Formal Tea Announced

Invitations have been issued for an attractive formal tea on Thursday, September 17, at which Miss Rachel Chambers of Redding, Pennsylvania, will be the honor guest. Hostesses will be Mrs. J. W. Chambers, Sr., Mrs. J. W. Chambers, Jr., Mrs. Carl T. Pope, and Mrs. L. R. Chambers.

Judge at Floral Show

Mrs. W. E. Anderson motored to Stayton yesterday afternoon to be a judge at the Stayton Woman's Community club flower show. Mrs. Anderson was accompanied by Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. H. T. Love, and Miss Iva Clare Love.

Garden Club to Meet

The Salem Garden club will meet on Friday, September 18, at 8 o'clock, in the Chamber of Commerce rooms for the opening fall meeting. Carl Heinschied, the lily expert from Idaho, will talk during the evening. A particularly interesting program, and one that will be a continual revelation to the connoisseur in gardening, has been arranged for the winter months. This program will take up in sequence the marked garden tendencies in different countries as the people of these places have looked them out. Starting with the gardens of Greece, the program outlined will provide papers on the gardens of Egypt, Italy, Switzerland, France, England, Japan, and in early and modern America, each by one who is an acknowledged authority through personal travel or definite research.

Return From B. C.

Mrs. S. W. Thompson and Miss Louise Thompson are home from a visit of a month and a half in Vancouver, B. C., at the home of Mrs. William Charles Kiltz. Mrs. Thompson and Miss Thompson made the trip north by motor. They spent some time on Vancouver island and in Victoria. On their way home they stopped a day in Seattle and also at Washougal where they were guests of Capt. and Mrs. Frank Perry, who have a home on the Columbia.

Guests From California

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Taylor and Mrs. H. Gorman of Pixley, Cal., arrived on Sunday for a five weeks' visit in Salem with relatives and friends. They will also spend some time in Seattle before returning south.

Sewing Society to Meet

The Royal Neighbors sewing club will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. A. Bunn, 2235 Hazel avenue. Mrs. Herbert Nash will be the assisting hostess. The club will meet for an all-day gathering. A pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

League to Meet

"Applied Design" will be the topic this evening which Prof. N. B. Zane, of the art department of the University of Oregon, will follow in his lecture this evening in the auditorium of the Salem public library. While the lecture will be at 8 o'clock, a business meeting of the league will be held at 7:45 o'clock at the call of the president, Dr. Mary C. Rowland.

Chapter G to Meet

The public is invited to meet Professor Zane at this time and plan for enrollment in his class, which will be held every Thursday, beginning October 1, if they so desire.

Return From Beach

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Hofer are home from Agate Beach where they have domiciled for the summer. Other residents at the summer colony who have returned home are Mr. and Mrs. Hal D. Patton and daughters, Jean and Marie. They arrived in town on Monday.

Chapter G to Meet

Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood will meet tomorrow afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. H. Byrd at the Byrd home, 595 Court street. This will be the second September meeting of the chapter.

Miss Hodge to Teach
