CONTENTMENT

Who drives the horses of the sun
Shall lord it but a day;
Better the lowly deed were done
And kept the humble way.

The happiest heart that ever beat
Was in some placid breast
Who found the common daylight sweet

Active Season Outlined

A notable attraction will be had for Salem in the Moroni-Olsen players, who will appear here in Bernard Shaw's play, "Pygmalion," under the auspices of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women, who have secured October 7 as the day. The play will be shown at the Hellig theater, according to announcement made yesterday at the luncheon of the University Women, meeting for the first time this year. At the luncheon yesterday it was also announced that the scholarship loan tea will take place on November 7, at the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer. A third announcement of note was that which set a date for a concert by Prof. and Mrs. Paul Petri of Corvallis on November 20. Professor Petri is director of the OAC school of music, while Lillian Jeffrey Petri is head of the college piano department. A still further item of note concerns the showing, in the near future, of the next Yale Chronicle.

The business of the afternoon included, for the most part, reports of committees. Mrs. Roy Klein outlined tentative plans for the annual meeting of the state American Association of University Women which will take place some time in November.

The program attraction of the day was Mrs. L. O. Clement's interesting account of three months abroad—six weeks in Vienna and trips into Holland and Switzerland and into Paris and London.

More than 40 covers were placed at yesterday's luncheon, a large number being present for the first time.

P. T. Reception

A reception will be held Tuesday evening at the Lincoln school by members of the Lincoln-McKinley Parent-Teacher association honoring the new officers. A program has been planned and refreshments will be served. All friends and patrons of the school are invited to be guests. The new officers are: President, Dr. J. O. Mathis; vice president, Dr. F. L. Utter; secretary, Mrs. Ermine Bushnell Falk; treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Elgin.

Mrs. Stewart Leaves

Mrs. Josephine Stewart, who returned recently from a month's vacation in California, has been dividing her time for the past week between friends in Portland and in Salem. Today Mrs. Stewart will leave for Eugene where she will be house-mother at the Gamma Phi Beta house on the University of Oregon campus. Last year Mrs. Stewart was chaperon at the Phi Beta Phi sorority in Corvallis.

Delegate in Portland

Mrs. R. J. Hendricks was the official delegate to the meeting in Portland yesterday of the Press and Publicity department of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs from the Salem club. Mrs. Hendricks attended both sessions, morning and afternoon, returning in the evening.

Mrs. Raymond Entertains

Members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary were delightfully entertained on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. E. J. Raymond when the group met for the first gathering of the autumn season. After a short business meeting pleasing piano numbers were given by Miss Edna Raymond and Miss Alice Blaxton. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

New Pastor Welcomed

Dr. and Mrs. Norman Kendall Tully of Racine, Wisconsin, were cordially welcomed on Friday evening at the First Presbyterian church by a host of friends from the congregation and from the city. The church parlors, for the event, were profusely decorated with masses of colorful autumn flowers and sheaves of vivid leaves and vine foliage. Quantities of dahlias and gladioli were used all about. In the dining room two tea tables were arranged each centered with a basket of golden helenium and guarded

Oregon Magazine. Always full of readable features, the current issue strikes one as even more so than usual. A column on the Moroni Olsen players, by the way, is of particular interest with the making public of the news that the AAUW is to sponsor their appearance here.

The opening feature in the regular contents of the magazine is a story, "The Girl Back Home," by Alexander Hull of Newberg. A richly illustrated article, "Birds of the Klamath Lakes," and written by William L. and Irene Finley, of the National Associations of Audubon Societies is, without doubt, one of the most valuable in the issue.

The name of Albert Richard Wetjen, who has won distinct success in the fictional field, is enough to guarantee a host of readers for a second short story in the magazine, "Toll" it is called.

Sarah Hunt Steeves, in the manner of her recollections, tells of the "Oregon State Fair in Pioneer Days."

Ella McMunn, who makes of words so apt a tool, has written four delicious pages on "The Dance of Lorigerita."

