AUTUMN

In all the precious years when love's warm glow
Flooded our hearts, and filled the days with light,
How the future could we ever know,
Or dream of separation's bitter blight?
How could we know, when underneath the stars
Of jeweled heaven, in the years to be,
That one of us, alone, should meet the night
When stars and moon would be too dim to see?

In the rare autumn's gold we revel free,
Trampling with joy the crackling leaves of brown.
Our eager feet sought out new mystery,
Always as one we watched the leaves come down.
Now through the woodland paths we both have known,
Wraith-like, I walk these winding paths alone.

Miss Prichard to Speak

Miss Julia K. Webster, president of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club will preside at the meeting of that club Wednesday evening at eight o'clock at the Chamber of Commerce rooms, when Miss Adelia Prichard, past national president will give a talk on "What Our Federation Stands For in the Life of the Business Women." Leading members of the various men's organizations have been invited to be present as well as all members of the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs, so that an enthusiastic meeting is anticipated.

Miss Grace S. Toerner, director of the women's department of the Bank of Italy, Los Angeles, one of the prominent women of the Pacific coast has also been invited to attend. Miss Toerner is just returning from an extended eastern trip, while in Portland being the guest of Miss Prichard.

A special invitation was extended by Miss Louise M. Hacker, president of the state federation, to the members of the local club at the Thursday luncheon meeting, and it is anticipated that a large group will attend the Salem meeting. Miss Agnes Thomas, 1006 Northwest Bank Bldg., has charge of the transportation arrangements, and it is urged that those contemplating the trip make their reservations not later than Tuesday. The plan is if a party of fifteen go, to secure a auto bus, leaving the stage depot, Park and Yamhill at five o'clock Wednesday afternoon, returning the same evening, the round trip fare to be $1.75.

Many of the state officers will also attend, as an executive council.

Old-Fashioned Dance

Friday evening, October 23, St. Joseph's auditorium on the corner of Chemeketa and Winter streets will be the scene of an old fashioned dance. Witches, goblins, fairies and spooks will predominate in decorations and tend to enliven the evening. The quadrilles which were a source of much merriment for both the dancer and spectator many years ago will be called by a veteran of the old dancing school.

This Halloween party will be for the pleasure of both young and old of St. Joseph's parish and their friends.

Bridge Club Entertained

One of Salem's most delightful bridge clubs was entertained on Friday of last week when Mrs. Allan Carson was hostess for the members of her card group, meeting at her home. Special guests for the afternoon were Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, Mrs. Dan J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Harry Hawkins and Miss Margaret Rodgers. At the next meeting of the club on October 30, Mrs. Paul Hendricks will entertain.

In the group on Friday, with the afternoon's high score going to Mrs. John H. Carson, were: Mrs. Paul Hendricks, Mrs. John H. Carson, Mrs. Hollis Huntington, Mrs. Donald Young, Mrs. Clifton Irwin, Mrs. Orris F. Fry, Mrs. Clifford Farmer, Mrs. Homer Egan and the hostess, Mrs. Allan Carson.

O. M. S. Luncheon

An enthusiastic group of former Oregon Normal school students met at a luncheon Saturday noon in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church.

The president of the Marion county division of the Better Oregon Normal school club, Mr. F. A. Gallegly of Jefferson called upon Superintendent Hug of Salem. Asst. State Supt. William Smith, Professor W. G. Beattie of Oregon Normal school, Dean J. B. V. Butler, Oregon Normal school, Mrs. Mary V. Charlton of Salem and Mrs. J. S. Landers of Monmouth for speeches. Each of these special guests responded in a most interesting and inspiring manner.

The general trend of thought throughout the speeches was for better training of teachers and a better Oregon normal school. The result of the meeting was a move for a permanent and wider organization of the club which stands for these principals. Over a hundred members were present. President Gallegly appointed as a committee on the organization, Miss Lillian Schroeder, Salem, Miss Olga Johnson, Silverton and Mrs. Hazel Marshall, Woodburn. The committee in charge of the luncheon were Miss Olga Johnson, Silverton, Miss Elma R. McAllister Brooks, Miss Catherine Bates, Salem and W. R. Powers, Marion.

