YOU ARE PARTICULAR about what you want and you should be.
Don't let any agent sell you the first thing he shows you unless you are mighty sure it's just what you want.
Most agents will try to sell you something quickly. That is accounted good smanship and you can't blame the

But you don't buy real estate every day; and you can't sell it again inproperty and buy right.
Agents must sell at the owner's prices Agents must sell at the owner's prices; but if I deem the price high I will tell the owner, also the buyer.

I will tell you everything I see in the property good and had. I'll help you analyze it by every standard that determines value. I'll help you balance its good and had points.

I am here to sell property, and at the same time to make a record that will help me to sell more and more.

the tickets were intact. The tickets were for transportation between San Francisco and Sausalito, Investigators held out the theory that the book belonged either to Bessie Ferguson or to some one implicated in the murder and dismemberment of the body. They said this was the first intimation that the Ferguson woman possibly had some connections in Sausalito, Marin county.

Investigation showed the automobile license plate was issued to G. J. Habermann of Alameda, Habermann was said to be an employe of Ernest Ingler, Washing machine agent and candidate just year for commissioner of Alameda county. Both were absent from their homes today.

Officials are awaiting the report, probably Wednesday or Thursday, of Dr. E. O. Heinrich, Berkeley criminologist, to whom all exhibits discovered thus far have been submitted. They said there was a possibility, confessedly remote, that Heinrich's report might contain sufficient information to justify the calling of a grand jury as another step in the murder inquity.
