Upper left: Miss Priscilla Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Sr., who entered the University of Oregon this term as a freshman.
Upper center: Mrs. Leon Du Bois (Velma Taylor) whose wedding solemnized at the First Unitarian church, was an attractive event of late summer.
Upper right: Miss Helen Beverley Roberts, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, who left last week for Eugene where she will attend the University of Oregon.
Lower left: Mrs. Lewis D. Griffith and little daughter, Lorah Kate. Mrs. Griffith entertained at a charming pre-nuptial affair on Monday afternoon of last week honoring Miss Mary Jane Albert and Miss Margaret Griffith, cousins of her husband. Little Lorah Kate, who was named for her two grandmothers, was born on Easter Sunday, 1925.
Lower right: Miss Florence Cartwright, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright, who will return today from a two weeks' vacation at Fern Lodge, Washington.

Preparations for Meeting
The women of the various Methodist Episcopal churches of the city are busily preparing for the thirty-third annual meeting of the Columbia River branch of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society which will be held at First Church, October 8-11. Delegates will be present from Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. Seven missionaries will attend this meeting and the national treasurer, Miss Florence Hooper of Baltimore.

Visiting Friends Here
Miss Ruth Wilkie of Olympia, Wash., and Earl Eddins, an Alpha Sigma Phi at University of Washington, are visiting friends in Salem this week-end.

Salem Woman's Club
Outstanding in the events of yesterday's meeting of the Salem Woman's club was the talk which Miss Eleanor Statter of Portland gave on the general subject of "American Art." Miss Statter had practically a picture to illustrate every sentence, making her whole talk extremely interesting to the audience. She spoke of American architecture, sculpture, fountains, painting, and pottery each in its relation to the tendency of the people as a nation.

The board meeting of the afternoon was followed with the regular bi-monthly meeting of the club, with the president, Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, presiding. Miss Evangeline Hall presided at the piano for the singing of the club song, "America, the Beautiful." The program opened with a most delightfully given report of the first department institute of the Federated clubs of Oregon. This was given by Mrs. R. J. Hendricks who represented the club in person when the institute was called to order.

Mrs. Hendricks' report was followed by the announcement of classes which are to form, Mrs. George H. Alden and her committee having charge of the arrangements. Mrs. F. A. Elliott was appointed as a representative from the Salem Woman's club to the county council. Mrs. William Everett Anderson presented plans for the salvage shop which will soon be opened every club Saturday in the basement of the club house.

Both special vocal and instrumental music was heard during the day. Miss Eugenia Savage, at the piano, played two MacDowell numbers, "To a Water Lily," and "From an Indian Lady." Mrs. Martin Fereshetian, accompanied by Miss Hall sang Cadman's "Love Like the Dawn Came Stealing," and "The Last Hour," by Kramer. An enjoyable social hour followed the regular meeting. The entire club house was never more lovely than in the decorations that decked it yesterday. Vine maple with crimsoning leaves was festooned here and there, while pale pink cosmos, Michelmas daisies, marigolds and zinnias gave a definite floral note. Orange candles were used on the table to harmonize with the marigolds. Yesterday's committee included Mrs. E. M. Page, chairman; Mrs. P. A. Eiker, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Mrs. Homer Smith, Mrs. Ray Hartman, Mrs. William McGilchrist, Jr., Miss Lester Barr, Mrs. Walter Page, Mrs. F. H.

MOONBOUND
By Isabel Gray Clifford
The Moon, I know, was present at my birth,
And with a cool impatience branded me.
Then sent me, on a silver strand, to Earth,
A worshiper, half-fettered and half free.
For as the pallid crescent—veiled in rose—
Climbs to the zenith of its glided pride,
A torment, wistful, born of passion, grows
In me; and moods; and follies, half-defied;
I worship it, (and weep), a moon-drenched night;
Its beauty brings a stab of finite pain;
For I am bound to beauty and to light.
My freedom comes when skies are dark again.
And I would never love the lustrous moon
As I adore the languid, mocking moon.

Thompson, Mrs. J. T. Whittig and Mrs. Laura Cass French.
Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. George J. Pearce presided at the urns.

Entertain at Dinner
Mr. and Mrs. William Dillmon Smith entertained at dinner Saturday evening in their home, 1765 Center street, for the pleasure of a group of friends. Lavender and white asters in a cut glass vase made a lovely centerpiece for the dining table. White candles in crystal holders completed the artistic effect.
Covers at the dinner were placed for Prof. and Mrs. Frank E. Churchill, Miss Lena Belle Tartar, Miss May Rauch, Miss Grace Elizabeth Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Asher of Portland, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William Dillmon Smith.

