

Eastern Star Club
Twelve tables of bridge and five hundred were in play Tuesday afternoon when 56 members of the Eastern Star Social Afternoon Club met for a delightful time. The rooms were lovely with flowers in tones of purple and gold—African and French marigolds, linnias, purple asters and Michaelmas daisies. Refreshments were served at the tea hour.

Mrs. David Wright won the high bridge score of the afternoon, while the high score for five hundred went to Mrs. Lucille Blwer.

The social committee in charge of the affair, with Mrs. Byron B. Herrick as chairman, included: Mrs. Herrick, Mrs. R. F. Dillen, Mrs. Fred Ellis, Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith, Mrs. Herbert H. Hauser, Mrs. N. H. Jones, Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mrs. G. A. Olsen, Mrs. Rose Pratt, Mrs. James Imah and Mrs. William Neimeyer.

Ladies Aid to Meet
The Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet for the first meeting of the season at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Some very important matters are to be considered and a full attendance is desired. The women are reminded that this is the meeting when each is to bring two articles prepared during the summer for the Christmas bazaar. Hostesses for the afternoon will be the old and new officers.

Venison Dinner Enjoyed
One of Salem's congenial social groups, the Potlatch club, met on Tuesday evening for a delicious venison dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort. A cut-glass bowl of cosmos in the pastel shades centered the table where covers were placed for 16. Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor, special guests for the evening, were invited to become members of the club. Mrs. W. E. Kirk was elected president of the group to succeed Mrs. Vandevort, who was Tuesday's hostess. At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Price and Mrs. Kirk will entertain.

Covers at the 6:30 o'clock dinner were placed for Dr. and Mrs. Fred C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Price, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Legge, Dr. and Mrs. B. L. Steeves, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Winslow, Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Lee, Miss Beryl Holt, Mr. U. G. Holt, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Vandevort.

Brownsville Girl Queen
Brownsville, Or.—Brownsville was permitted to name the queen for the county fair this season and selected Miss Betty Coshow, a Brownsville high school girl. Miss Coshow is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Coshow, a niece of Judge O. P. Coshow of the state supreme court. She is of pioneer stock, being a granddaughter of the late O. P. Coshow, Sr., who was an early settler here.

Miss Coshow is one of a family of six girls and two boys, all noted for their good looks. She will be crowned queen at Albany Friday, Sept. 25. The Brownsville schools, headed by J. E. Torbett, superintendent, probably will attend in a body.

To Attend U. of W.
Miss Lois Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Taylor, left yesterday morning for Seattle where she will attend the University of Washington. Miss Taylor attended Willamette university last year where she is a member of the Beta Chi sorority.

Mrs. Bishop Is Hostess
Mrs. C. P. Bishop was hostess on Tuesday afternoon at an informal tea honoring Mrs. Henry Latts of Terre Haute, Ind., who is the house guest of Mrs. Will Moore. Mrs. Latts returned to her home yesterday morning.

S. S. Program
The Sunday school council of religious education in the Hayesville district will hold an all-day meeting in the Hazel Green school on Sunday. Charles W. Cady is president of this district's council and Miss Lella Armstrong is the secretary.
