A PRAYER FOR TODAY
 Help me hear, Lord, this day,
 Something to do,
 Help me to know thy way
 All the day through.
 Help me to look about,
 Someone to find;
 Help me seek some lost one out
 From all mankind.
 Help me to tell to him
 The sweet story old;
 Help me just, one to bring
 Into thy fold.
 Help me to know thy Word,
 And daily pray;
 Help me to love thee, Lord
 Better each day.
 Help me thy laws fulfill,
 Thy standards raise;
 Help me to do thy will,
 Thine be the praise.
 Mrs. Fred J. Tooze.

Quarterly Tea on Wednesday
 The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Jason Lee Methodist church will meet on Wednesday, October 23 for the regular quarterly tea which will be held this quarter at the home of Mrs. P. L. Frazier, 795 Capitol street at 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. T. Acheson will have charge of the devotional. Mrs. W. P. Miller, the president of the society will outline plans for the year and bring echoes from the recent branch and quarterly meetings. Mrs. C. F. Hagemann and Mrs. A. F. Waller will assist the hostess at the tea hour.

Mrs. C. F. Wilson returned last week from Coquille, Oregon, where she was the guest of her daughter, Miss Carolyn Wilson. While in southern Oregon she enjoyed a trip to Bandon beach.

University Tea Attractive
 Three hundred cards were issued for the formal tea of yesterday afternoon at which Miss Frances M. Richards, dean of women at Willamette University, was hostess honoring the women of the university, the wives of faculty members of the law school, of the school of liberal arts, and the Kimball School of Theology. Faculty women, the wives of the board of trustees, and the house mothers on the campus.
 The tea yesterday proved to be one of the most beautiful of the season, with chrysanthemums predominating in the drawing and dining rooms. Miss Richards was assisted in the receiving by Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, wife of the president of the university and by Mrs. F. M. Erickson, wife of the dean.

 The junior girls who are residents of Lausanne Hall greeted the guests at the door. The senior girls assisted in the drawing rooms which were charming in their floral appointments. Chrysanthemums in the lavender and purple-blue shades, with now and then a touch of bronze, with a mingling of bovardia, filled tastefully arranged bowls and baskets. Throughout the afternoon series of musical numbers were enjoyed. Miss Evangeline Hall and Miss Eugenia Savage both delighted with their piano numbers, while Helen Selig gave pleasing violin solos, with Miss Louise Findley accompanying.
 The tea table color scheme of lavender and blue was of unusual charm. Delicate lavender chrysanthemum while tall lavender candles burned in crystal holders.
 Presiding at the urns during the first hour were Mrs. E. C. Richards, and Mrs. W. E. Kirk. At the second hour their places were taken by Mrs. Alice H. Dodd and Mrs. E. T. Barnes.

Mrs. Nye in Centralia
 Mrs. G. A. Nye is the guest of her daughters Mrs. F. W. Schwab and Miss Doris Nye in Centralia, Wash. She plans to return the last of the week.

 Mrs. Collins J. Brock of New York City was honored by the women of the three Methodist churches at a tea on Friday afternoon in the parlors of the church. Mrs. Brock gave an inspirational talk on the Home Mission work. Mrs. Brock, who is a national field worker of note, was the house guest while here of Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney. On Friday evening she was entertained at Lausanne Hall, after meeting with the Willamette University girls. She left yesterday for Corvallis.
 The hostess committee for the afternoon tea included a group of women from the Jason Lee, Leslie and First Methodist churches, with Mrs. H. F. Shanks in charge.

Eighth Birthday Celebrated
 The eighth birthday of Master Johnnie Lawrence Krause was celebrated with a festive Halloween party yesterday afternoon from 2:30 to 4:30 o'clock at the Krause home, 1639 Fairmount, when his mother, Mrs. Al Krause, entertained in his honor.
 The rooms were gay with the decorative novelties of the Halloween season—black cats, witches on brooms, and orange pumpkins. After an afternoon of Halloween games, with attractive prizes given, birthday refreshments were served around the table. A delicious birthday layer cake in chocolate and orange with lighted orange candles was the feature on the table.
 Halloween novelties marked places for Virginia Cross, Eleanor Perry, Dorothy and Marguerite Englebart, Jean Lunsford, Otto J. Wilson, Jr., Clayborn Dyer, Roderick Livesley, and the young host, Johnnie Krause.

Old-Fashioned Dance
 One of the most enjoyable events of recent date was the old-time dance which was held in St. Joseph's auditorium Friday evening. Mr. Jenskow headed the committee in charge, his father coming from Portland to "call," and the committee is deserving of much praise for the excellent management. The specialties in singing and dancing were much appreciated, and the old-time dances gave place very often to the modern ones. A fair and carnival is to be held in the auditorium on November 22, 23 and 24, and this dance was one of the preceding affairs. "Aunt Julia's Ear-Ring," a play in three acts, is under preparation, and a young people's society is being reorganized to furnish regular dances, while every Saturday and Sunday nights a picture show will be given to help augment interest.
