

LEGION TICKETS ARE PURCHASED EAGERLY

Many Armistice Day Events Planned; Only One Ticket Needed for All

"To buy Legion tickets is certainly a sensible Armistice day plan!"

That is the verdict of the hundreds of individuals who yesterday purchased group amusement tickets from energetic Legionnaires who are working to make November 11 the big day of the year.

"Tickets are being bought a half-dozen at a throw by Salem people who like the idea of being able to have their choice of any of a number of amusements," said Commander Clifford Brown yesterday while furthering plans to make the sale a complete success.

Here are high lights of the Legion's plan:

1. Each 50-cent ticket constitutes one admission to any one of these amusements on November 11: Albany college vs. Willamette university football game at 9:30 a. m.; Eugene-Salem high school football game at 2:30 p. m.; complete shows all day at either Oregon, Heilig or Bligh theaters; dances at Crystal Gardens and Armory.

2. Cash admissions at the gate of football games, and shows, will not aid the Legion. The ex-service men's organization will benefit only from tickets sold by their own workers.

3. Each ticket is good for only one admission to each attraction except dance, where one ticket entitles holder to a pass-out privilege to either Crystal Gardens or Armory.

4. Each attraction is a regular 50 cent amusement. Capital post No. 9 receives a percentage from its ticket sales, otherwise the cash admission is the same as usual.

Followers of football will be given the assurance that two high-tension games played at Willamette field. The rivalry between the respective colleges and high schools has been very keen.

Special films and usual shows will be on the program at the theaters and the regular house musical performances will be added to by brief specialties by the prize winning drum corps of Capital post No. 9.

The Legion's fourth annual dance is receiving the attention of a special committee of ex-service men who are not sparing either efforts or money to make this the best "hop" of the year. Two of the best orchestras in western Oregon have been retained for the occasion and extra stunts will live up the evening.

To make sure that there will be ample space for the dances, two adjacent halls have been secured. By making use of the "pass-out" system, crowds can be equalized and friends can keep in touch with their own groups with only one admission.

"Buy a Legion ticket now," is the slogan of the day.

NEWS BRIEFS

Has Unique Ton—

A. J. Boothby is visiting with his brother, E. L. Boothby, who is attending Willamette university. He was working in Akron, Ohio, when he decided to make the trip west. Buying a motorcycle, he traveled down through Kentucky and from there up through Kansas and into Wyoming. From there he hiked to Salem. The town has impressed him and he has decided to stay here and to matriculate at Willamette.

Phelps Addresses Students—

Guy Fitch Phelps, well known fundamentalist who is giving a series of lectures on fundamentalism at the First Christian church, addressed the students of Willamette university Wednesday. He spoke on "Discontent" and declared that it is his mission to make people as discontented as he can so that they will be more sensitive to receiving truths.

Camp Attendance Slow—

Preparations are now underway at the Salem auto camp to get the equipment under cover for the winter. Attendance has dropped down to an average of six cars a night, and it is expected that the camp will be closed for the winter at the end of this month. Already the caretakers have commenced nailing boards over the windows of the community house for protection during the winter storms.

Carrier Examination Slated—

The United States civil service commission has announced an examination to be held at Salem to fill positions of rural carriers for this district. The receipt of applications will close on December 2. The salary on motor routes ranges from $2,450 to $2,600. The examination will be open only to citizens who are actually domiciled in the territory of the post office. Both men and women may enter the examination. Further information may be secured at the post office building here.

MISSING YACHT SOUGHT

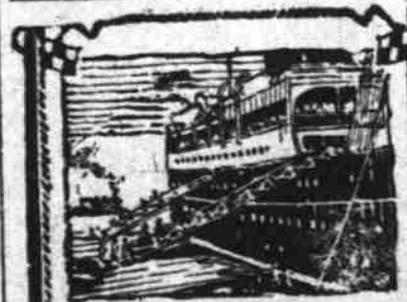

NO TRACE FOUND OF BUNNY II OR MEMBERS OF CREW

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 4.—(By Associated Press.)—Search for the missing yacht Bunny II and her crew of three men continued along the coasts of North and South Carolina tonight. Any hope that the trio would be found alive was virtually abandoned, however, with the declaration today of Captain J. F. Davis of the schooner Mary A. Sharp, that he had identified a burned hulk at sea as being the missing vessel.

Reports about three other burned boats were also being investigated to ascertain whether any of these might be the Bunny II. Along the entire Atlantic coasts of the Carolinas and Georgia, a sharp watch out is being maintained for any bodies that may be washed ashore.

The Bunny II reported to have cleared from South Port, N. C., on Saturday night on a voyage by inland waters to Florida, carried Edward R. Pusey, Wilmington, Del., businessman; Delaware Secretary of State W. J. Taylor and the captain, Louis Ross, of Fredericktown, Md.

The boat left Wilmington, Del., on October 17.
