many of the girls and women which the bureau secures to assist in Salem homes are personally known by the secretary and can be well recommended by her. This is not true in every case, and un-recommended assistance is naturally accepted at the employer's own risk. However, it is the desire of the department to be of mutual assistance to both parties in securing suitable positions wherever the need arises.

Pilgrim's Progress in Film

"Pilgrim's Progress," which, next to the Bible, is probably the best known book in the world, will be shown at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, October 25, at the First Congregational church. This photo-narrative, which will be shown in four reels, is released from the George Kleine library of film classics and modern productions and is heralded by much favor from the press.

The picture depicts the life of John Bunyan who was born near Bedford, England, in 1628, and followed the occupation of a tinker, his father's occupation. In 1649 he married a woman who helped him greatly in his religious life. Eleven years later he was arrested for preaching without a license and spent 12 years in Bedford jail. It was during the imprisonment that the immortal Pilgrim's Progress was written and which has since been translated into 84 different languages.

Eastern Star Dance

Elaborate preparations are being made for the Eastern Star dance on Thursday, October 29, which the members of Chadwick chapter social club are planning. The dance is an annual event and is looked forward to with pleasure. The affair will be held in the Armory.
