OAC Reception

One of the major attractions of the week will be the large reception on Wednesday evening at the club house of the Salem Women's club when the members of the Salem OAC club will entertain honoring Dean Kate Jamieson, Dean U. G. Dubach, Miss Florence Erast of the physician education faculty, Miss Florence Blayser of the home economic department, Mrs. Gertrude McElfresh of the English department, Mr. and Mrs. "Bud" Kearns of the physical education department.

More than one hundred invitations have been issued for the evening to alumni, former students, and parents of those affiliated with the college. A special musical program is being arranged by the active committee in charge.

Studio Opening Attractive

Attractive in a week brimming with social affairs was the seasonal opening on Saturday of the Gilbert Studio and Craft Shop with a large number calling both during the afternoon and the evening hours. Pleasing among a host of beautiful objects on display was a pair of book ends—life-like seals, molded of plaster—which Miss Margaret Rodgers modeled while studying in the east.

A beautiful line of imported pottery is one of the features of this favorite shop and a number of the cider and tea sets called forth more than the usual amount of admiration. Delightful novelties were the flexible lacquer flower vases, used so extensively for decorative purposes. Friends of the hosts showered them with quantities of beautiful flowers which were used in the decorating. Among the assistant hostesses for the evening were Miss Florence Cartwright and Edith Carter Kuey.

Lutheran Society on Friday

The members of the Christ Evangelical Lutheran Aid society will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Albers at 635 N. 20th street. Mrs. Cora Bahlburg will assist.

Club Business on Saturday

The adoption of the departmental plan as a part of the organization of the Salem Woman's club and the creation of a finance committee stood paramount on the business program transacted Saturday at the club house. The adoption of the departmental plan, whereby many of the standing committees will be considerably augmented, has been strongly recommended during the past year by the state president.

The membership of the newly appointed finance committee is as follows: Mrs. O. E. Price (ex-officio), Mrs. Charles S. Weller, chairman, Mrs. Ray Farmer, Miss Edith Hazard, Mrs. L. H. McMahon, and Miss Ethel Fletcher. Miss Jessie McGregor, the chief speaker of the afternoon, fulfilled the office of forerunner for the Scholarship Loan Tea which will take place at the club house on Friday as one of the week's leading events.

Mrs. J. A. Carson reported on the special health convention which took place in Portland last week in the interest of the Christmas seal work. Mrs. Elmo S. White, as general chairman of the committee making plans for the tea spoke of the purposes of the affair.

Alumnae Entertained

Miss Grace Holt was hostess last evening in her home for the members of the Alpha Chi Omega alumnae association, entertaining at her home on Oak street. The group meets for delightful social gatherings throughout the year.

Polk County Group Meets

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Knower entertained at their country home in the Polk county hills on Saturday evening at four tables of five hundred. The guests included the members of group that formerly met as a regularly organized club. Mrs. Fred Gibson assisted the hostess during the evening.

In the group were:

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Schwartz, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smart, Mr. and Mrs. Roy McEwell, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Dr. and Mrs. John Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Clark, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Knower.

Guests From University

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Devers entertained at their home guest over the past week end, Lester McDonald of Eugene. Mr. McDonald is a freshman at the University of Oregon.

Yomarco Class Tonight

The Yomarco class of the First Methodist church Sunday school, will meet this evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. White for a gingham dress and shirt sleeve party—an informal Halloo'een affair. Assisting Mrs. White as hostesses will be Mrs. Grant Day, Mrs. Eric Butler and Mrs. J. D. Foley.

Miss Dotson Is Guest

Miss Mabel Dotson, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Dotson, was a guest over the week end at the home of her parents. Miss Dotson, a graduate of the Oregon Agricultural College, is teaching this year at Philomath.

Presbyterian Aid Societies

Both the South Division and the North Division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Wednesday afternoon of this week, with both meetings scheduled for 2:30 o'clock. The North division will meet at the home of Mrs. G. R. Bonell at 970 E street. Every member is especially urged to be present.

The South division will meet at the country home of Mrs. A. F. Marcus who will be assisted during the afternoon by Mrs. Charles Weller, Mrs. L. M. Purvine, Mrs. Charles Brant and Mrs. John Harrison. Those who plan to attend the meeting are asked to meet at Mrs. Harrison's home at 1845 S. Commercial street. From thence transportation will be arranged.

Arts League Tonight

A varied program promises to make the Salem Arts' League reception tonight at the club house of the Salem Woman's club one of the pleasing social events of the week. A reception, to which the public is invited, is held in this manner, each year. On the program tonight W. C. Dibble will give the chief talk of the evening. E. Cooke Patton will give magic and sleight of hand exhibitions. Miss Faye Sparks will sing during the evening and Miss Irene Smith and Joel Berriman will give readings.

Guests at Brooks

Recent guests at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Harris were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hawkins of Oakland. While here they motored to Portland to witness the last ball game of the season, dinner and the theater rounded out the day. Mr. and Mrs.

Hawkins also visited Salem relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Matthes were dinner guests at the Harris home on Tuesday, listening in to the world's series ball game over the radio. Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Bishop called and enjoyed a radio program.

Jason Lee Meeting

The West Side circle of the Jason Lee Aid society will hold its first social meeting of the season at the home of Mrs. Ruth Denison, 1540 N. Liberty street, at 2:30 o'clock.

