Constitution Day

The only organization in Salem making observance of Constitution day, today, Thursday, September 17, is the Chemeketa Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The program which the daughters have prepared will be held at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the Chamber of Commerce rooms. Seymour Jones will be the speaker. Every patriotic organization in the city is invited to attend the program, the observance being an open meeting. Tea will be informally served at the close with the social committee, including Mrs. Elmo S. White, Mrs. E. H. Spence, Mrs. Lewis Griffith, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, and Mrs. Roy Mills in charge.

The business of the day will be the state report. Mrs. Seymour Jones, the present chapter regent, Mrs. Chester C. Clark, and the chapter honorary regents, Mrs. S. C. Dyer, Mrs. J. G. Heltzel, Mrs. U. G. Shipley, and Mrs. Russell Catlin.

Auxiliary to Meet

Hal Hubbard Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans will meet on Friday afternoon for a social meeting at the home of Mrs. E. J. Raymond, 1390 North Fourteenth street. All members are invited to be present.

Mrs. Florian Von Eschen is expected home this week from a vacation at Newport.

House-Guests at Beach

Colonel and Mrs. E. Hofer are entertaining their house-guests, Mrs. Andrew Hofer and daughter, Miss Dorothy Hofer, with a week at Astoria Beach. Miss Hofer will re-enter the University of Washington later in the month.

Mrs. B. J. Miles visited in Portland early in the week as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Will Knight.

Return from Motor Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Savage are home from an interesting ten-day motor trip which took them to Portland, Hood River, The Dalles, and around the Mount Hood Loop. They made stops with friends both in Portland and at The Dalles.

Mrs. T. G. Bligh and little granddaughter, Margaret Ann, and Mrs. H. D. Trover are on a vacation at Newkirk. They are staying at the Bligh summer home.

Relatives to Visit

Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Boyer were in Portland Tuesday evening to meet their son-in-law, Harry E. Bligh of Chicago, who was suddenly called home by the serious illness of his mother at Rainier, Or. Mrs. Bligh and daughter, Jeanette, did not accompany him, but will come later to visit here.

MacDowell Club Elects

Dr. and Mrs. Donald W. Riddle entertained the members of the MacDowell club at the first official meeting of the year. Plans were made for two artist concerts and five local musical attractions, making a total of seven offerings for the season.

In December, Emille-Lancel, the famed operatic soprano, will be heard here; and later, in April, the Portland String quartet, including in its personnel Carl Denton, R. C. Elkianlaub, Ted Bacon and Ferdinand Konrad.

The MacDowell club was first organized in 1921, under the leadership of Mrs. W. H. Anderson, for four successive years: the president. The club endorses a wide scope of activity, including the maintenance of a scholarship fund. At present, the organization is particularly interested in a permanent string quartet, and in the development of junior music clubs. Already through the medium of the MacDowell club such artists as Royal Dadmun, Mabel Garrison and others have been brought to Salem. Numerous benefit concerts have been held, especially those for the benefit of the Old People's home. The aim of the MacDowell club is not so much to superficially entertain as it is to imbue the public with the ideals that will go toward the making of a "musical America."

While the membership of the chorus is limited, many are taking associate membership in the club itself.

Following are the officers of the club:—Honorary President, Mrs. W. E. Anderson; president, Mrs. Phil Newmyer; Miss Dorothy Pearce, vice president; Mrs. T. H. Galloway, treasurer; Mrs. Joseph Chambers, Jr., secretary; Mrs. Donald Riddle, auditor; Prof. W. H. Boyer of Portland will again serve as director and Ada Miller Harris will be assistant director. Miss Dorothy Pearce will be accompanist.

Members of the chorus are as follows: Mrs. E. H. Hobson, Mrs. Grant Bonell, Mrs. Ada Miller Harris, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Donald Riddle, Miss Gladys Rafferty, Miss Josephine Bross, Miss Vivian Whisler, Mrs. L. L. Darby, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. Carl Webb, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. J. C. Curry, Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, Mrs. Earl Simpson, Mrs. Merle Roodcrans, Miss Nellie Schwab, Mrs. Joseph Chambers, Jr., Mrs. Martin Forester, Miss Maxine Buren, Mrs. George Allen, Mrs. Grover Bellinger, Mrs. J. W. Nash, Mrs. D. I. Ritchie, Mrs. Treval Powers and Miss Carol Cheney.

