

STATESMAN'S SATURDAY MORNING MARKET PAGE FOR OUR BUSY HOUSEHOLDS

FISH RECIPES

Baked Fish
Wash and dry any fish weighing four or five pounds, dredge with salt and pepper and place in a buttered pan.

Boiled Fish
The fish should be split so that the backbone will lie flat. The inside of the fish should be placed over the fire first and it should be turned frequently.

Broiled Fish
Clean them, rinse them quickly in cold spring water, dry with a towel and rub a little salt on the inside of the bone.

Fruit
Clean them, rinse them quickly in cold spring water, dry with a towel and rub a little salt on the inside of the bone.

Holland Cutlets
Before cutting the fish into slices put into dish with some salt over it, and three parts fill the dish with water, but it must not touch the salt.

POINTERS ON DUST-CLOTHS

A duster should be soft and should shed neither lint nor ravelings; it holds the dust better if lampoiled or oiled, according to the United States Department of Agriculture.

Dust cloths should be washed frequently, both because a little dirt comes out more easily and because dirty ones often leave as much dirt as they take up and may scratch highly polished surfaces.

RECIPES

Devil's Food Cake (First Part)
1 cup dark brown sugar
1/2 cup butter
3 egg yolks

(Second Part)
1 cup dark brown sugar
2-3 cup grated chocolate
1 cup sweet milk

(Third Part)
2 cups flour
1-4 level teaspoon salt
1 level teaspoon Calumet Baking Powder.

PROPHECIES

What will we all be when we are ten-years-old?
This is like the old game of forfeits. The prophet is blindfolded and one at a time the guests stand.

When William stands say "Will you say what this boy is going to do?" Be sure to begin your sentence with the right letter and be sure to say if it is a boy or girl.

Brooks

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. V. Ashbaugh was the scene of a merry surprise party on Saturday afternoon, given in honor of Mrs. Ashbaugh's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McLeod.

Hints From a House-Wife's Kitchen Diary

Pickling Time Is Here!

Pickles in themselves contain very little nutriment, but despite this fact they play an important part in the dietary, because as a condiment and appetizer they increase enjoyment of the food.

SWEET PICKLED PEARS

Sweet pickled fruit makes a very delectable relish and it can also be used for winter salads. Pears are nice prepared in this way and cooking pears are best for this purpose.

MIXED PICKLES FOR APPETITES

The familiar combination of little white beans, green string beans and cauliflower is easily made, and these vegetables are now at the height of their season.

SLICED CUCUMBER PICKLES

This is another unusual relish which is sure to increase the appetite and add to the table's variety.

POLITICAL PIE IS MENU FOR MONDAY

J. J. Crossley, Portland Attorney, Will Be Speaker at Forum Luncheon

The main dish on the menu for the weekly luncheon at the Chamber of Commerce Monday will be political pie, served by James J. Crossley, Portland lawyer.

Mr. Crossley came to Portland in 1914, and has lived there since, practicing law. He was raised on an Iowa farm, and after having graduated from the academic and law departments of the University of Iowa, and having taken a post-graduate course at Yale, he served several years as a teacher, being a principal and later a county superintendent.

He was elected a state senator in Iowa, serving the state in that capacity for five sessions of the legislature. In 1908 he was appointed United States attorney for the Fairbanks division in Alaska by President Roosevelt.

Mr. Crossley is an overseas man, entering the World war as captain of Company C of the Third Oregon Infantry, and going overseas with that company in 1917. Just before the armistice was signed he was promoted to the judge advocate general department, and was mustered out of the service in 1919 as a lieutenant.
