The members of the Luella Kimball club will meet on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. C. Dickman. The membership of the club includes the wives of Kimball faculty members and students of the Kimball School of Theology.

Powell-Wilson Wedding
Lighted with tall cathedral tapers and banked with greenery, the Reed college chapel was the scene of a simple but impressive military wedding at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, when Martha Elizabeth Powell, eldest daughter

Quickly Limbers Up Creaky Knee Joints

Just rub on the great application called Joint-Ease if you want to know what real joint comfort is. It's for stiff, inflamed, swollen or pain-tortured joints, whether caused by rheumatism or not. A few seconds' rubbing and it soaks right in through skin and flesh right down to the ligaments and tendons of the joints. It oils up and limbers up the joints, subdues the inflammation and reduces the swelling. Joint-Ease is the one great remedy for joint troubles and Dan L. J. Fry Drug Co. and other live druggists are dispensing it daily—a tube for 50 cents.

of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Heath Powell of Vancouver, Wash., became the bride of Ensign Ralph E. Wilson, United States navy, only son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Wilson of Salem. Rev. Powell, rector of St. Luke's, Vancouver, Wash., read the Episcopal service before an improvised altar of massed greenery and white chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given away by her brother, Edward Fuller Powell, wore a gown of rippling crepe, beaded with pearls over cream satin. Her veil was a silk lace mantilla brought by the groom from Spain, combined with tulle and orange blossoms. Miss Evangeline Powell, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and was gowned in light green chiffon. She carried an arm bouquet of cream colored asters and roses.

The bridesmaids were Miss Hilda Thorne of Portland, in blue; Miss Marie Briggs of Salem, in orchid; Miss Marguerite Drake of Portland, in yellow; and Miss Elva Mervy of Portland, in rose. They all wore tulle headresses to match their gowns and carried French arm bouquets.

Kenneth Waters of Salem acted as best man. The ushers, all classmates of the groom at Annapolis, were Ensign Warren W. Harvey, Ensign Edward W. Edmundson, Ensign Robert A. Keyer and Ensign H. E. Miller. The ushers crossed swords over the bride's party as they went out the door of the chapel. Miss Cecelia Tenney played the wedding marches during the ceremony.

After the ceremony there was a reception in Anna Mann cottage, which was attractively decorated with autumn flowers and candies. Assisting were Miss Alaila Ostrum, Mrs. A. A. Knowlton, Mrs. L. E. Griffin, Mrs. Francis E. Neer, Mrs. James C. Leedy, with little Elizabeth Berry at the door. Mrs. R. F. Scholz and Mrs. H. J. Thorne cut the loaves, while the Misses Ina Mary Williams, Florence Fowier, Violette Odeklir, Mary Jane Fitzpatrick, Frances Elmer, Edna Lois Maxon, Harriet Knowlton, Dorothy Pennock, Caroline McKewen and Mrs. Chervozov served. The bride cut the wedding cake with her husband's sword.

The bride graduated from Reed college in June, 1925. The groom graduated from the U. S. naval academy and is now a junior officer aboard the U. S. S. California, stationed at San Pedro.—Oregonian.

Edwards-Sande Nuptials

A quiet but very beautiful marriage was solemnized Wednesday evening, October 21, at 8:30 o'clock, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Edwards, one mile west of Turner, when their daughter Ruth Helen was united in marriage to Mr. J. Lester Sande, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Sande of 1865 Trade street, and brother of Earle Sande, America's most widely known jockey.

Forty relatives and friends were invited to witness the ceremony which was read in a very impressive manner by the Rev. H. C. Stover, pastor of the Central Congregational church.

The bride party took their places in the arch between the living and dining room, beneath a bower of autumn colored boughs of vine maple and dogwood, which formed the center piece for each table. Those assisting with the serving were Mrs. Robert F. E. Schaefer, Miss Lucille Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Sande, sister of the groom, and Miss Marvella Edwards. Many beautiful gifts were received.

Mrs. Sande was graduated from Salem high school in the class of '21. She has been employed at the United States National bank for the past four years. Mr. Sande is teller in the First National Bank at Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Sande left on a honeymoon trip to Puget Sound cities. After their return they will be at home to their friends in the Fisher apartments on South Commercial and Oak streets.

Leisure Hour Club

The Leisure Hour club will meet tomorrow afternoon, Wednesday, October 28, at the home of Mrs. E. C. Small and Mrs. George J. Pearce at the Pearce home, 297 N. Winter street.

Arts League to Meet

An important business meeting of all members of the Salem Arts' League has been called for 7:30 o'clock this evening at the public library.

Lincoln-McKinley PTA

The Lincoln-McKinley Parent-Teachers' association will hold an interesting meeting at 7:30 o'clock this evening at the Lincoln school. A particularly fine meeting is anticipated with special music by W. R. Bush and lecture features by both Dr. J. S. Backstrand, on luncheon, and Miss Anne Simpson, health demonstration worker in Marion county.

Guest in Portland

Mrs. D. S. Adams of 255 Washington street, spent the past weekend in Portland as the guest of Mrs. F. E. Minor.