Birthdays Celebrated

Several automobile loads of guests from the G. A. R. and the Daughters of Veterans motored to the country home of Comrade Harris on Friday afternoon to celebrate his seventy-eighth birthday. The Daughters of Veterans presented him with a large birthday cake at this time, a custom they observe with the birthday of each veteran. The presentation was made by Elizabeth Waters. Delicious refreshments were served, after the singing of a group of old songs.

In the group motoring out were Commander and Mrs. J. H. Newmyer, Comrade and Mrs. Mat-tews, Comrade Earl Race, Comrade Harris, Comrade Shepard, Mrs. Mabel Lockwood, Mrs. Mary Brewer, Mrs. Libbeth Waters, Mrs. Madeline Nash, Mrs. E. E. National P. E. O. Convention

Members of Salem's two chapters of the PEO Sisterhood will be interested in the following clipping, concerning the national convention of the Sisterhood which just closed in St. Paul, Minnesota, from the St. Paul daily:

More than five hundred delegates from all parts of the country will arrive the middle of the week to attend the supreme convention of the PEO sisterhood.

The convention will open in Minneapolis Tuesday and will continue through Friday. As the president of the Minnesota PEO, Mrs. E. J. Gifford, resides in St. Paul, it is expected many St. Paul members will attend the supreme session.

All sessions of the convention will be held at the Wesley Methodist church, while the headquarters will be at the Curtis hotel. Many social affairs have been planned for the out-of-town guests during the meeting, one of the largest to be held in St. Paul when a large tea will be given Thursday at the University club following an automobile tour of the city.

Mrs. Vina Ives Bowden, Mis-souri, supreme president, arrived Saturday and is in Minneapolis. Two other prominent visitors are Mrs. Winona Reeves, editor of the Record, the official magazine of the order, and Mrs. Mary Allen Stafford, Muscatine, Ia., one of the two living charter members.

One of the chief matters of discussion before the meeting will be the erection of a memorial library in honor of seven founders of the society. It is expected the memorial will be established on the grounds of Iowa Wesleyan university at Mt. Pleasant where PEO was founded 55 years ago. The

WRINKLES, LINES

OR CROWS-FEET

Lemon Juice Tightens Skin

Squeeze the juice of two lemons in a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well and you have the very mildest anti-wrinkle lotion to tighten relaxed skin.

Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion into the skin at night. By morning most of the tell-tale wrinkles, tired lines and crows-feet are smoothed out, giving a more youthful contour to cheeks, chin, throat. It leaves the skin velvety soft, clear and fresh.

Beauty experts use this astringent lotion for enlarged pores, also to bleach and whiten sallowness.

Miss this harmless lotion yourself since it acts best immediately after prepared.—Adv.

national body has a membership of 35,000 women and the chapter having been organized in British Columbia.

More than 1,200 chapters are affiliated with the national body. Mrs. Shoemaker, past state president, has been in charge of arrangements for the meeting.

St. Paul has five chapters named I, K, R, X and Z and chapter H of South St. Paul. Mrs. Gifford will give the address of welcome at the meeting and will also take part in another part of the program.

One of the interesting social events of the convention is the luncheon which will be given for the past state presidents Tuesday by Mrs. Louise Ozias, Minneapolis. Among those invited to attend are Miss Carrie Evans, Minneapolis; Miss Elizabeth Morrill, Minneapolis; Mrs. Louis Dossman, Northfield; Mrs. Trafford Jayne, Minneapolis; Mrs. Bertha Bonnell, California; Mrs. Kate Wilson, California; Mrs. Inette Shoemaker, Minneapolis; Mrs. Edna Collins, Windom; Mrs. Sarah Vest, St. Paul; Mrs. Gifford, St. Paul; Mrs. Louise Ozias, Minneapolis; and Mrs. Edna Montgomery, St. Paul.