Class Meets at Church

The Count-On-Me class of the First Baptist church met yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. C. H. Gregg, and the business of the day attended to, after which Mrs. Willis, the teacher, took charge of the devotions. A group of delightful piano solos, played expressively by Edith May Jenks, opened the program. Mrs. L. G. Curtis gave two appreciated humorous readings, after which a game followed in which all participated. The rooms were beautifully decorated with fruit baskets made of golden pumpkins filled with luscious fall fruits, and a variety of fall flowers. The hostesses of the day were Mrs. Clarence Hoover, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Joseph Graber, Mrs. Latham and Mrs. Neimeyer.

Prayer League to Meet

The Woman's Evangelistic Prayer league will meet at 9 o'clock this morning at the home of Mrs. H. F. Shanks, 195-South Cottage street. Mrs. W. C. Kantner will be the leader.

Nephew of Pastor Weds

Albany, Or.—Miss Thelma Alta DeYoung became the bride of Harold W. Poling Tuesday morning at the home of Dr. and Mrs. D. V. Poling of this city. The ceremony was performed by Dr. D. V. Poling, assisted by Dr. C. C. Poling of Salem, an uncle of the groom.

Mrs. Poling recently came to Albany from eastern Oregon and is a daughter of Mrs. Myrtle DeYoung of Pendleton. Mr. Poling is a son of Dr. D. V. Poling, local Presbyterian minister, and is employed in the Linn county engineer's office. Both are talented musicians.

Cradle Roll Party

The Cradle Roll department of the First Methodist church will entertain for the pleasure of the mothers and friends on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the church. All babies under four years of age and their little friends are invited. The program will be in charge of Mrs. Lebold and Mrs. Crigley.

Concert Attractions

Four concert attractions of paramount interest to all local art and music lovers are announced.

FALLS CITY NEWS BY LIVE REPORTER

Visit Bend, the McKenzie highway and other points of interest before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Criswell arrived home Tuesday night from a vacation trip of two weeks, which they have spent driving from one point of interest to another, their first objective being Crater Lake. Their itinerary included a visit with Dr. and Mrs. O. T. Harstad, who now reside in eastern Oregon, also a visit to Seattle and Tacoma with relatives there.

George Bronson was in from his mill in the Lewisville district transacting business last week.

The thanks of the citizens of the community should be expressed to those who so kindly entertained with music at the community fair Tuesday afternoon and evening. Among others, Mr. O. Aurland, Sol. Edger and Miss Natalia Munyon played the violin, with Dr. R. K. Howe and Harold Warner at the piano. Eldon Frink made his first appearance playing the drums since his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Butler, accompanied by their two daughters, were over from Dallas enjoying our local fair on Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Willis had the pleasure of having eight children, and one grandson present at their home recently when a family reunion was held. Mr. and Mrs. S. F. McAdams and small son and Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hardison, all of Marshfield, Oregon, and Leslie Willis of Valseltz came home for the occasion. A chicken dinner was served and all enjoyed the day very much. Mr. and Mrs. McAdams returned to Marshfield on Monday, while Mr. and Mrs. Hardison will remain for a two weeks visit.

Clinton A. Case has leased the herd of Arabian goats belonging to Dr. Lane, of Seapoo, Ore., and will move them to the Hotchkins ranch south of town, where he will keep them. Mr. Hotchkins is coming back to the ranch for the winter, while Mrs. Hotchkins and daughter will spend the next few months in California.

E. H. Ellis, of Albany and Salem, who represents W. E. Dooley & Co., northwest distributors for the Woodrow Manufacturing company, Newton, Iowa, was here Monday and Tuesday with a display of Woodrow Washers and other electric equipment which he displayed in a booth at the fair.

A special purchase of nearly 2000 Jacquard Bath Towels will go on sale today at special prices. Owing to the very intricate process of "Jacquard" weaving towels such as these are seldom priced so low. Jacquard is the towel beautiful because the design is woven in floral, scroll and other patterns bringing them out in bas-relief effect. There are many towels on the market with Jacquard borders only—these are all Jacquard and woven in many interesting designs and colors. This sale offers unusual opportunity to buy Jacquards at less than the price of ordinary towels.