Young Married Peoples' Club

The Young Married Peoples' club of the First Presbyterian church will hold their monthly club dinner at 6:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the church. A good program has been planned, and election of officers will take place at this meeting. The chairman of the committee in charge is Mrs. Carl E. Webb. Her assistants include: Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mrs. Walter Kirk, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. George Allen, and Mrs. I. M. Doughton.

Miniers Entertain Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Minier entertained as their home guests over the week end Miss Mabel Harris and Miss Vera Blagon of Monmouth. Additional guests for Sunday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Hedge of Portland, Mr. Grant Corby of Coquille, who has been a guest of friends since earlier in the month, left for his home on Sunday.

Reception at Church

The parlors of the Jason Lee Methodist church will be the scene of a large reception this evening when the congregation meets to honor Rev. and Mrs. Thomas A. Acheson, Gilbert Wren and Leroy Walker. Mr. Wren is the new junior pastor of the church, succeeding Mr. Walker, who has accepted the pastorate at Dayton.

Will Meet Wednesday

The Story Telling Section of the Salem Arts' League, under the leadership of Mrs. Lola Bellinger, will meet at 7:30 o'clock Wednesday evening at the city library.

Auxiliary to Meet

The Sons of Veterans auxiliary will hold its regular business meeting Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Armory. Final arrangements will be made for the bazaar and cooked food sale to be held in the near future.

Junior Guild to Meet

The Junior guild of St. Paul's Episcopal church will meet Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Frank Durbin, 1417 Court street.

Eastern Star Social Club

The Afternoon Social club of the Eastern Star will meet Tuesday afternoon in the Masonic Temple for a bridge and "500" tea. All Eastern Star members and their friends are invited to be guests. A large committee, with Mrs. Mabel Minto as chairman, is working enthusiastically for the success of the affair, which many are anticipating with pleasure.

Oglesby and Miss Alta Hockett. Delegates were appointed at this time to attend the conference in Hood River. Little 4-year-old Elaine Oglesby sang very sweetly "Everybody Ought to Love Jesus." The group voted to make spreads for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis.

Date Commemorated

Sixty years ago Saturday—October 10—Mrs. W. C. Kantner arrived in Salem, Oregon, after a trip across the plains by ox-team, leaving Missouri on March 27 and not reaching her destination until October.

The train, of which Mrs. Kantner's brother was the captain, was doubtless one of the best equipped that ever came west, as it alone of many other escaped, if not complete wiping out, numerous casualties at the hands of Indians. Mrs. Kantner—Anna White, then—crossed the Platt river at the same spot as the film, "The Covered Wagon," depicts. She tells of how having reached Hood River the horses found there the first green pasture since leaving Missouri.

Mrs. Kantner's people first settled over on the Island, later taking a claim on the Hill road that leads to Oak Grove. Dr. Kantner, who came to Oregon as a circuit rider when scarcely more than a boy, came from Pennsylvania. On Saturday of this week—October 17—Dr. and Mrs. Kantner will celebrate their 48th wedding anniversary.

Four-M Club Entertained

One of the most enjoyable meetings which the members of the Four-M club have ever held took place on Thursday at the W. C. Kantner home when Mrs. Kantner was hostess. The living room was decorated with beautiful rose and gold dahlias and huge African marigolds. In the dining room two long tables were spread where places were arranged for the stunts. One table was decorated with French marigolds and corksops and the other with varicolored snapdragons. A program followed during the afternoon. Mrs. Alice H. Dodd spoke in charming manner of her travels abroad, dealing especially with the home life of the women in Turkey, following a pleasing group of songs by Mrs. John J. Roberts with Mr. Frank Zinn accompanying. The members of the club voted to invite Mrs. Dodd to favor them with a second talk at their next meeting—this time on her trip to Jerusalem.

Visitors during the day included:

Mrs. Alice H. Dodd, Mrs. John J. Roberts, Mrs. Frank Zinn, Mrs. Hamilton, J. F. C. Teckenburg, John Cornforth, John Plank, T. S. MacKenzie, Will Farr and Dr. W. C. Kantner.

The members of the club are: Mrs. John Printz, Mrs. John Amort, Mrs. A. C. Bornstedt, Mrs. John Plank, T. S. Mackenzie, Mrs. Cannon, Mrs. John Teckenburg, Mrs. J. M. Martin, Mrs. H. O. Martin, Mrs. Arthur Spellbrink, Mrs. Will Farr, Mrs. Frank Bath, Mrs. Dale Hillborn, Mrs. Henry Bartels, Mrs. G. A. Spellbrink, Mrs. George Berg, Mrs. Marvin Wells, Mrs. Otto Schellberg, Mrs. Ed Knikhtbert, Mrs. John Cornforth.

Chapter G Is Entertained

Members of Chapter G of the PEO Sisterhood and their guests were entertained at a delightful meeting Thursday at the home of Mrs. Frank Churchill. Special guests of the day included Mrs. Fred J. Tooze, Mrs. Hannan, Mrs. W. D. Smith, Mrs. Harry Styles and Dr. Mary C. Rowland. Mrs. E. E. Fisher brought some philanthropic sewing on which the members spent the afternoon. Delicious Halloween refreshments were served at the tea hour. The paper of the day, "The Teaching Profession," was given by Mrs. W. M. Smith. The guests enjoyed visiting the Churchill garden which borders Mill creek.

Members of this chapter present included Mrs. D. X. Beechler, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, Mrs. A. L. Godfrey, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. E. J. Huffman, Mrs. W. M. Hughes, Mrs.
