Fruitland

The first meeting of the Fruitland community club will be held Friday night, at the Fruitland school house.

Alfred "Curly" Widmer visited in the Fruitland neighborhood during the week end.

Rev. Guy Stover will preach at the Fruitland church next Sunday morning.

William Stocum returned from Hood River last Wednesday and went to Toledo Monday.

Mrs. Weaver and two sons, Hoyd and Lee, returned from Hood River last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Cade went to Portland Sunday to visit their daughter, Miss Bessie Cade.

Cade plays the pipe organ in the new Oregon theatre in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Cade were accompanied on the trip by their son Hale.

Mr. Carl Runner spent the week end visiting in Fruitland.

Mr. Noble Andrews, who is the producer of the Noble French prune is having some work done in his nursery.

Mr. A. J. Hufner and family have moved into the old B. S. Martin place.

The Fruitland school district is having a new woodshed built.

Mrs. H. E. Evans is building a new house.

Fruitland Community club will hold a meeting at the school house, October 23.

Vacation was in full swing at the union high and Parrish Junior high and our Fruitland children were in line with the others.

Part of these were Sylvia Houkola, Esther Girod and Lloyd Girod, Marion Cernick, Joan Evans and Beatrice Cernick.

A well is being drilled on the Max Probie farm by H. E. Evans, driller. Mr. Foregard has the house rented. Mrs. Foregard is our teacher in the large room this year.

Mrs. Leona Runner has been real sick, but we hope for her speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans and daughter Joan attended a birthday party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Wood of Gervais, October 18, in honor of their son Warren's 12th birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown were visitors in Salem recently.

The gravel on the new road that is to be paved is getting packed down quite a lot now and not so hard to drive on. Apple picking is all over at the Dernick orchards. A fine crop is reported.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Hower and small children Melvin and Lorna of Los Angeles, are visiting at the Evans home. Mr. Hower is a distant cousin of Mrs. Evans.

Mr. and Mrs. Hower expect to return to California soon and take up his trade at plastering again. He did the work on the Evans house.

W. H. Short of Reedsport is back in Oak Ridge after spending several months in the coast town.

Miss Strand, of the Strand rooming house, received some badly burned arms and hands, also her face, when a lamp exploded one evening last week.

Miss Strand had sent a boy to the store for kerosene but evidently a mistake was made by some one, for it proved to be gasoline instead.

Had it not been for her level head there probably would have been a serious loss by fire. For when the lamp exploded the curtains nearby immediately caught fire.

Miss Strand put out the fire and then went for the local physician.

Clarence Currier received a badly bruised foot when a tie fell on it while working at West Fir.

Mr. Currier has gone to his former home in Sutherlin to be with relatives there.

Harry Gray, who has been packing for the United States geological survey here this summer, left Saturday for his home in Oregon City.

Mrs. McAllister and daughter while driving on the Willamette highway last Thursday were hit by a freight train at the first crossing below West Fir.

The daughter was unhurt but Mrs. McAllister was badly bruised up. They are now at Kitson Springs with the latter's mother, Mrs. Warfield. The car they were driving was badly wrecked.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Smith have moved to West Fir.

Liberty

Frank Judd has returned home from Canada where he has been for several months.

Tim Sculley left for Eugene Monday where he has employment.

DODGE BROTHERS TO USE CREDIT SYSTEM

Buyers of Cars and Trucks Take Advantage of New Purchase Plan

Announcement is made by the Dodge Brothers, Inc., that they have adopted a new plan for financing the sale of Dodge Brothers motor cars and Gramam Brothers trucks, which is to be known as Dodge Brothers CREDIT PURCHASE PLAN and which facilities are now being offered by Commercial Investment Trust Incorporated and its affiliated companies to all Dodge Brothers dealers.

It is expected that it will be generally adopted without delay by Dodge Brothers, Inc., dealers, who are now being instructed in its details by Dodge Brothers, Inc., and Commercial Investment Trust, representatives.

"All details will be available through dealers to anyone interested in the purchase of a Dodge Brothers Motor Car or a Gramam Brothers truck after the new plan becomes effective, October 1st," it was said at Detroit.

A letter by President F. J. Haynes to all Dodge Brothers dealers included the following:

"Our policy having always been that the lowest possible cost should prevail to the public, the Dodge Brothers credit purchase plan, should, because of its low rate, appeal to all buyers of Dodge Brothers motor cars desiring credit.

"The plan makes it absolutely unnecessary for a purchaser of a Dodge Brothers motor car desiring credit to pay more than the rates quoted."
