Report of State A. A. U. W. Meeting

An interesting report of the state meeting of the American Association of University Women held on Saturday in Corvallis is taken as follows from the pages of the Corvallis Gazette Times:

That efforts are being made in Europe to put schools on a more social and democratic basis is the belief of Dr. H. D. Sheldon, dean of the school of education at the University of Oregon, who addressed members of the state convention of the American Association of University Women, in session here Saturday. The World war has caused the people of Europe to emphasize these fundamentals.

Twenty-seven delegates were registered. The only election of the session was that of Mrs. A. H. Callin, McMinnville, made secretary-treasurer for three years. Two new committees were appointed by Miss Mozelle Hair, president of the Oregon state division of A. A. U. W. Miss Emma Gabriel, Portland, was appointed chairman of the state publicity committee, and Mrs. G. H. Alden, Salem, and Mrs. Lois T. Merwin, Portland, for the history text book survey.

Miss Edith Carter Kuney, instructor in modern languages at O. A. C., will attend the international convention of A. A. U. W. at Amesterdam, Holland, next summer, Miss Hair announced.

Study materials for use of the members of the A. A. U. W. was explained and classified by Dr. Lois Hayden Meek, Washington, D. C., national education secretary. The material is made available through a $27,000 donation made by the Rockefeller foundation for the educational department of the A. A. U. W.

Members of the Salem organization motoring down for the sessions were: Mrs. George H. Alden, Mrs. Roy A. Klein, Mrs. Wm. Fordyce Fargo, Mrs. F. G. Franklin, Mrs. C. A. Downs, Mrs. L. O. Clement, Mrs. George Hug, Mrs. W. D. Clarke, Miss Leila Johnson, Dr. Winslow, Miss McKay, Miss Amelia Feary, Miss Pippy and Miss Leora Carver.

After Dance Supper Party

One of the most attractive social affairs of the entire autumn season was the forty-cover supper party which followed the regular dance of the Monday Night Dancing club on November 9. The dance was enjoyed in Derby Hall with the supper following in the Rose room of the Spa.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Geer, and Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway were the hosts of the occasion. Two long tables were arranged in the banquet room, both decorated beautifully and in a similar way. A miniature fountain, with the water playing in silver streams over the statue, rising from the blue bowl which formed the base of the fixture, centered each table, with tall lighted blue tapers used effectively in cut glass holders.

Those invited for the attractive supper were: Dr. and Mrs. Grover C. Bellinger, Dr. and Mrs. Phil Newmyer, Dr. and Mrs. Roy Burton, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Myers, Dr. and Mrs. George R. Vehrs, Mr. and Mrs. Paul V. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Compton, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mills, Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. Bliss L. Darby, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Page, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Page, Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Bates, Dr. and Mrs. F. H. Thompson, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Galloway, Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Geer, and Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Webb.

Department Meeting Held

The first meeting of a Salem Woman's club group under the new department regime adopted a month ago was held on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the Public library when the institutions department of which Mrs. F. M. Erickson is chairman assembled to hear an informing talk by Dr. Grover C. Bellinger. Dr. Bellinger stressed the great contrast between present-day methods of combating tuberculosis with the virtual helplessness of thirty years back. He told vividly of the sanitariam at Saranac Lake, New York, the greatest tuberculosis hospital in the world. His report was optimistic in its trend and cited facts to assure the public of the gradual decrease of this dread disease through preventative measures. The meeting took the form of an instructive round table discussion.

The following twenty-five women make up the personnel of this department: Mrs. F. M. Erickson, Mrs. S. M. Endicott, Mrs. A. H. Moore, Mrs. R. K. Ohling, Mrs. George R. Vehrs, Mrs. O. E. Price, Mrs. J. C. Nelson, Mrs. J. M. Clifford, Mrs. Paul H. Acton, Dr. Fannie Brown, Mrs. A. A. Underhill, Mrs. E. E. Elliot, Mrs. Ida F. Shade, Mrs. J. T. Whittig, Mrs. A. N. Moores, Mrs. Edwin M. Hoffnell, Mrs. Earl H. Anderson, Mrs. E. J. Swafford, Mrs. J. D. Foley, Mrs. D. R. Ross, Mrs. J. M. Devers, Mrs. N. C. Kafoury, Mrs. Lura Cass French, and Mrs. Ray L. Farmer.

North Salem W. C. T. U.

The North Salem WCTU will meet Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mary E. Wooten, 2255 North Church street.

