Attempt Robbery—An unsuccessful attempt was made Thursday night to rob the creamery at Jefferson of 700 pounds of butter. The thieves got the butter out on the creamery platform, but left in haste at the advent of a night watchman. Creameries over the valley have been robbed lately, and steps are now being taken to protect the creameries from further assaults. Poultry thefts have also become common in the valley, and steps are being taken to apprehend the chicken thieves.

Hi-Y Clubs Are Organized—Two Hi-Y clubs, one at Admerville and one at Woodburn, were organized in Marion county this week. Both clubs adopted the educational feature of hearing successful business men explain their occupations with a view of their choosing vocations. Probably 15 different occupations will be explained to the boys during the winter. Each club is to have a 20 minute Bible study period before the social hour. Officers for the Admerville group are Prof. S. C. Stephens, leader; Kenneth Porter, president; Kenneth Purdy, vice president; Wayne Ransom, secretary; Lloyd Seely, treasurer, and Ross Condit, sponsor. The Woodburn officers are Prof. A. W. Everett, leader; Gordon Nelson, president; Robert Scott, vice president; Norman Richards, secretary treasurer, and H. M. Austin, sponsor.

Bits For Breakfast—Costing a lot of money—These trials of the convict killers—And costing it to the taxpayers of Marion county.

The time will come, when penology and criminology are studied in the universities, and common sense prevails, that there will be no second trials for men once convicted of felonies.

Salem schoolman asked pupil about the different ages in history. The stone age, bronze age, iron age, was the answer. "What are we living in now?" inquired the teacher. "The hard-boiled age," was the answer.

Convicts in Sing Sing are permitted to have radio sets in their cells, if financially able to purchase the equipment.—Exchange. With moving pictures, baseball, concerts and radio as inducements, these state prisons will soon be overrun by those who take a chance, knowing if they make a safe getaway they are fixed to enjoy ythings, and if caught, will enjoy life even if confined.—Fort Meade Leader. (Wonder if the ink who wrote the foregoing believes it? If he does, he will never get into a penitentiary for the feeble minded.)

Trying to run a flour mill and elevator has so far cost the state of North Dakota the modest little sum of $845,932.38. Another case of the "government in business." It is always thus.

Some of our exchanges have noted that a bank in Northampton, Mass., the town where President Coolidge lives, offers to pay $2.50 for each $2 bill presented at the counter. "Altruism could no further go," says one of the commentators. "Oh, yes, it could." The Northampton bonus offer for those opening bank accounts, in which the deposit of a $3 bill is to be credited as $2.50. Getting a new depositor for 50 cents isn't altruism. It is genuine New England thrift.—Philadelphia Press.
