NOW THAT THE STATE FAIR IS over and they've taken the "old grey mare" home, let's do a little swapping for excitement—you know that big pumpkin (not the one the Governor tried to lift), well, we have 30 acres that will raise big ones like that, worth $7500 and the owner has gone in for society and wants a town house; or would you rather have 65 improved acres worth $4000; or 80 fine improved bottom acres worth $10,000; or how would you like to trade a small house for a bigger one and 3 lots worth $2500; or have you a good house worth $4000 or $5000 that you could take a couple of Portland acres worth $1200 as part payment; or how would you trade that high priced 40 for a real ranch of 190 acres worth $125 per acre. Dinner a Success

One of the most successful church dinners of the entire year was that on Thursday evening at which the ladies of the First Congregational church entertained with their husbands as guests. Mrs. T. S. MacKenzie was in charge of the affair, with covers placed for 140 guests. The church was decorated in a beautiful manner for the evening, with Miss Oda Chapman in charge of this feature. Beautiful baskets and bowls of gladioli from the Upjohn gardens were used effectively with the colorful autumn leaves throughout the rooms. A beautiful bouquet of dahlias, brought in by Mrs. Lester Pearmine, gave a vivid dash of color. Mrs. John J. Roberts supplied the beautiful candles and candelabra which made the tables so attractive.

A feature of the evening was provided by the women themselves who told, many by means of an original verse, of the manner in which they invested the quarter received a year ago. At the earlier meeting $10 worth of quarters were distributed, and at the meeting on Thursday evening returns from this amount had grown to $141. During the evening, with the help of the husbands who were guests, the ladies succeeded in raising the amount in order that they may have $150 clear. Each lady told of the manner she successfully increased her quarter as roll call was read.

The dinner program opened with a delightful vocal duet by Mrs. Treval Powers and Miss Josephine Bross. Mrs. C. H. Fox had charge of the devotional service, taking as her subject "Stewardship." Mrs. John J. Roberts then pleased the group with a vocal solo. After a short talk by the pastor, Rev. Charles E. Ward, the group spent a social hour together.

Miss Marvin's Class Meets

Reports were given by those who took out books two weeks ago. S. H. Van Trump reported in particular on the religious phase of this ancient civilization and Grace Elisabeth Smith on the forms of Grecian government. A group of 17 met for the evening.
