A. A. U. W. to Meet

Interest in university women circles is centered around the first luncheon meeting of the new year today at the Marion hotel. The hour appointed for the luncheon is 12:30 o'clock.

The major attraction of the meeting will be the informal talk which Mrs. L. O. Clement will give relating to her interesting travels abroad. Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement were in Europe for a period of three months this spring, two months of which were spent in Vienna. An especially interesting feature was made into Holland. In addition to Mrs. Clement's travel talk, a large number of business matters will be dealt with. Mrs. Ruy Klein will report on the meeting of the state organization of the American Association of University Women meeting in Corvallis. Mrs. Klein has the office of state secretary.

Alpha Chi Omega Tea

Members of the Chi chapter of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association will be hostesses from 4 to 5 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Miss Amelia Babcock, for the pleasure of girls entering the Oregon Agricultural college this fall. The tea will be at the home of Miss Babcock, 631 South Commercial street.

Return From Trip

Mr. and Mrs. W. Le Phillips and son, Billy, returned on Wednesday from a three weeks' trip in the east. Mrs. Phillips and son visited in Chicago while Mr. Phillips went on to Detroit. Later visits of varying length were made in Omaha, Avoca, Iowa, and in Michigan.

Rummage Sale

The ladies of St. Joseph's parish will sponsor a rummage sale today in St. Joseph's auditorium. Mrs. Eugene Eckerlin, Sr., Mrs. James Heenan and Mrs. C. J. Healy will have charge.

Attend Round-Up

Among Salem folks in attendance at the annual Pendleton roundup are Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Nodham, who left Wednesday for a week's absence in eastern Oregon.

Spends Days in Portland

Mrs. A. L. Brown, who will be assistant superintendent this year in the art department at the state fair, returned yesterday from an absence of several days in Portland. Mrs. Brown made the trip in the interest of the department.

Returns to Art School

Andrew Vinson, who has spent the summer here, left yesterday for Chicago where he will resume his studies at the Chicago Art Institute. He is making the return trip via Los Angeles where he will spend a few days.

Week-End in Portland

Miss Lorena Geer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Geer, is spending the week-end in Portland as the house guest of Mrs. Mark Beach. The first of next week Miss Geer will leave for Corvallis where she will enter the Oregon Agricultural college.

Returns to Seattle

Miss Helen Jordan of Seattle, who has been the guest of Mrs. Henry Meyers of Salem for a short visit, will return to her home today. She was the guest yesterday at the luncheon at which Mrs. Catherine Woodard was hostess for Miss Maudie Taylor and Miss Marion Chaquette. — Oregonian.

Birthday Remembered

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. F. W. Launer was delightfully observed with a dinner party with the following motoring up from Albany for the event: Mrs. J. W. Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Barkley Newman and Miss Edith Barkley. Mrs. Launer also received a telegram of greeting from Prof. Franklin B. Launer, her son, on the anniversary day—September 16.

Orchestra Organizes

A newly organized orchestra of the Yeoman lodge includes in its personnel: Pianist, Miss Gladys

Harbert; violinist, Leonard Chadwick; saxophone, Clare Conner, and trap drums, Charles Chase. The first rehearsals began this week. This evening in the halls the orchestra will meet for the first social meeting of the season. Later two additional instruments will be added, the cornet and slide trombone.

Cooked Food Sale

Ladies of the Central Congregational church will hold a cooked food sale today in the Southern Pacific ticket office on North Liberty street, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning.

Birthday Surprise

A surprise birthday shower and party was held Sunday, September 13, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Cree, in honor of Mrs. Cree's birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Cree had gone to Scio to visit relatives, and finding no one home, returned to their home near Gates where they found all the relatives assembled. Everyone reports a fine time. An elaborate dinner was served. Mrs. Cree received a number of presents, many coming by mail from relatives unable to be present at the reunion.

Attend Convention

Dr. and Mrs. Henry Morris, Nate Elliott and Ed Schunke returned late Thursday evening from Victoria, B. C., where they were in attendance at the Kiwanis convention in session since Saturday. On Thursday the Salem party was in attendance at the unveiling of the Harding memorial in Vancouver, B. C. The entire convention, one of the most successful ever held in the United States or Canada, was attended by over 1300 delegates. Many notable personages from all parts of the country were in attendance, including two past presidents and the present president of Kiwanis. Among others, the brother of the late President Harding witnessed the ceremonies which dedicated the statue.

To Attend Press Meeting

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks will officially represent the Salem Woman's club at the institute which is being held today in Portland by the press and publicity department of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Hendricks is a member of the press committee of the local club, with her co-members Mrs. W. C. Dibble, chairman, Mrs. Mary Yoskey and Mrs. W. D. Smith.

The meeting will open at 10 o'clock this morning at the Central library with an address on "The Country Newspaper and Woman's Clubs," by Earl V. Brownlee of Forest Grove. The remaining addresses of the morning will be by O. C. Leiter, managing editor of the Portland Telegram, on "The City Newspaper and Women's Clubs," and by Ralph Casey of Eugene on "What Is Publicity and How to Get It."

In the afternoon Marshall Dana of the Oregon Journal and Mrs. Sadie Orr Dunbar, president of the state Federation of Women's Clubs, will give speeches. A round-table discussion will follow. The keynote throughout will be the consideration of problems in press and publicity matters.

Returns From Seattle

Mr. C. E. Hanson and daughter, Mrs. Helen Dale, and son Charles returned home Wednesday evening from a month's visit in Seattle with Mrs. Hanson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Odegard and her sister, Mrs. C. H. Dabrow. Mr. Hanson's mother, Mrs. J. H. Hanson of Polson, Mont., came to Salem Wednesday with her daughter-in-law for a visit here.

ABOUT OUTSIDE PICTURES

"Your story in pictures leaves nothing untold." And how true it is. For after all, you can write pages in describing an article and not come nearly so close to picturing it as one illustration would.

Progressive business men are coming to realize this. If you want proof, turn to your last week's Saturday Evening Post. See how the illustrations, the pictures, tell most of the story in every ad. Compare this with an issue of ten years ago and note the difference.

What is true of national advertising is equally true of Salesmen's portfolios, booklets, folders, and even direct mail letters. Every article that's sold, must be shown in pictures.

We are prepared to make advertising illustration photographs, or commercial pictures as it is called. Just phone 951 and we will go any place at any time. You will receive the usual Kennell-Ellis service and guarantee, and the work will cost you no more than the ordinary kind.
