OWN YOUR OWN HOME! The instinct for a home is as natural in humanity as the instinct to mate. A young couple beginning family life in their own home, secure at once a back ground, an anchorage. Children brought up in their own home have the supreme advantage of a domestic sentiment that is one of the most valuable of spiritual possessions. Without their own house, there is an inescapable sense of being transients, of having no firm foundation for family life. We have several new bungalows, 4 rooms and breakfast nook, we will sell, just like rent. RICH L. REIMANN, Realtor 147 North Commercial St. 63a13tf

Residential apartments, close in 4 apartments and furniture. This will make a home for owner and bring in $75 per month. ONLY $5500. Terms. See PARKER FOR PROPERTY 409 U. S. Bank Bldg. Tel. 2242 63o10

THOMASON, 331½ State St. 63o10tf

NOW THAT THE STATE FAIR IS over and they've taken the "old grey mare" home, let's do a little swapping for excitement—you know that big pumpkin (not the one the Governor tried to lift), well, we have 30 acres that will raise big ones like that, worth $7500 and the owner has gone in for society and wants a town house; or would you rather have 65 improved acres worth $4000; or 80 fine improved bottom acres worth $10,000; or how would you like to trade a small house for a bigger one and 3 lots worth $2500; or have you a good house worth $4000 or $5000 that you could take a couple of Portland acres worth $1200 as part payment; or how would you trade that high priced 40 for a real ranch of 190 acres worth $125 per acre. # M'QUIGG IS NAMED LEGION COMMANDER

59 Year Old Veteran Given Unanimous Vote; Stormy Meeting Ends

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 9. — (By Associated Press).—The American Legion's seventh annual convention ended today with the elevation of John R. (Go Get 'Em) McQuigg of East Cleveland, Ohio, whitehaired 59 year old lawyer, banker and wounded overseas engineering officer to the honor of national commander. His election was assured long before the end of the first roll call of states was announced and his two opponents, Howard P. Savage of Chicago and Edward Spafford of New York, successfully moved that the election be made by a unanimous vote. The vote was McQuigg 661, Spafford 224, and Savage 55.

Thus ended what was termed by many the legion's most harmonious convention despite the fact that it was convened and operated four days under a storm cloud which threatened to send the delegates into a terrific fight.

The matter of commendation for Col. William Mitchell, severe critic of the nation's aerial defense, was the hidden rock of dissension which never was revealed.

The able hands at the helm of the legion guided a course so clear of the matter it was not brought to the floor of the convention and was disposed of in committee meetings by recommending adoption of one of Mitchell's proposals, that for a department of defense with control over three equal branches, air, navy and army, but without naming him.

So it was today. The election of McQuigg was a foregone conclusion hours before the final session convened, and votes for the Ohioan were recorded with such precision that the Illinois and New York candidates never were granted a hope for political maneuvering based on elimination of the powerful by the weak aided by a deadlock.

Most of the reports and resolutions adopted had to do with services of world war veterans or interests peculiar to the legion and of national or international interest. One, however, sought to have the legion go on record as favoring the United States adherence to the policy of the world court of international justice.

The next meeting will be held in Philadelphia in 1926 and that of 1927 was awarded to Paris, France.

Five vice commanders, chosen today, were: Hugh B. Davis, Bartlesville, Okla.; Joseph Y. Cheney, Orlando, Fla.; Vincent A. Caroll, Philadelphia; James A. Howell, Ogden, Utah, and Ray R. Littlefield of Providence, R. I. James F. Burton, Des Moines, Iowa, was chosen national adjutant and Robert H. Tyndall of Indianapolis will be national treasurer. The Rev. William Patrick of San Francisco, Cal., was elected national chaplain.

A sister of Jack London, the late noted novelist and short story writer, was chosen to head the women's auxiliary of the American Legion. She is Mrs. Elisa London Shepherd of San Francisco.
