MEXICAN DEBT DEBATED AGREEMENT IS CHANGED AT MEETING OF BANKERS NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—(By Associated Press.)—Modification of the Mexican debt agreement under which Mexico will resume payment of its $500,000,000 external debt January 1, 1926, was announced tonight by the international committee of bankers on Mexico after the conclusion of conferences with Alberto J. Pani, Mexican finance minister. The modified agreement is subject to ratification by President Calles and the Mexican congress and to the acceptance of the bondholders.

Original debt pact involving the payment of interest upon Mexico's $500,000,000 debt and $200,000,000 accumulated interests, was negotiated in 1922 by Thomas W. La Mont, chairman of the international bankers' committee and Adolfo De Huerta, the then finance minister of Mexico. The agreement was temporarily abrogated in July, 1924, when the Mexican government financially weakened by the De La Huerta revolution was forced to default on payment.

The revision agreed on by the bankers and Senor Pani provides for the return of the Mexican national railway to private management on January 1 and for the separation of the railroad debt amounting to about 4 per cent of the total, from that of the government.

HUGE ENGINE IN USE MAMMOTH LOCOMOTIVE LARGEST OF KIND EVER BUILT CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—(By Associated Press.)—When the Pioneer Limited train on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway pulled out of Chicago tonight, it was hauled by the largest two-cylinder locomotive ever built in this country. The engine weighs 135,000 pounds, is 95 feet long and 15 feet high. It is capable of starting and hauling 150 loaded 42-ton freight cars, a train nearly a mile and a half long. Notwithstanding its size, it burns one third less coal than any other engine. The locomotive was built for freight service and is being limbered up in passenger work.

Bramwell, state superintendent of banks. Judge G. F. Skipworth of Eugene, who was called in on the case, gave the opinion that the main office of the department must be maintained at Salem, although he said that the question as to whether or not the main office is now in Salem has not yet been determined by the court. George Putnam of Salem, who brought mandamus proceedings against Bramwell to compel him to keep the main offices of his department in Salem, charges that the files and records of the department have been moved from Salem to Portland, and that only a desk and a clerk are in the Salem office.

Silverton SILVERTON, Oct. 23.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The home of Mrs. George Henriksen was the scene of a pretty party Thursday afternoon. The party was in honor of Mrs. Oliver Holman. Guests were Mrs. Dan Dybster, Mrs. Selmer Ness, Mrs. Hans Jensen, Mrs. Marie Bunness, Mrs. M. C. Jacobsen, Mrs. Axel Larson, Miss Inga Goplorud, Mrs. Elmer Olsen, Miss Dora Henriksen, Miss Jerald Closter, Mrs. B. Lyons, Mrs. Arthur Gottenberg, Mrs. Adolph Hagen, Mrs. N. O. Holman, Miss Ethel Larson, Miss Louise Henriksen, Miss Sylvia Larsen, Miss Clara Holman, Miss Mamie Holman, Mrs. Martin Hatberg, Mrs. Oscar Satern, Miss Marie Tingstad, Mrs. A. Ennevooldsen, Mrs. G. G. Evans, Mrs. Earl S. Adams and Mrs. Otto Le-gard.

Sweet potatoes can be grown at Silverton, according to Mrs. M. S. Hendricks. Mrs. Hendricks exhibits conclusive proof of her statement. Last spring she planted four hills of sweet potatoes. This fall these four hills yielded 40 potatoes of saleable size. The potatoes were of good color and flavor.

Very attractive was the informal reception given Thursday evening by the Parent-Teacher association for the teachers of the Silverton school. Mrs. J. T. Hoblitt, president of the Silverton association, opened the evening by greeting the teachers, to which Miss Clema Whitehead responded. During the evening musical numbers were given by Miss Alice Kaufman and Mrs. S. E. Richardson, who each sang two solos, and by a male quartet composed of E. A. Booth, I. Alfred, B. Day and N. Smith. The program was prepared by Mrs. Edson Constalk, Mrs. G. B. Benson and Miss Roselia Richardson.

Presiding at the serving tables was Mrs. Charles Reynolds and assisting her were Mrs. George Steelhammer, Mrs. Harry Carson, Mrs. Claire Jarvis, Miss Catherine Woodard, Mrs. Russell Scott, Mrs. Willus Cooley and Mrs. Gordon McCall. Those in charge of the preparation of the lunch were Mrs. J. C. Morley, Mrs. H. B. Lehman, Mrs. R. E. Kleinsorge and Mrs. E. Banks.

The Eugene Field auditorium, where the reception was held, was decorated beautifully in autumn colors. Ferns and sylvia banded the windows, while all about the
