Bee Keepers to Meet—
The bee keepers of Marion and Polk counties are planning to hold two meetings on Friday, Nov. 13. The first meeting will be held at the Chamber of Commerce at 2 p. m., and the second will be held at 8 o'clock, either in Salem or in the Chamber of Commerce rooms at Dallas. Prof. H. A. Scullen, head of the bee department at OAC, is scheduled to be present at both meetings.

Furniture Upholstery—
And repairing. Giese-Powers Furniture Company. o20tf

Walldespeil Nabbed Again—
Carl G. Walldespeil of Salem was arrested by Officers Olson and Edwards late Saturday night on charges of cutting a corner, of being drunk and of driving a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. Recently Mr. Walldespeil was arraigned before the city court on a similar charge but was freed on the testimony of Anna Kunkel and others. Dick Dittmar of 1865 State was arrested in his car Sunday by Officers White, Edwards and Thomson on charges of being drunk and of driving a car while under the influence of intoxicating liquor. The trial has not yet been set for either man.

Building Permit Issued—
F. E. Manley received a permit Monday at the office of the city recorder to construct a one-story dwelling at 1555 North Eighteenth at a cost of $1500.

Dance—Salem Armory

Mr. Kumlir Is Dead—
B. T. Kumlir received word this week of the death of his father at Kokomo, Ind., last Sunday, October 18, 1925, at the age of 87. Mr. Kumlir, an old resident here, will remember Mr. and Mrs. Kumlir visited at the home of their daughter, Mrs. George E. Hatch, 18 years ago. Mrs. Kumlir passed away nearly three years ago. They were married 63 years before her death.

Complete Courses—
Eight Salem students have completed correspondence study courses in the extension division of the university. Miss Grace Allen studied elementary botany; Mrs. C. O. Branson, geometry; Miss Nellie L. Chandler, teaching principles; Miss Lucile Dillely, child study; Miss Ruth Griffith, a special course in second year German; Miss Grace Lick, elementary botany; Miss Fay Spaulding, child study; Miss Gertrude Tucker, recent American literature. That the people of Oregon are making increasingly good use of the correspondence courses is indicated by the fact that completions of courses thus far in 1925 show a gain of approximately 40 per cent over last year.

Vaccine Still in Question—
The question as to who shall pay for the vaccine used in the schools recently to safeguard against a small pox epidemic, has not yet been settled. School officials declared that if the board is unable to pay for the vaccine, it may be up to Dr. Ross, who instigated the vaccination, to foot the bill. But this was held to be hardly fair, as Dr. Ross has already given a vast amount of time to the execution of the vaccination.

Called for Federal Jury—