Under the caption, "Tomorrow's Beaus and Belles of Oregon," the magazine has a full page display of eight charming little tots, all of whom—except Anthony Euwer, Jr., and his first birthday cake—are of Salem. In the group are Marylee Fry, Margaret Hucklestein, Dorris Marjory Arbuckle, Anthony Euwer, Jr., Mervyn Jay Gunnell, Patricia Livesley, Josephine Lewis and Marjory Lucille Knox.

Sorority Tea

A group of 20 of the younger girls who are entering college this fall were the guests yesterday afternoon at an attractively appointed informal tea at which the alumnae and active Salem members of Chi chapter of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority were hostesses at the home of Miss Amelia Babcock.

Miss Bertha Babcock received the guests at the door and assisted in the rooms which were lovely with autumn flowers in shades of yellow and bronze. Tapers in harmonizing shades were used in the rooms. The tea table was centered with the replica of a "treble lyre, the sorority emblem, banked with scarlet blossoms and greenery. Red candles completed the color scheme. During the afternoon Mrs. Monroe Gilbert and Mrs. Martin Pereshetian sang solos and Mrs. A. G. Bates gave a reading.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding and Mrs. Edgar Hartley presided at the urns. Two younger sisters of members—Miss Dorothy Moore and Miss Virginia Holt—assisted in the serving.

Vacation Time Over

With the end of the vacation season, a number of Salem teachers have returned preparatory to taking up their work for the winter. Miss Adella Chapler has been a guest during the summer of her sister, Mrs. Gilbert of Newport. Miss May Rauch and Alice Thompson have been in attendance at summer school in Southern California. Miss Ann Joenje spent her vacation period at her home in Kansas, while Miss Edith Bragg who will take her place on the Salem schools for the first time this fall has been at the Monmouth Library during the summer.

To Enter U. of O.

Three prominent Salem girls are leaving this week-end to enter the University of Oregon for the first time. In the group are: Miss Helen Beverley Roberts, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts; Miss Priscilla Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr.; and Miss Rovena Eyre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Eyre.

Letter from Pastor

In an interesting letter from Rev. Ward Willis Long of Stockton, California, to members of the Salem church, is enclosed a bulletin from the Stockton church and the additional program announcing the installation for Mr. Long.

Rev. Long was formally installed in his new pastorate at 8 o'clock the evening of September 11. The program also announces Mrs. Long's solo, "How Lovely Art Thy Dwellings." The little daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Long, Emelyssee Wardine, who was born in Salem on Easter Sunday, was baptized at this time, immediately after which Lois Evangeline, Emelyssee Wardine's sister sang, "That Sweet Story of Old."

In his letter, Mr. Long writes that the family is unusually well, and very happy in their new work.

Mrs. T. A. Livesley spent yesterday in Portland. She was the guest of her daughter, Miss Dorothy Livesley at St. Helen's Hall.

House Guests Here

Mr. and Mrs. Joan Buchanan are spending the week-end as house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mark McCallister. Mrs. Buchanan and Mrs. McCallister are sisters.

Honored With Luncheon

Mrs. Lina Delahoyde, who will be the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker, until the first of October was complimented on Friday with a beautifully appointed 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle when her hostess entertained in her honor. The luncheon table was lovely with asters in shades of lavender and purple and candles in the same amethyst shade to harmonize. Following the luncheon, the guests met at the home of Mrs. Baker for an afternoon of bridge. Mrs. O. C. Locke won high score.

Guests for the bridge luncheon were: Mrs. Lina Delahoyde, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. Milton Meyers, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Ivan Hussey, Mrs. Errol Kay, Mrs. W. H. Lytle, Miss Neen West, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, and the hostess, Mrs. Edwin L. Baker.

House Guest Returns

Mrs. D. H. Craven returned Thursday from Eugene after spending several days as the guest at her sister's home, Mrs. J. E. Allison.

