make Home in Portland
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Allen (Irene Curtis) left yesterday to make their home in Portland, after spending the week with Mrs. Allen's mother, Mrs. L. G. Curtis, 245 Myers street.

Several informal parties were given by friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allen while they were in the city.

Program Given
An interesting program was sponsored on Friday of last week by the Salem Woman's club, through the institutions committee, when they were invited to provide an interesting entertainment for the boys at the state training school. L. M. Gilbert, the superintendent, introduced Robert C. Paulus as the chief entertainer on the program. Mr. Paulus told in a detailed way the process of making slides, introducing a number on the screen. The program opened with orchestra numbers under the direction of Mrs. Herbert Evans. Later, Miss Loma Kizer gave two piano numbers, after which Mrs. S. H. Van Trump gave readings introducing realistic bird calls.

Those motoring out for the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Paulus, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Van Trump, Mrs. Frank M. Erickson, William Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, and Mrs. Lura Cass French.

Vacation at Coast
Mr. and Mrs. William Krause and family arrived in Salem Friday evening and accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause and son, spent the Labor day vacation at the coast.

Vacation Is Enjoyed
Minnetta Mayers, teacher of voice, has been spending a delightful vacation at Columbia Gorge hotel, on the Columbia river highway. She enjoyed a splendid rest, and has returned refreshed for her work this fall.

St. Helens to Open
The fall term at St. Helen's hall will open Wednesday, September 9. Friday and Saturday are registration days. This school is conducted by the Episcopal church for elementary and academic work for girls.

Cornelia Ireland won the general scholarship award for the senior year student, having the highest grades in seven subjects, it is announced. The alumnae cup for the highest grades in Latin was won by Mary Elizabeth Wheeler, the Pittock cup for the highest grades in English by Deborah Hall, and the Meyer cup for the highest grades in mathematics by Mary Malarkey.—Oregonian.

Mount Hood Loop Trip
Miss Anna Paulsen of Hubbard and Miss Maybelle Propp spent the week-end taking the trip around the Mount Hood Loop. They will be guests in Portland for a few days of Dr. and Mrs. Harry Charlton before returning to Salem. Dr. and Mrs. Charlton were guests of Mrs. Charlton's mother, Mrs. L. F. Propp, on Sunday.

To Attend Harvard
W. Earl Shafer, the son of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Shafer, will leave this morning for Seattle and Vancouver, B. C., en route to Harvard university where he will enroll for the coming year. Mr. Shafer will go via the Canadian Pacific route, stopping at both Lake Louise and Banff. Frank Altstock is making the trip with Mr. Shafer and will also attend Harvard. He is of Portland.

Return From California
Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Teel and Cyrus Clowser have recently returned from a three-weeks motor trip to California after spending a few days sight seeing in San Francisco they visited the Redwood parks of giant trees and the old missions at Mt. Carmel and San Juan. Then they went later to the Yosemite valley, coming home by way of Sacramento.

Guests in Harrisburg
Mr. and Mrs. Albert Richard Weijen and Murray Wade were guests over the week-end in Harrisburg. They visited at the Frederick Davies home.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Evans Leaves
Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Evans, left late last week for Pasadena, California, where she will teach during the coming year. Miss Evans graduated in California last June.

Miss Shelton Home
Miss Beatrice Shelton is home from a two months' vacation spent in Eugene, Portland, and eastern Oregon. Miss Shelton's vacation included a number of beach trips and attendance at various concerts and musicales.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrick have just returned from a delightful outing at Cascadia.

The Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will meet in the Armory on Wednesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

The opening fall meeting of Hal Hubbard auxiliary U. S. W. V. was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Hewlett on North Summer street, Friday afternoon. A short business meeting was held which included plans for the gifts to the Needle Work Guild and reports from the department encampment held in July at the "Farthest West" town—Port Orford. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson were delegates from the local camp and auxiliary. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Hewlett being assisted by Mrs. Pugh in the serving of refreshments. The auxiliary had as its guest Mrs. Chris Quall a member from Silverton.

Mrs. Oglesby Returns
Mrs. C. M. Oglesby who has been on an extended visit in the east has returned to her home at 2304 Hazel Avenue. Mrs. Oglesby has been a guest during the six weeks that she was gone in Missouri.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Evans Leaves
Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Evans, left late last week for Pasadena, California, where she will teach during the coming year. Miss Evans graduated in California last June.

Miss Shelton Home
Miss Beatrice Shelton is home from a two months' vacation spent in Eugene, Portland, and eastern Oregon. Miss Shelton's vacation included a number of beach trips and attendance at various concerts and musicales.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrick have just returned from a delightful outing at Cascadia.

The Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will meet in the Armory on Wednesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

The opening fall meeting of Hal Hubbard auxiliary U. S. W. V. was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Hewlett on North Summer street, Friday afternoon. A short business meeting was held which included plans for the gifts to the Needle Work Guild and reports from the department encampment held in July at the "Farthest West" town—Port Orford. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson were delegates from the local camp and auxiliary. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Hewlett being assisted by Mrs. Pugh in the serving of refreshments. The auxiliary had as its guest Mrs. Chris Quall a member from Silverton.

