HISTORY CONTEST RULES ARE GIVEN

Essays Must Be in Portland Office Not Later Than March 15, 1926

"The Missionary Movement to the Oregon Country" has been announced as the subject for the 1926 C. C. Beckman history prizes and medals, given under the direction of the Oregon Historical society. The prizes, four in number, are as follows:

First prize, $60; second prize, $50; third prize, $40; fourth prize $30.

The contest is open to all girls and boys over 15 years of age and under 18, attending any public or private school, academy, seminary, college, university or other educational institution within the state of Oregon." In addition to the cash awards, each winner of a prize will receive a bronze medal. Conditions governing the contest have been announced as follows:

1. The essay submitted in competition must not exceed 2,000 words in length.

2. The essay may be in handwriting or in typewritten form, preferably upon paper of commercial letter size, either ruled or unruled, the several sheets being numbered consecutively and written on one side only, with blank space about one and one-quarter inches at top and left-hand margin.

3. The essay shall be accompanied by a separate sheet containing the name and postoffice address of the writer, the date of his or her birth, and the name of the school attended.

4. There shall also be delivered with the essay a certificate signed by a teacher or instructor of the educational institution attended, stating that the writer of the essay is a pupil or student attending the same.

5. In order to be considered a competition the essay must be delivered, by mail or in person, to the Oregon Historical society, public auditorium, 253 Market street, Portland, Or., not later than March 15, 1926.

6. All essays submitted in competition will be numbered and submitted, without the names of the writers or other identifying marks, to three judges selected by the undersigned committee.

7. All competitive essays will be judged according to their general merit and excellence; but the judges will also take into consideration, in passing thereon, neatness of manuscript, accurate orthography, correct grammar and composition, and purity and clarity of diction.

WAR CAUSE IS PROBED

LEAGUE IS TO INVESTIGATE GRECO-BULGAR TROUBLE

PARIS, Oct. 2?.—(By Associated Press).—The council of the league of nations will send a delegation to the Balkans to investigate the causes of the Greco-Bulgar conflict. This decision was reached at a secret session of the council tonight, but the program as outlined is contingent upon compliance by Greece and Bulgaria with the conditions of evacuation and cessation of hostilities laid down by the council.

The duty of the commission will be first to determine the facts; second, determine the responsibility; third, decide the question of indemnity, and fourth, study means to prevent a recurrence of similar outbreaks in the future. A report of the findings will be submitted at the next session of the council at Geneva in December.
