Stage in Wreck—
A Portland-Salem stage of the Jess Wheaton stage line crashed into a truck lying between Portland and Roseburg late Friday night. According to Nick Milner, driver of the stage, the truck was stopped on the highway pavement, and its lights were off. A heavy fog hindered Milner from seeing the truck in time to avoid the smash. The stage was coming to Salem from Portland, and the location of the wreck was about a mile north of Woodburn. There were three women and three men on the stage besides the driver, all of whom were bruised slightly, but none injured seriously. The stage.
