God's true people are dispersed all over the world. They are really hungry for the genuine power of the resurrected Christ, but are justly fearful of both Satanic delusions and Pharisaical dead letter formalism which are equally destructive to the soul. The true foundation of the Christian faith is described in the 15th chapter of I Corinthians. The Acts of the Apostles is our pattern. Let us build accordingly that we may be in harmony both at the coming of the Lord.
