Corinth Friends of Near East Relief

Friends of the Near East Relief in this city have recently received Brotherhood of Church to from Corinth, Greece, one of the most effective appeals which this organization has ever issued. It consists of the reproduction of a photograph of hundreds of little children, on a wide plain, grouped together to form the letters and figures making this legend: "Second Corinthians 1: 8-11."

The children represented in this "living espistle from the Corinth- ville, Noteburg and Readsport ians" are but a part of the two President Zimmerman of the thousand orphans under the care brotherhood will be the conductor of the Near East Relief in modern of this father and son special of a. m.