Mrs. Oglesby Returns
Mrs. C. M. Oglesby who has been on an extended visit in the east has returned to her home at 2304 Hazel Avenue. Mrs. Oglesby has been a guest during the six weeks that she was gone in Missouri.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Evans Leaves
Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Evans, left late last week for Pasadena, California, where she will teach during the coming year. Miss Evans graduated in California last June.

Miss Shelton Home
Miss Beatrice Shelton is home from a two months' vacation spent in Eugene, Portland, and eastern Oregon. Miss Shelton's vacation included a number of beach trips and attendance at various concerts and musicales.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrick have just returned from a delightful outing at Cascadia.

The Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will meet in the Armory on Wednesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

The opening fall meeting of Hal Hubbard auxiliary U. S. W. V. was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Hewlett on North Summer street, Friday afternoon. A short business meeting was held which included plans for the gifts to the Needle Work Guild and reports from the department encampment held in July at the "Farthest West" town—Port Orford. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson were delegates from the local camp and auxiliary. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Hewlett being assisted by Mrs. Pugh in the serving of refreshments. The auxiliary had as its guest Mrs. Chris Quall a member from Silverton.

Mrs. Oglesby Returns
Mrs. C. M. Oglesby who has been on an extended visit in the east has returned to her home at 2304 Hazel Avenue. Mrs. Oglesby has been a guest during the six weeks that she was gone in Missouri.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Evans Leaves
Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Evans, left late last week for Pasadena, California, where she will teach during the coming year. Miss Evans graduated in California last June.

Miss Shelton Home
Miss Beatrice Shelton is home from a two months' vacation spent in Eugene, Portland, and eastern Oregon. Miss Shelton's vacation included a number of beach trips and attendance at various concerts and musicales.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrick have just returned from a delightful outing at Cascadia.

The Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will meet in the Armory on Wednesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

The opening fall meeting of Hal Hubbard auxiliary U. S. W. V. was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Hewlett on North Summer street, Friday afternoon. A short business meeting was held which included plans for the gifts to the Needle Work Guild and reports from the department encampment held in July at the "Farthest West" town—Port Orford. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson were delegates from the local camp and auxiliary. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Hewlett being assisted by Mrs. Pugh in the serving of refreshments. The auxiliary had as its guest Mrs. Chris Quall a member from Silverton.

Mrs. Oglesby Returns
Mrs. C. M. Oglesby who has been on an extended visit in the east has returned to her home at 2304 Hazel Avenue. Mrs. Oglesby has been a guest during the six weeks that she was gone in Missouri.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.

Guests at House Party
Miss Lorena Geer and Miss Leona Geer were recent guests of the Misses Olive and Dorothy Mettler at the Charles Mettler summer home at the foot of Mount Hood.

Returns Home
Miss Jean Wilson, the daughter of Mrs. Ella Schulz Wilson, has returned from a summer's vacation at Willows, California at the home of Mrs. Whitney Gill (Ruth Schulz).

Miss Wilson Leaves
Miss Carolyn Wilson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wilson, left yesterday for Coquille, Oregon, where she will teach during the coming year.

Miss Hatch Is Guest
Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Triner are entertaining as their house-guest at their home, 1821 Rural Avenue, Miss Helyn Hatch of Vancouver, Washington.

Miss Evans Leaves
Miss Margaret Evans, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. J. Evans, left late last week for Pasadena, California, where she will teach during the coming year. Miss Evans graduated in California last June.

Miss Shelton Home
Miss Beatrice Shelton is home from a two months' vacation spent in Eugene, Portland, and eastern Oregon. Miss Shelton's vacation included a number of beach trips and attendance at various concerts and musicales.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. White and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fandrick have just returned from a delightful outing at Cascadia.

The Barbara Fritchie Tent No. 2, Daughters of Veterans, will meet in the Armory on Wednesday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock.

The opening fall meeting of Hal Hubbard auxiliary U. S. W. V. was held at the home of Mrs. Leroy Hewlett on North Summer street, Friday afternoon. A short business meeting was held which included plans for the gifts to the Needle Work Guild and reports from the department encampment held in July at the "Farthest West" town—Port Orford. Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hewlett, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Pugh, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Hull and Mr. and Mrs. John Bertelson were delegates from the local camp and auxiliary. Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed. Mrs. Hewlett being assisted by Mrs. Pugh in the serving of refreshments. The auxiliary had as its guest Mrs. Chris Quall a member from Silverton.

Mrs. Oglesby Returns
Mrs. C. M. Oglesby who has been on an extended visit in the east has returned to her home at 2304 Hazel Avenue. Mrs. Oglesby has been a guest during the six weeks that she was gone in Missouri.

Yomarco Class
The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church will meet this evening in the club room for a pot-lunch dinner.