

POOR PUSS VICTOR IN HANDICAP EVENT

Jockey Buell Finishes First in Two Stirring Races at Fairgrounds

Jockey Buell had his day on the Lone Oak speedway yesterday, when he finished first in both the Salem Handicap and the Vanishing American events.

In the Wild Horse Mesa stake for a purse of $200, Skylark Ches won, with Donovan up. The distance was one half mile. The field got off to a fine start and was bunched all the way around.

The Salem Handicap, for all ages, was a beautiful race, with Donovan riding second on Rochester, Jr., and only a few feet behind Jockey Buell on Poor Puss.

In the Vanishing American event the last race on the program, Randolph, a four-year old chestnut gelding finished first in a beautiful run, taking $140 out of a $200 purse.

Summary: Wild Horse Mesa—1/2 mile, Purse $200. Skylark Ches. (Donovan), Slat, (Gipson), Cicly K. (Buell), Billy Randolph (Jones). Time 1:42.

Salem Handicap—One mile, Purse $500. Poor Puss (Buell), Rochester Jr., (Donovan), Peace

THEY EVEN LIKED OUR RAIN TUESDAY

Associate Editor of the Nation's Health Hopes to Live in Salem Some Day

Mrs. A. Park and Miss Marian Wannamaker of Chicago, who are motoring to California, spent last Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at the Salem hospital and thoroughly enjoyed Salem in spite of the rain.

They are quite enthusiastic about everything in Salem, the cordial hospitality of its people, its lovely homes, beautiful flowers, good roads and delightful climate, and express the hope that they will be able to settle here later.

Discarded Cable Cars Make Complete Homes

SEATTLE—Two discarded cable cars are the home of the A. S. Brewers, in this city. The cable car dwelling is entered from its original side-front door, which opens into the living room, made of the combined front platforms, which are larger than those of a regular street car.

HOPE SCRAP IS LAST LITTLE INTEREST IN RECENT CLASS BATTLES

There was little or no interest in the recent freshman-sophomore scrap so far as I have been able to find.

The effort is being made in other universities to show the freshmen the better side of college life," he said, and expressed the hope that the sophomore classes at Willamette in the future will adopt this modern method instead of the old worn-out one.

Dean Erickson also asked the privilege of meeting with the executive committee of the student body during their discussions. He expressed it as his belief that the faculty and the student body of the university should try to get together on matters instead of trying to pull against each other.
