THE LORD'S PRAYER:—Our Father which art in heaven, hallowed by thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: for thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever. Amen. Matthew 6:9-13.

DAMNED IF YOU DO AND DAMNED IF YOU DON'T

The men who are attempting to enforce the traffic laws, and all the other laws, are your servants. They are working for you, along with all other citizens—

And they should, as a matter of discipline and for the general good, have your support, in their work of enforcing your laws; the laws made for your protection, as well as for the protection of all other citizens.

Do you give them such support? Or do you damn them if they enforce the laws too laxly, and damn them if they enforce them too rigidly?

Here is the case of a state traffic officer who accidentally killed a man who attempted to escape, after having been commanded to halt. The traffic officer did not intend to kill the man who had fled in the face of the command, repeatedly made. He shot with the idea of scaring the man into halting.

It turns out that the man killed had a long criminal record; that he was at the time in a stolen car, and that he was in addition a white slaver. That, of course, does not change the principle that arresting officers must be careful to themselves remain within the law—

But this was a case of pure accident— And the traffic officer ought to be commended for his vigilance in law enforcement along the line of his sworn duties, instead of being condemned.

If all law enforcing officers were treated as the servants and friends of the rest of the people, whose lives and property and rights they are sworn to protect, they would be more efficient, and men of higher average caliber would seek such positions—

And the writer of this article believes that our colleges and universities ought to maintain courses in penology and criminology, with a view to securing trained men in all lines of law enforcement.

Crime is the most expensive thing of all things in our so-called civilized country, and it is high time that we did more, in more intelligent and common sense ways, to minimize it and stamp it out and keep it from perpetuating itself.

Bits For Breakfast

Hop picking nearly done—

And it is an $9,000 bale crop, of the highest quality produced for years.

Oregon is getting back into the good old days when the nation was wet, in the hop industry.

Down at the Lake Brook ranch of Tom Livesley, there are about 300 pickers; probably a community of 1000, including children. They have the best equipped hop yard in the world in which to work; with electric lights all over the camp grounds, and running water piped; with department houses, restaurant, store, playground, etc. The Y. M. C. A. is conducting the welfare work there. There is good talent among the pickers; some professional entertainers. They went over to the Williams yard last night and put on an entertainment; the same as given in the Livesley ranch Wednesday night. It was pronounced very good. There has been perfect order at the Lake Brook ranch.

Some sort of welfare work has been done in all of the large hop yards.

F. A. Doerflinger, working for the First National bank, has instructions from the Utah-Idaho Sugar company to select three beets from each tract, and send them, properly packed, to Bellingham, for testing for sucrose (sugar) content. He is to get a large, medium and small beet from each tract. There are 17 of these trial tracts in the Salem district. This is all preliminary to a beet sugar factory for Salem. The selections are to be made between the 5th and 10th of October.

It teaches all nations to seek and find the way by which every people's aspirations for life, liberty and worthy development may be satisfied, without trenching on the rights of neighbors or sowing seeds of enmity in the field of the world's peace.

It teaches that prosperous and happy everywhere to open hands of bounty to the poor, the miser-
