Labish Center

The Labish Center Community club held its first meeting at the Labish Center school October 13. The evening was spent transacting business and laying plans for the coming year. A good number was present, and the prospects are for an interesting and profitable year ahead. New officers for the year are: W. Dougherty, president; B. Potts, vice president; Mrs. Glen Mailer, secretary-treasurer. The club decided to have an exhibit at the corn show.

An interesting and instructive lecture was given at the Labish Center Sunday school last Sunday morning by Mrs. Fred Voegelein sored by the American Legion of Scio, Or. Mrs. Voegelein was a missionary in India for seven years, and she gave a demonstration of how the woman of India drape on their gowns without taking a stitch, and many other interesting things. She had on display a good many articles of clothing, handiwork and jewelry. Mrs. Voegelein has many old-time friends and neighbors in the Labish Center neighborhood, which ity social rooms on Hallowe'en made her talk even more interesting to many of her audience. A good program was given by the day, Nov. 1. children of the Sunday school before the lecture.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Mass entertained members and friends of the C. E. Friday night. There were about 45 present. Earl Isom, W. Spear and J. Spear from Tacoma furnished music for the evening. They played many old favorites for the guests by special request. A number of musical monologues were given. A dainty lunch was served at a late hour, and everyone present voted it one of the most enjoyable evenings the C. E.
