Three Homes Looted—
Three Salem residences were visited by burglars over the week-end, the robberies evidently taking place early Sunday night. Entering the house through the woodliff, thieves stole about $2 in nickels from G. J. Backe, 298 North Twenty-third between 2 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 o'clock at night; a thorough search was made of the G. A. Miller residence, 260 Marion, though nothing was reported missing. Entrance was gained through the use of a jimmy on a window. At the H. G. Carl dwelling, 965 E. entrance was gained through a basement door that was pried open with a screw driver but nothing has been missed. Owing to the similarity of the method used, the police believe the robberies to be the work of the same burglar or burglars.

Another Burglary Reported—
Otto Kubin, 2020 South Commercial, reported to the police that someone had broken into his house Monday and had stolen a seal skin bag containing a gold pencil, a book of street car tickets, and about $10 in cash.

Police Raid Nets Trio—
Richard Riddle, Sebron C. Davenport and Philip Smith were released from the city jail Monday following a variety of charges running from gambling behind closed doors, drunkenness and possession of liquor. The men were arrested at 84 1/2 Center Sunday night. All three charges were placed against Riddle, at whose home the party was held. Riddle pleaded "not guilty" Monday while Davenport and Smith were released under bail of $20 and $10 respectively. They are charged with being drunk and gambling behind locked doors and are slated to appear in the police court today.

Car Stolen—
William Jefferson, 1309 North Commercial, reported to the police that his Maxwell touring had been stolen Monday night from in front of the telephone office on Liberty street.

REMODELED YWCA GIVES MORE ROOM

Cafeteria Service is Dropped; Girl Reserves Will Meet Friday Night

Remodeling of the YWCA has just been finished, with the old cafeteria cut up into a dining room and kitchen for the girls living at the hall, and into four new bedrooms. The YWCA now has 16 rooms, and hopes to enjoy the company of a larger family. Cafeteria service will not be resumed this fall.

Mrs. Jack Currier, who has been appointed to serve as house-mother for the hall, commenced in her official capacity Monday. With the finishing of the remodeling, the YWCA has started in earnest on its fall program.

The Girl Reserve of the Salem high school, which is sponsored by the YWCA, are to hold a setting-up conference Friday evening at which plans for the work of the coming winter will be discussed and determined upon. Mrs. Claire Vibbert has kindly loaned her cottage on the River road to the girls for the purpose of holding their meetings. Miss Rosalie Buren is president of the local chapter of the Girl Reserve.
