Ceremonial Conducted

Four candidates were initiated into membership on Tuesday evening when the members of Willamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem, met for their stated communication and ceremonial. The hall was beautifully decorated with white and yellow fall flowers.

The occasion was also planned somewhat in honor of Judge and Mrs. George H. Burnett, whose wedding was an event of Monday afternoon. A large wedding cake was cut in their honor, after which they were serenaded at their home.

During the early part of the evening Nellie Taylor, Hettie Lyle, Edna Frances McElhane and Laura Laurence Douglas were initiated into the order.

Assisting in the rites were: Worthy High Priestess, Sojourner Minnie Moeller; Sojourner Samuel Gillett, watchman of the shepherd; worthy high noble priestess, scribe, Sojourner Amos Vass; Sojourner Pearl Spear; worthy worthy treasurer, Sojourner Katherine Bernard; chaplain, Sojourner Josephine Vass; worthy shepherdess, Sojourner Grace Babcock; worthy guide, Sojourner Maude Scott; madonna, Sojourner Ola Miller; worthy herald, Sojourner Winifred Herrick; king, Sojourner Susan Varty; wise men, Sojourners J. J. Newmyer, Arthur Edwards of Turner and William McCall; handmaids, Sojourners Winifred Jones, Edith Wyatt and Betty Smith; organist, Sojourner Marie Fliss McCall; soloists, Sojourners Rose Babcock and Mabel Cupper; guardian, Sojourner Pearl Pratt; guard, Sojourner M. C. Rasmussen.

Anniversary Observance

The 50th wedding anniversary of Comrade and Mrs. Thompson Remington was celebrated in a memorable manner on Tuesday evening, October 13, at the home of Mrs. I. L. McAdams on D street. A reading during the afternoon by Mrs. Ronald Glover revealed the fact that the golden wedding anniversary of this favored couple was also celebrated at the McAdams home ten years ago.

Comrade Remington, who served in Company C of the Iowa volunteers and took part in more than one important Civil war battle, was born in Marion, Ohio. Comrade Remington was one of the men who marched with Sherman's army to the sea. On October 11, 1865, he married Elizabeth Jane Tandy of Keokuk, Ia., and came to Oregon in 1889, living for ten years on a farm near Salem. They have two sons who are residents here—J. A. Remington and William A. Remington.

A feature in the decorative scheme for the day was the beautiful flag loaned by Mrs. Elizabeth Pound. The flag was also used at the celebration a decade ago.

Assisting the hostess, Mrs. McAdams, during the afternoon were Mrs. Gertrude Remington, Mrs. Ida M. Newmyer, Mrs. Mary E. Watson, Mrs. Sarah Peterson and Mrs. Bertha Loveland. Rev. F. C. Taylor gave a talk during the afternoon while special musical numbers were contributed by Madeline Nash, Truma Huston and Elizabeth Waters.

A number of guests were present on Tuesday who were also present for the observance of the golden wedding anniversary. In this group were Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Newmyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Remington, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schott, James Lisle, Thomas Holt, Gideon Stolz, Sarah McClellan, Mrs. La Moine Clark, Emma Byars, Mrs. Ronald Glover, Maria Thompson, Ella Fishburn, Sarah Drager, Ruth Dennison, Flora Zinn, Della Clearwater, Mary Fox, Ada Simpson, Belle Morris, Elizabeth Waters and Mary Shaver.

Others who were guests at the McAdams home were R. R. Ryan, T. G. Harris, Earl Race, Rev. and Mrs. F. C. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Peebles, Mr. and Mrs. William Crum, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. LaBare, M. W. Perkins, I. L. McAdams, Louisa Koon, Ina Koon, Louisa Spalding, Jennie F. B. Jones, Mary C. Moyer, Maria T. Robertson, Hannah Higgins, Elizabeth Chamberlain, Louisa Kraps, Margaret Lewis, Elizabeth Bliss, Myra Dotson, Mable Kaup, Myrtle Collins, Hedwig Moll, Ida McAdams, Harriet Wygant, Emma Thompson, Maggie Cade, Ida London, Jennie Newby, Elizabeth Rider, Elizabeth Pound, Sue Salmon, Rose Yorls, Elizabeth Ratcliffe, Phoebe McAdams, Ida Cline, Lena Westacott and Gertrude J. M. Page.

Mrs. Tooze Visits

Mrs. Fred J. Tooze returned yesterday from a week's visit with friends and relatives in Oregon City and Portland. On Tuesday Mrs. Tooze read a paper entitled, "The Bible as Literature," before Chapter P of the PEO sisterhood, of which she is a member.

Marvelous values we say!—and you'll agree with us when you see them for we've planned long and diligently for this affair "designed to make selling history." We want to emphasize the fact that Miller's command no small place in the world's largest markets, and, therefore, cannot afford to launch a sale that smacks of mediocrity.

We have shopped and shopped the foremost style centers for values and when we open this sale today it will be with the assurance that STYLE, QUALITY and VALUE to be found here will go unmatched in Salem for months to come.

In This Sale, $45 to $60 Coats!

$35

Today, Monday, Tuesday

STYLES

—The new fall fashions are in full swing now. The flare, the wrappy, the straight line and the sports types are all shown in this sale. Flared lines are acknowledged repeatedly, yet each version is singularly different. The widened hem line gracefully accented with fur bands. Characteristic of the season, the coat sponsors a more intricate conception of cut and design. And here in this sale one will have ample choice of the newest fall and winter styles.

FABRICS

—The wide range of fabrics in this collection is really quite notable for among them are such fine weaves as Velouria, Duv-bloom, Carmina Lustrosa, Pinpoint Bolivia, Regona, Tweeds, Bolivia and Novelty Sports. You can appreciate the quality of these fabrics only by coming to see them.

FURS

—The blending of color in fur and fabric is a distinct note in the winter mode. Here one will find coats fashioned from handsome coatings attuned to the prevailing elegance of the season by fine furs such as: Fox in all the new blends, Ringtail Opossum, Mandel dyed fetch, Silver Raccoon, Chinchillette, Beaver, Manchurian Wolf, and Squirrel.

COLORS

—The very newest colors, many of which will be shown here for the first time, will make this showing especially interesting. Epinard, Bokhara, Queen Bird, Cuckoo, Gracklehead, Cedar and Black are among the leading autumn and winter shades.

SIZES

—As a special feature of this sale we've arranged to show practically every size. Sixteen to twenty year sizes and every size from 36 to 48. Whatever your size we can fit you.

LININGS

—A good coat and a good lining invariably go together. Skinner's Satin, Crepe de Chine, Plain Satin, and Figured Satins. Luxuries, indeed, but when one can purchase them at this price they become of practical value, too.

These Coats are new and exclusive the first time shown in Salem. It will be a pleasure to choose from coats that have not been handled the entire season—See them today!

"Choose now and know the pleasure of having your winter wrap when you need it."
