Mrs. Robbins Returns
Mrs. Anna V. Robbins has returned to Salem after an extended absence in the hopyards of the Willamette valley and in the Hood River apple orchards where she has been engaged in migrant work under the auspices of the Woman's Council of Home Missions of New York city. Mrs. Robbins reports an unusually successful season both in the hop yard and in the apple orchard.

Upon her return to Salem, she was pleasantly surprised yesterday noon with a picnic dinner planned by a group of friends—Mrs. George, Mrs. Hoppes, Mrs. Busch, Mrs. Murphy, and Mrs. Wassam.

This week-end Mrs. Robbins will leave for Tillamook where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Miss Dante Robbins, an instructor of physical education in the Tillamook High school. Miss Robbins, in addition to an interesting schedule of regular school work, writes of the interesting organization of the older women into a recreational class.

Cooked Food Sale
The Women's Relief Corps will hold a cooked food sale at Allen's Hardware store on North Commercial street Saturday, October 24. All members are asked to contribute.

Mrs. Krause Entertains
The attractive new home of Mr. and Mrs. Al Krause at 1690 Fairmount, one of the most interesting in the whole Fairmount Hill colony, was the scene yesterday afternoon of a delightful meeting of the Mid-week bridge club, the first after the summer recess. The rooms of the Krause home were beautifully decorated with vivid autumn foliage and chrysanthemums. Many candles were also used. Mrs. Victor MacKenzie won the first prize of the afternoon while the consolation award went to Mrs. Lewis Lunsford and the guest prize to Mrs. Eugene Eckertlin, Jr.

Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour. Mrs. Krause was assisted by Mrs. Lester Schlosberg in the serving. The club will meet in two weeks at Mrs. Shafer's home.

Guests and members in the group on Wednesday included: Mrs. Lester Schlosberg, Mrs. Eugene Eckertlin, Jr., Mrs. Lewis Lunsford, Mrs. C. K. Logan, Mrs. K. W. Heinlein, Mrs. Ed Viesko, Mrs. Shafer, Mrs. Victor MacKenzie, and the hostess, Mrs. Al Krause.

Needlecraft Club
The members of the Needlecraft club were entertained on Tuesday afternoon in a delightful way at the home of Mrs. E. E. Gilliam at her home, 776 S. 12th street. Delicious refreshments were served at the tea hour. At the next meeting of the club Mrs. F. G. Stearns will entertain at her home, 180 S. 19th street.

In the group Tuesday were: Mrs. A. J. Basy, Mrs. Ruth Denison, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Newmyer, Mrs. J. W. La Bare, Mrs. M. C. Moyer, Mrs. L. Bechtel, Mrs. George Martin, Mrs. F. G. Stearns, and the hostess, Mrs. Gilliam.

B. E. Club Entertained
The members of the B. E. club met for an enjoyable meeting on Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw. Autumn leaves and dahlias decorated the rooms. The high scores of the evening went to Mrs. F. E. Turner and Claude Townsend, while Mrs. Ed Keene and Carl Jepson received the consolation awards. At the next meeting of the club Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fandrick will be the hosts.

In the club group are: Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kightlinger, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fandrick, Dr. and Mrs. O. L. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Olmstead, and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Turner.

Special guests at the meeting on Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jepson.

Men's Brotherhood Meets
The Men's Brotherhood of the Jason Lee Methodist church met this week for a six-thirty o'clock dinner given by the ladies of the church.

During the dinner hour a vocal solo was rendered by Miss Beulah Fanning accompanied at the piano by Miss Aline Ritchie. A reading by Miss Marcian Puestman was also given at this time.

Following the dinner hour a brief business meeting was held followed by the election of officers for the ensuing year which resulted in the election of E. Zimmerman, president; Alfred Viek, vice president, and E. A. Boyle, treasurer and secretary. An entertainment committee was also elected consisting of Messrs. Wren, Vern Tyler, Gilbert and Prof. Rahskopf.

Following the business session and election of officers the main address of the evening was given by Rev. Wren, pastor of the Junior church. His subject was "The Boy."

The next item on the program was an address by Rev. Thomas

Acheson outlining the objective of the fraternity for the coming year.

Y. K. K. Class Tuesday
The members of the Y. K. K. class of the First Methodist church met on Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Shanks for a pot-latch dinner and the opening meeting following the interim. The class meets socially once each month at the homes of the members.

Attractive Tea-Today
Miss Frances M. Richards, dean of women at Willamette university will be hostess at one of the most attractive events of the college year when she entertains today from 3:30 to 5:30 o'clock at Lausanne Hall. Invitations have been issued to all Willamette university girls, wives of faculty members and wives of trustees, for the annual tea.

Jason Lee Aid Society
The general aid of the Jason Lee Aid society will meet on Tuesday afternoon, October 27, in the church parlors. The West Side circle will have charge of the social hour.

Mrs. McIntyre Entertains
Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre entertained on Tuesday evening at an enjoyable meeting of the Writers' section of the Salem Arts league at her home on Center street, with Miss Grace Elisabeth Smith, leader of the section, presiding.

One of the most notable contributions of the evening was the short story entitled "The Story of the Man, the Alligator, and a Dog," written and read by Prof. M. E. Pack. Charles J. Lisle read a cowboy story entitled "Nerves," and Grace Elisabeth Smith a sketch on school teaching. A meritorious one-act play, entitled "Stumps," was read by Perry Prescott Reigelman. Mrs. J. M. Clifford read an original poem on the North Umpqua river and extracts from a letter written by one of the club's honorary members, Miss Marna Harding. Albert Rol, who is to leave soon for California, gave outlines for two prospective stories, "The Outcast" and "The Magic Net." Gertrude Robison Ross read two lyrics

"The Helen of Troy," and a sonnet. Blanche M. Jones read "Autumn," one of the most beautiful poems she has ever written, and which follows the Elizabethan sonnet.