Trip in the Mountains

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Clifford enjoyed a scenic motor trip on Sunday which took them into one of the wildest regions nearby—up the Little North Fork of the Santiam into the high mining country.

Word Received From Rector

The Rev. and Mrs. H. Duncan Chambers who have been spending some time in the east and later in attending the general convention of the Episcopal church in New Orleans, will return to Salem on or about the 28th.

Needlework on Display

A total of eighty-eight articles made by Salem groups for use in charitable enterprises have been collected by Mrs. George A. White, chairman of the Salem branch of the Needlework Guild of America and will be placed on display on Wednesday of this week at the new Unitarian church in Portland when a social tea will be held in the parlors of the church.

Those from Salem who have contributed to the success of the enterprise are members of the Salem War Mothers, Hal Hibbard auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans, the American Legion auxiliary, and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

The garments which the Salem women have made will go to the U. S. Veterans' Hospital in Portland.

West-North Division

The west-north division of the Ladies' Aid society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Joseph H. Albert, 245 North Winter street.

Judge and Mrs. Kuntz Home

Judge and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz returned home Sunday evening via the Great Northern from a three weeks' trip east. A large part of the time was spent in Ohio with relatives of Mrs. Kuntz. One flaw to impair an otherwise wholly enjoyable journey was Mr. Kuntz's severe illness with the influenza which will keep him from the office a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Kuntz report the trip home over the Great Northern one of particular pleasure.

Club Has Hallowe'en Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. Will Schwartz were hosts last Saturday night at their home on the Orchard Heights road and a masquerade and five hundred. The guests were a group of those who meet somewhat periodically for pleasant evenings of cards. The first part of the evening the guests retained their masks, later, when cards were in play, abandoning their disguise.

Miss Tartar in Recital

Interesting among the week's musical events will be the recital on Friday night, October 30, which Lena Belle Tartar, popular Salem contralto and a master student of Yeatman Griffith, will give for the pleasure of her friends. While Miss Tartar will present the major part of the program, numbers by several of her pupils have been announced.

D'Arcys in Portland

Judge P. H. D'Arcy and his sister, Miss Teresa D'Arcy, were visitors over the week-end in Portland. They were guests on Saturday evening at the banquet and meeting of the Oregon Historical society. Judge D'Arcy is a life member and director of the society.

Story Telling Section

The story telling section of the Salem Arts' League will meet from 7:30 to 8:30 o'clock tomorrow evening at the city library. Mrs. Ivan Bellinger is the leader of the class.

Presbyterian Young People

The Presbyterian young people enjoyed a novel business and social gathering last Saturday morning. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Cathryn Bates, 930 Summer street. Breakfast was served followed by a brief business session.

The cordial welcome of the Bates home and the delightful breakfast made the meeting a very happy one. About twenty were present and so enjoyed the meeting that they plan to hold similar business meetings in the future.

Mrs. J. L. Brady Receives Office

Many Salem friends of Mrs. John L. Brady, formerly of Salem, but now of Pocatello, Idaho, will be interested in the news of her election to the presidency of the Idaho state WCTU.

A notice in the Pocatello Tribune announces the election as the major event of a three-day session of the organization. Mrs. Brady succeeds Dr. Emma F. A. Drake.

"PETER PAN" IS COMING

For over half a year, the quest for a player to portray the title role in the Paramount film version of "Peter Pan" excited universal interest. Suggestions for the part poured in the Paramount studio from the four winds.

Seventeen year old Betty Bronson finally won the role, selected by James M. Barrie, the author, himself in a competition with some one hundred aspirants for this much coveted dramatic prize. Among them were some of the world's greatest artists. According to Barrie, pretty Miss Bronson is the ideal "Peter Pan."

Ernest Torrence, the scout of "The Covered Wagon," and Lois Wilson's ranch foreman in "North of 36," is cast as Captain Hook, the pirate chief. Virginia Brown Faire is cast as the little fairy, Tinker Bell. Cyril Chadwick is Mr. Darling and Anna May Wong portrays the Indian girl, Tiger Lily. All the aforementioned players appear in featured roles in the cast.

"Peter Pan," which opens a two days' run Wednesday at the Bligh theater, was adapted for the screen by Willis Goldbeck.

CAMPAIGN PLAN IS MOVING ON RAPIDLY

Drive Program Mapped Out at Meeting Yesterday; Committee Meets

In the Marion county YMCA drive things do move—and move rapidly. E. Cooke Patton and Lloyd Reynolds, captains of the contending forces, with their warriors maneuvered at a luncheon at the YMCA building yesterday noon. Reynolds turned in the first money in reply to Patton's challenge, and thus started the contest off with a bang.

The lineup in the campaign is: E. Cooke Patton, Lloyd T. Reynolds, J. J. King, Joseph Albert, W. W. Rosebraugh, Dr. Findley, Dr. F. E. Brown, Ross Miles, J. M. Gilbert, Walter Bates, Grant Brownell, F. J. Toozie, T. O. Davis, L. C. McShane. Both sides will report results at luncheon at the YMCA building today at noon.
