MANSFIELD DANCERS COME HERE MONDAY

Engagement at Heilig Is Under Auspices of the Salem Civic Arts Club

Those who love both dancing and music have a treat in store in the coming of the Portia Mansfield Dancers, who are to give one of their colorful and unique dance concerts here on Monday night, November 16, at the Heilig theater. The company comprises 12 solo and ensemble dancers. Their program includes a number of rhythmic "visualizations" of famous compositions. Among these are the "Unfinished Symphony" (Schubert) and "Chanson Arabe" (Rimsky-Korsakoff). In connection with these dance visualizations, the Milwaukee Journal comments: "One of the most exquisite dance combinations seen on the stage for many a day. They are artists and their lovely interpretations of Schubert's Symphony in F minor, and the Brahms waltz are something that make a profound impression."

The sale of seats is now open at the box office, or by members of the Civic Music club.

Healthy Hair

Gleamy, Thick, Wavy—Full of Life

Modern style in hair dress, particularly constant curling and waving, is slowly burning the color, lustre and very life from the hair, leaving it dry, faded, brittle, streaked with gray; often the hair roots shrink, then the hair falls out fast.

A 35-cent bottle of refreshing, fragrant "Danderine" will do wonders for any girl's hair. This vitalizing beauty-tonic acts on the hair like fresh showers of rain and sunshine act on vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates, nourishes and strengthens them, helping the hair to grow thick, healthy and luxuriant.

Try this for one week! While combing and dressing your hair, moisten your hair brush with a little "Danderine" and brush it through your hair—the effect is startling! Your hair immediately takes on new life and that healthy, youthful lustre, becomes incomparably soft, wavy and appears twice as thick and abundant.—Adv.

Lon Chaney in that masterpiece of moving picture world, "The Phantom of the Opera," will be shown at the Oregon theater today. It is a film that Salem theatergoers have been waiting for and one that is acclaimed as a successful rival of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame."

"The Everlasting Whisper" Declared Best Film Made by Western Actor

"The Everlasting Whisper" starring Tom Mix, which is at the Heilig theater today, is, beyond question, one of the finest Mix pictures that have ever reached the screen.

First of all, "The Everlasting Whisper" has a story that is unusual, written by Jackson Gregory, who is conceded to be one of America's foremost writers of fiction. It is a tale of the rugged Northwest, where the everlasting whisper of the breeze through tall, stately pines draws strong men into the hills and enchants them. In this setting there is enacted a thrilling tale of a battle for fortune and a girl—a girl who has to be tamed like a tigress.

Then there's the cast. Alice Calhoun, known as the orchid of the screen, plays the feminine lead opposite Mix. As the city-bred society girl suddenly thrown into the rigors of the wilderness, she is in beautiful contrast to her rugged surroundings. Her dramatic performance leaves nothing to be desired. Robert Cain is the villain—and a thoroughly hatable one. Others in the cast are George Berrell, Noble Johnson, Virginia Madison and Karl Dane.

NEW VAUDEVILLE IS AT THE BLIGH TODAY

Program of Dancing, Comedy, Impersonation and Songs Is Offered

The three Deveres have a novel dancing divertissement which includes a versatile showing of steps with syncopated shuffling and eccentric dances. They also include burlesque, Spanish and French Apache dances.

Dixon & Freeman, well known to vaudeville, present a new act under the caption of "A Minute Late" from the pen of Rudy Powell. The critics acknowledge Miss Dixon as possessing a beautiful voice, while Mr. Freeman never fails to please with his individual work.

Miss Francis is considered one of the best, character impersonators in America and will surely be welcomed by those who like the really artistic.

George & Lillian Whitney: This clever couple have arranged an offering of comedy and song that is full of nonsensical ideas, funny bits of comedy and a song or two at the proper time which makes an entertaining number.

Musical Delphinos: This act is from the old world, having traveled the globe for years, they are now enroute to Australia on another trip. European pantomimic comedy is combined with novelty music and makes real entertainment.

"The Phantom" Is Said to Excel Anything Yet Produced by Artist

Excelling anything he has ever done in the past, even "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," Lon Chaney comes to the Oregon theater today in "The Phantom of the Opera," heralded as the greatest picture of the year. It is Universal's picturization of Gaston Leroux's great novel, and is one of the most stupendous productions ever attempted.

Chaney, as the phantom or ghost, is of course, the center of the picture, and his haunting influence carries itself strongly to the audience throughout the showing. But there is also a wealth of splendor to the picture itself that would class it among the best in any company. Seventy enormous sets were constructed for the film, including an authentic reproduction of the great Paris Grand Opera house, which is to be the first set in motion picture history to be built like a modern skyscraper with steel construction.

Sturdy construction was needed to support the five tiers of boxes from which the fashionable Parisian opera throng witness an actual performance of "Faust" on the great stage which is a big production in itself, but a mere detail in this picture.

The extensive underground cellars, five stories beneath the opera, where a weird creature of great intellect, but whose mind is turned by a vengeful bitterness against humanity, succeeds in ruling the gay domain above ground with cunning craft and terror. These are unique in the history of movie settings, and the action is said to be unique in the history of thrills.

The book by Gaston Leroux, who is regarded in France as the successor to de Maupassant, has been translated into many tongues and has had millions of readers.

The director, Rupert Julian, was the maker of "Merry-Go-Round," one of the season's successes, and other films of note.

The Chicago School of Domestic Art teaches housemaids how to receive callers, answer the telephone and other duties. They are also instructed in the proper costumes to wear during the different periods of the day.

The Colorado State Federation of Women's Clubs has already placed the name of Mrs. John D. Sherman in nomination for reelection at the annual convention of the national organization to be held in Atlantic City next spring.

When the latest report of the state bureau of labor statistics (1925-24) of California was submitted it was estimated that 5,000 children were then engaged in agriculture. Census reports for 1920 showed only 1,832 children working in agriculture in the state. Many children were found working in the cotton fields of Fresno county and the Imperial valley.

DELIGHTFUL DRAMA COMES WEDNESDAY

May Robson in "Helena's Boys," Comes to the Heilig Theatre November 18

Nothing delights the theatre-goers as much as the notice of the arrival of our favorite comedienne, May Robson, and she will be with us on Wednesday, November 18, in her latest successful comedy, "Helena's Boys," a dramatization of the Saturday Evening Post story, "The Boys," by Mary Brecht Pulver.

"Helena's Boys" is giving Miss Robson wonderful opportunities and Augustus Pitou has been exceedingly generous in all the accessories, which has given "Helena's Boys" first place in the ranks of stage productions.

"Helena" is the devoted mother; two boys whose lives have been spent in a home of refinement and high morals. They come home from college and all their conversation seems to drift to a new modern theory which is to dominate the whole world in a short time. "Helena" is a good listener and learns fast; she falls right in to the new ideas and puts them into action in her approaching marriage. "Helena" can be biased as they make them, and in doing it wins out.

Amendment of state child labor and school attendance laws to protect these children is urged in the state report.

Conservation of Coal Is Urged; Too Late for Oil

ATLANTIC CITY—That it is already too late to start on a plan of oil conservation was the statement made today by Horace H. Clark, a fuel engineer of Chicago before the convention of the American Gas Association. "It is useless to start a national oil conservation program now, because the oil will be gone before the program is completed," he said. "Let us, therefore, start a conservation program on coal, which is the most important national resource we have, and like natural gas and oil, when gone cannot be replenished."

Gas companies, themselves among the largest users of petroleum products, are seeking ways to shake off their dependence on oil, said Horace C. Porter of Philadelphia.
