

LUTHER LEAGUE'S CONVENTION ENDS

More Than 1000 People Gather at Silverton for Final Session Sunday

SILVERTON, Nov. 9.—(Special to The Statesman.)—The Young People's Luther League and the Lutheran Sunday school closed a very successful joint convention at Silverton Sunday afternoon when close to a thousand people gathered at the Eugene Field for the final session.

The convention opened Friday evening at St. John's church with the address of welcome by Miss Hannah Alsen of Silverton. Rev. C. Losen led in the devotional exercises Friday evening. Music was furnished by the St. John's choir. Rev. George Henriksen acted as president for the evening. The main address of the evening was given by the Rev. N. M. Yivesaker, executive secretary of the Young People's Luther League of America. The Rev. Mr. Yivesaker has but recently returned from a trip abroad where he spent a year in study. He spoke of the influence of conventions on the young people and the conditions he found among the young people in various places he had visited. Speaking generally of his observations in Norway during his year abroad, he mentioned two particular dangers that are threatening the young people of that country. These, he said, were the modernistic or liberalistic movement, and communism, the latter of which is establishing Sunday schools to teach in opposition to religion.

The business meeting was held Saturday morning at which time officers were elected. Rev. George Henriksen of Silverton was elected president; Inga Larson of Eugene, vice president; Tanna Olsen of Silverton, secretary; Mrs. I. M. Stukkyer of Chinook, Wash., treasurer. Board of directors include the following: Tom Kaarhus, Eugene; Miss Bodding, Portland; Elmer Haucke, Astoria, and Rev. I. M. Stukkyer of Chinook. The auditors are Rev. S. Lindseth of Silverton and Rev. S. Bjelde of La Center, Wash.

It was also decided to leave the choosing of the place for the next convention to the board of directors. It was voted that the board of directors, with the Portland pastors, negotiate for the 1927 convention of the Young People's Luther League of America to be held in Portland.

The third session of the convention was held at St. John's church Saturday afternoon. The work of this afternoon was devoted to a round table discussion for Sunday school teachers. Rev. Mr. Henriksen opened the discussion by reading a couple of articles from a religious periodical in which the writer made a strong appeal for Christian training, and stressed the responsibility of a congregation toward its youth. Rev. Mr. Henriksen stated that not only the church but also the state is more and more realizing and recognizing the great need of elementary Christian education, and that the state has passed laws to encourage and help the church in this respect. He deplored the fact that the city of Silverton, as well as all the Lutherans throughout the state turned down the Gary plan for Christian education. He stressed above all the danger of a church becoming a prodigal church which strays away from its youth. He also deplored the teaching of evolution in our public schools. Other speakers during the afternoon were Rev. O. Skilbred of Eugene, Miss Hannah Olsen of Silverton, Rev. N. M. Yivesaker of Minneapolis, A. O. Nelson, Silverton attorney, Rev. C. Losen of Astoria, and Rev. S. Bjelde of La Center, Wash.

The fourth session of the convention was held at Trinity church Saturday evening. At this time Rev. Theodore Hokenstad of Seattle spoke on "The Life Worth While." Miss Esther Towe of Silverton gave a paper on "Christian Education." The musical feature of the program consisted of a vocal solo by Miss Inga Larson of Eugene; a selection by St. John's ladies' quartet, and a violin solo by Dr. Woodmansee of Silverton. Rev. N. M. Yivesaker spoke on the work of the YPLL, which this

MARINE CORPS 150 YEARS OLD TODAY

Capture by American marines of British stronghold of New Providence in the Bahamas in 1776 from a painting by J. Joseph Capolino. (An oval) old tavern where Marines opened first recruiting station in 1775.

The United States marine corps was born 150 years ago and on November 10 marines in all parts of the world will celebrate the anniversary. On the site of the old Tun Tavern in Philadelphia a tablet will be unveiled to mark the spot where in 1775 the first marines enrolled for the war to free the colonies.

It was on November 10, 1775, that congress, which had already dissolved the "compact between the crown and the people of Massachusetts Bay", passed a resolution to the effect that two battalions of marines be raised to serve "for and during the present war with Great Britain" and that particular care be taken that no recruits be appointed to offices, or enlisted into said battalions, but such as are good seamen, or so acquainted with maritime affairs as to be able to serve with advantage by sea when required.

Thus the marine corps was born eight months before the signing of the Declaration of Independence.

LONDON.—A revival of the old custom of holding "moots" in the Middle Temple is being planned for this month. The moot is a mock trial designed to give men in the legal profession—and now women—the opportunity of arguing legal problems arising from established facts. In the form in which cases are argued in the court of appeal. Two counsel are assigned for each side and when they have put their case, the judge gives judgment. Justice Sankey has promised to preside over the first moot.

This is considered to be one of the best methods of giving junior counsel an opportunity of putting and arguing a case, as well as gathering hints regarding procedure, and pitfalls to be avoided when taking a legal case into the glare of a public court.

DEATH AT COLFAX RECALLS A MURDER

Wm. J. Hamilton's Father Was the First Man Murdered in Marion County

Editor Statesman: To the great majority of the readers of The Statesman the news of the death at Colfax, Wash., last week of William J. Hamilton will mean nothing. But when it is called to the minds of Abner Lewis, Ed and George Croisan, Joe Baker, Nicholas Beers and others throughout Marion county, including William A. Taylor and his brothers and sisters, who were cousins of Mr. Hamilton, it means something to them as participants in the early history of Marion county. Mr. Hamilton's father was the first man murdered in Marion county, in 1851 or 1852. The incident took place at the Ahern farm, on the Turner road, formerly known as the Lefe Cavanaugh farm. Immediately after the deed the murderer, Kennel, went to Daniel Waldo's and stayed over night. The following day he started in another direction and was found and arrested at the home of Jesse Looney. He was tried, and publicly executed soon after.

Young Hamilton's widowed mother married a man by the name of John Tabor, living in Linn county. He grew to manhood, and some time in the 70's he went to eastern Washington, where he resided until his death last week. He was a man of a very high character, and was a leading and an outstanding man in his section of the country and beloved by all who knew him. C. P. BISHOP, Salem, Or., Nov. 9, 1925.

Pity the Weak Skinny Children

Nature's greatest health builder and strength giver is Cod Liver Oil—it's full of vitamins of the first class—everyone knows that. But pity the poor children—how can they take this nasty, nauseating stuff that invariably upsets their small, delicate stomachs?

Most of them can't and now—thank goodness—none of them have to.

For now Cod Liver Oil comes in tasteless sugar coated tablets, that are as easy for the kids to take as candy and they sure to build up the youngsters in double quick time.

So mothers, if any one of your loved ones is frail and peaked or isn't feeling right just ask J. C. Perry, Central Pharmacy, D. J. Fry or any druggist for a box of McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—60 tablets—60 cents. One sickly, thin child aged 9 gained 12 pounds in seven months and now plays daily with other children. Splendid for any run down, weak, skinny, nervous man or woman—thousands of boxes are sold daily—but be sure and ask for McCoy's Cod Liver Oil Compound Tablets—the original and genuine. Try them for 30 days and if you aren't delighted with the improvement your druggist is authorized to hand you back the money you paid for them.—Adv.
