um last night. After the general order of business was attended to, George W. Hug, city superintendent of schools, presented the plans for a contest to be held by the Kiwanis club of this city. The contest will be for the best essays of industrial conditions in Salem and the reasons for liking to live here. Cash prizes, some of them as high as $5 will be awarded. All students from the 6th grade up through the high school will be eligible to enter the contest.

Kiwanis Club Meets— Dr. Carl Miller, Dr. J. L. Lynch and Don Roberts were called upon at the weekly luncheon of the local Kiwanis club to give suggestions as to how the interest in the luncheons might be accelerated. It was the opinion of the first two that perhaps there would be more interest if more of the members of the club should be given the opportunity to speak at the luncheons. It was agreed by all three that more specific music programs would be appreciated. At the luncheon Staley Baylis and Mrs. Baylis furnished the music. Mr. Baylis accompanied his wife on the piano while she rendered two vocal solos, and she in turn accompanied him while he rendered a solo. Governor Pierce was called upon to address the group, and recited various incidents pertaining to his career.

Suspect Auto Thieves— It is thought that Bob Eller and Howard Cotter, recently arrested for having tools said to be for the purpose of burglary in their possession, and driving a car with stolen license plates, are thought to be involved in the theft of several cars. Among these is thought to be a Moon sedan stolen from Eugene. It developed that the two are paroled convicts, the former being in for auto theft, and the latter for forgery. It is declared that they will now have to serve out their full time at the state penitentiary.

The Marriage Whirl, Show-ing at the Oregon, Stars Corinne Griffith

A cast not great in numbers, but excellent in names. That is the term that might be exercised when presenting Corinne Griffith in "The Marriage Whirl," her next First National release. To begin with, the fair Corinne was not content with one leading man. She has two—Kenneth Harlan and Harrison Ford. Nita Naldi will also be seen in an important role. Then there are E. J. Ratelle, Charles Lane, and Edgar Norton—all popular with motion picture patrons. There are hundreds of others who take part in the many scenes of this J. Hartley Manners' story—an adaptation of his "The National Anthem"—and some of the most beautiful ball room and cabaret scenes will be revealed when the presentation is flashed upon the screen. The picture is scheduled for showing at the Oregon theatre today and Thursday.

Retail sale of the Perry drug store in Salem, for Thursday, Friday and Saturday of last week. Any way, enough people did see it to bring such crowds for the three days that every employe of the drug store was worked to a frazzle. They had all the trade for the whole three days that they could handle. Mr. Perry says it was the largest sale in the history of these sales in Salem. They are held every six months, and have been for years and years and years. The great success of this sale indicates, among other things, that Salem has been growing.

Bits For Breakfast

Growing so fast the secretary of the Salem Chamber of Commerce has a hard time keeping track of the new comers.

Estimated by her water users, Salem now has 25,480 people; and any way she is on her way to 30,000, then 50,000, then on up. Going up.

A deserving woman in Salem needs work. She could take care of a small dairy. Phone 95 if you can help her to a job.

Annual flag slogan number tomorrow. A lot of water has run under the bridge in this industry in the past year. And more will run under in the next year; a lot more.

Ponce de Leon hit Florida just a few centuries too soon.

More than 550,000 farmers in the United States are now equipped with radio; an increase of 400,000 in the past two years.

Our farmers have more radios than all the people of all the other countries of the world.

To a certain type, Tom Murray does not look as much like a hero as he did.

The dean of the Missouri university has discovered that journalism is a profession instead of a job. Which confirms the old definition "a journalist is a newspaper man out of a job."

It's a privilege to be poor these days.

No hold-up man knocks you in the head with a rock of lead.

The "best hated man on the screen," Eric Von Stroheim, is acting again. In addition to directing Countee Cullen's "East of the Setting Sun" he displays the uniform and monocle he wore in "Foolish Wives." The story is from a serial novel by George Barr McCutcheon. It's a tale of a small country in Europe. The sentimental touch of which Von Stroheim is a master, ought to make it interesting.

The Arctic region, it appears, is becoming a rather popular summer resort.

Often Times Veins Burst and Cause Much Suffering, Expense and Loss of Employment

Explains How Enlarged Veins Can Be Reduced

Many people have become despondent because they have been led to believe that there is no remedy that will reduce swollen veins and bunches.

If you will get a two-ounce original bottle of Moore's Emerald Oil (full strength) at any first class drug store and apply it at home as directed you will quickly notice an improvement which will continue until the veins and bunches are reduced to normal.

Moore's Emerald Oil has brought much comfort to worried people all over the country; it is one of the wonderful discoveries of recent years and anyone who is disappointed with its use can have their money refunded. All druggists sell lots of it.—Adv.