Leaves for Eugene

Miss Lenta Baumgartner returned last week to the University of Oregon to resume her studies. Miss Baumgartner is a junior at the university. She is a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

W. E. Baker and his daughter, Eva Blank, of Petaluma, California, are visiting in Salem as the guests of J. A. Baker. The two Mr. Bakers are brothers.

with golden tapers in crystal holders. The reception room was screened with lattice work, on each post of which a basket of flowers were arranged. Hanging baskets, filled with vivid red and white dahlias were arranged from each chandelier while wall baskets added further to the effect, as did the numerous ferneries used.

Mr. Joseph H. Albert, as a member of the board of trustees, introduced the guests to Dr. and Mrs. Tully who were assisted in the receiving during the evening by members of the Session. In the line were: S. A. Bowman, E. A. Kerney, T. G. Albert, J. P. Bates, and R. C. Davis.

Benjamin J. Kimber presided during the evening, opening the program with a short devotional service, after which, Dr. W. C. Kantner, as the veteran minister of the city, welcomed Dr. Tully to the Salem Ministerial association and to the city. Following Dr. Kantner's greeting, an instrumental trio by Miss Lucille Ross, Miss Iva Claire Love, and Miss Dorothy Pearce, delighted the guests. Immediately after, Mr. Kimber presented the new pastor to his people. D. Tully responded in a fine manner. The closing number of the program was a solo by J. P. Smart.

H. E. Barrett had the program in charge.

Mrs. Max O. Euren had charge of the decorating for the evening while Mrs. J. W. Harrison had charge in the dining room. Mrs. Euren was assisted by Miss Elizabeth Hogg, Miss Lillian Applegate, and Mrs. R. A. Annin.

During the first hour, those pouring were: Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. D. A. Hodge, Mrs. W. H. Steusloff, and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Their places at the second hour were taken by Mrs. S. E. Purvine, Mrs. H. E. Barrett, Mrs. J. P. Bates, and Mrs. W. W. Emmons.

Assisting in the serving were: Mrs. Otto J. Wilson, Mrs. L. F. She'don, Mrs. John Griffith, Mrs. G. F. Chambers, Mrs. A. F. Marcus, Mrs. Charles Wiper, Mrs. Guy L. Rathbun, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Mirpah Blair, Miss Lucille Ross, Miss Helen Marcus, Miss Helen Davis and Miss Velma Davis.

Miss McKelvey Returns

Miss Merle McKelvey returned on Friday of last week from an absence of three months in British Columbia. Miss McKelvey has been spending her vacation at Lake Alta, one of the most delightful of the Canadian resorts.

Mrs. Becke Honored

Mrs. Donald Young and Mrs. Lloyd Farmer entertained on Tuesday at the Farmer home complimenting Mrs. Karl Becke. The table, from which Mrs. Clifford Farmer poured, was centered with a beautiful arrangement of asters in the pastel shades. Pink candles were used in crystal holders. Assisting in the serving were Mrs. Darrell Proctor and Mrs. Ronald Jones.

In the group for the afternoon were: Mrs. T. A. Roberts, Mr. William Mott, Mrs. Darrell Proctor, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Ernest Thom, Mrs. Paul Hedricher, Mrs. Edgar Pierce, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. E. V. McMechan, Mrs. L. B. Gilbertson, Mrs. Walte J. Kirk, Mrs. F. W. Poorman, the honor guest, Mrs. Karl Becke, and the hostesses, Mrs. Lloyd Farmer and Mrs. Donald Young.

To Wed On Saturday

One of the most interesting social events of this week will be the marriage on Saturday, September 26, of Miss Audrey Pomeroy to Mr. Charles Goodwin. Miss Pomeroy has been feted in numerous charming ways since the announcement of her engagement, last spring. Attractive among a number on recent days was the dinner party which Miss Mollie Schwabauer gave. A color scheme of yellow was used, with marigolds forming the centerpiece.

Covers were placed for: Miss Audrey Pomeroy, the honor guest, Miss Valerie Briggs, Miss Marie Briggs, Miss Melba Davenport, Mrs. Ellis Carl Charlton, and the hostess, Miss Mollie Schwabauer.