Miscellaneous Shower
Mrs. L. R. Fisher (Mildred Donaldson) was pleasantly surprised on Wednesday evening when a number of her friends gave her a miscellaneous shower at her new home at 525 North Fifteenth street. The evening was spent with a variety of games. The hostess was made the recipient of a host of lovely gifts. At a late hour refreshments were enjoyed.
In the group for the evening were Mrs. L. R. Fisher, Mrs. J. G. Fisher, Miss Theresa Shatt, Miss Ruth Latin, Miss Flora Turbull, Miss Bessie Donaldson, Miss Ruth Mitchell, Miss Editha Wyatt, Miss Pauline Pierce, Miss Leona Fisher, and Miss Edna McElraney.

Mrs. Bishop in Corvallis
Mrs. C. P. Bishop attended a board meeting yesterday in Corvallis in the interest of the Children's farm home. Mrs. Bishop is a member of the farm home board.

Miss Marvin Leads Class
Miss Cornelia Marvin, state librarian, opened an intensely interesting class on Friday evening in the study of Modern Thought at the city library. Twenty enthusiastic members were present for the opening meeting. The objective of the class will be the study of the history of civilization—with art as the supreme product. The class intends to rely, largely, on Elle Faure's authoritative four volumes on "The History of Art." Each member of the group will be required to participate in making the hour and a half successful. The preferred way will be to discuss extracts from brilliant writers who have dealt with the subject. Miss Marvin supplied the group with valuable reference books from which each member may read and report, each on some phase of art, i. e., science, sculpture and architecture.

Mrs. Bishop in Corvallis
Those interested in kindergarten work will be glad to learn that Mrs. Raleigh St. James of Portland will again conduct classes during state fair week at the State Parent-Teachers' association booth at the fairgrounds.

Miss Marvin Leads Class
Mrs. St. James is an experienced kindergarten teacher and the association is fortunate in securing her services. The day nursery will be in charge of Mrs. Joseph Dutt. Information concerning both departments may be had by telephoning Mrs. George Wenderoth who has charge of the Parent-Teacher work at the state fair, at 1237 W. or by calling at the booth in the old pavilion.

Officer Is Guest
Lieutenant and Mrs. Carl E. Hall of Bremerton and Miss Dorothy Hall of Portland were guests in Salem for a number of days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brazier C. Small. Lieutenant Hall was on his way to San Diego to meet his ship the S.S. Arizona.

Guests From Portland
Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Asher of Portland are guests over the week-end of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. William Dillmon Smith.

Ten-Cover Dinner
Dr. and Mrs. J. D. McCormick were hosts on Friday evening at an attractively appointed ten-cover dinner at their home. The after-dinner hours were enjoyably spent with music and conversation. A cut glass bowl of cosmos in the pastel shades were used on the dining table, while pink rosebuds and asters were used in the living room.

Livesleys Are Hosts
Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley entertained at an attractive 14-cover dinner last night in their home on Lincoln Hill, honoring Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary. Garden flowers were used in the decorating.

Covers were placed for Senator and Mrs. Charles L. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. John H. McNary, Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Goulet, Dr. and Mrs. J. Shelley Saurman, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Roberts, Col. W. B. Bartram, Miss Dorothy Livesley, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Livesley.

MILLER'S
Good Goods
Salem's Leading Department Store
Hillsboro Sheridan Monmouth Verona
ORGANIZED TO PROMOTE GOOD QUALITY
The proof of the pudding—
Most chain stores operating upon the "Price Appeal" policy have very little if no STANDARD NATIONALLY KNOWN merchandise to offer. The reason is obvious. A reputable manufacturer will not jeopardize his good will for the sake of furnishing a price appeal store with merchandise of doubtful character.
Compare such a store with Miller's. Here one will find an excellent assortment of the world's finest lines among which are well known names, such as:
HOLEPROOF MUNSINGWEAR PERRIN GORDON CONDE PRINTZ REDFERN BRIGHTON SKINNERS KAYNEE
CLOTHCRAFT CHENEY MALLINSON BOTANY EVERFAST VANITY FAIR KAYSER BRADLEY BEACON KANT-FADE
GOSSARD ROYAL SOCIETY NEMO VANTA NASHUA GRIFFON KRIPPENDORF JANTZEN KENWOOD CANNON
A good store and good merchandise invariably make for themselves a place in the people's favor. Quality is always the one thing that will win greatest measure of success. Price alone bears little relation to value; less perhaps to satisfaction, which leads us to say that if more people took greater interest in quality of the merchandise they buy and in the character of the store and its service they would be benefited.
Miller's enjoy the privilege of having NATIONALLY ADVERTISED lines throughout their stores and if you are not acquainted with these leaders we invite you to come in some day and make their acquaintance.