Birthday Celebrated

The meeting on Monday afternoon of the north section of the Woman's union of the First Congregational church was the occasion for the celebrating in a most delightful manner the 84th birthday of Josephine Taylor. The affair was all the more delightful in that it was a surprise to the honor guest. The rooms of the Clarke home.—Mrs. W. D. Clarke being the hostess for the occasion. —were attractive with bouquets of autumn flowers. The honor guest of the day was presented with a delicious birthday cake, covered with tiny red candles. Mrs. W. C. Kantner presenting the cake and giving the greetings from the union. The ladies devoted the afternoon to needlework. At the refreshment hour Mrs. C. E Ward assisted the hostess.

Needs at Children's Farm Home Are Voiced

Another boys' cottage is badly needed at the Children's Farm home, according to Mrs. Ada Wallace Unruh, state W. C. T. U. officer, in direct charge of the home. It has been decided to organize a "Boys' Building Farm Home League" and put all dues into that fund. In addition the association is asking that all persons interested in the Farm Home can contribute to the building fund. Also a plea is being broadcast for flower bulbs, which will be used to make the homes more attractive.

"It was an inspiring sight on a recent visit to see the children of the Farm Home housed in a new school building financed by a state appropriation," said Mrs. Unruh today. "After the long months in which they have been crowded into wholly inadequate and inconvenient quarters it is not at all strange that the splendid teachers are smiling their joy and that when the children were asked to voice their feelings that they nearly 'raised the roof' with a deafening roar.

"With all the generosity of the state and of our friends we are still short of funds to complete and equip the entire building. Cash has been contributed to equip the three class rooms thought to be sufficient for this year, the East Side Baptist church of Portland will complete and be the center of all te social and Christian work of the Farm Home, and the good people of Roseburg are financing the domestic science room. Our numbers have increased so rapidly, however, that we find ourselves obliged to complete another class room even though funds are not in hand for the purpose, the three being now so crowded that efficient work is impossible.

"There are on the Children's Farm Home grounds three girls' cottages capable of housing 70, while the two boys' cottages will only shelter 45 boys. This made it necessary one day last week to refuse homes to four little boys within four hours.

"In one family there were two boys and two girls. To receive the girls from this family would mean the breaking of family ties with the probability that they would never be united in close family relations again. The cherished thought of the projectors of this home for dependent children was, that so far as possible, families with all the helpful ties established when 'He set them together in families' should be kept intact. There are those outside of the W. C. T. U. who hold this sacred. We must have another boys' cottage just as soon as it can be erected."—Corvallis Gazette-Times.

Hal Hibbard Auxiliary

Sixteen members of Hal Hibbard auxiliary were guests on Friday afternoon of Mrs. W. C. Brant at the Brant home at 494 S. Winter street for an enjoyable social time. Plans were made during the afternoon for the dinner which the auxiliary will give for Hal Hibbard camp on Monday, November 16, at the Armory. Mrs. Lester Davis of Portland was a special guest for the meeting. The rooms were beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums and marigolds.

Guests From Spokane

Mrs. H. H. Vandevort is entertaining as her house guests her sister, Mrs. Fred Harrill, and her niece and nephew, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Donene, all of Spokane, who arrived here by motor Thursday of last week. They plan to make a three weeks' visit in Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Vandevort and their house guests are spending this week-end in Stayton as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Caspell. Mrs. Vandevort, Mrs. Harrill and Mrs. Caspell are all sisters.

Standard Bearers Entertained

A happy group of girls from the First Methodist church, comprising the Standard Bearer company, were invited to a 6:30 dinner last Friday by the Standard Bearers of Dallas, whose supervisor is Mrs. R. G. Balderee. Those in the five cars driven by Miss Beryl Holt, J. H. Baker, Charles Fessenden, T. T. Crozer and M. C. Williams, were Harriet Beckley, Naomi Warner, Dorothy Jay, Florence Emmons, Carl Hobbs, Helen Breithaupt, Gladys Taylor, Dorothy Taylor, Doris Phenicie, Bernice Williams, Carolyn Waterman, Merrill White, Eugenia Savage, Esther Gardner, Maxine Maxwell, Chrystalee Maxwell, Doris Hoogerhyde, Viola Crozer, Lorraine Robbins, Bonnie Zellar, Isabel Huston, Beatrice Hartung, and Miss Grace Allen, assistant, and Mrs. A. A. Lee supervisor. While at the tables, songs were sung and Standard Bearer yells given followed by an explanation of the year's work, by Mrs. A. A. Lee, resulting in a friendly challenge between the two groups.

In the auditorium of the church a short program of music by Dallas girls and songs by Salem girls, with an interesting talk by Mrs. Winz, returned missionary from China, and echoes of the General Executive—now meeting in Kansas City,—by Mrs. A. A. Lee, closed a very enjoyable meeting.
