Club Meets at Gray Belle

An unusually delightful club meeting of the week was that of the Tuesday bridge when Mrs. Fred M. Powell, as hostess, entertained for the pleasure of the group at the Gray Belle. Covers were placed for eight at the attractive luncheon table decorated with pink and gold asters and pink candles in cut glass, with favors and place cards in harmony. Mrs. W. A. Mullen won the afternoon's high score.

The personnel of the Tuesday bridge club includes: Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. E. E. Bragg, Mrs. H. M. Chadwick, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. Vincent Diaz, Mrs. Cruze, Mrs. G. A. Coddling, and Mrs. Fred M. Powell.

Women's Union to Meet

The Woman's Union of the First Congregational church will meet at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon at the church for sewing and a business meeting. The ladies will make Christmas gifts at this time to fill the Christmas box for the Ryder Hospital in Porto Rico.

Writers' Are Entertained

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Kells, at their home, 920 Leslie street, were hosts on Tuesday to members of the Writers' club—Howard McKinley Corning of Portland, historian and anthologist for the Northwest Poetry society, was the guest of honor for the evening. Mr. Corning announced the coming to Salem on Tuesday, January 19, 1926, of Harold Vinai, the distinguished editor of the magazine "Voices," and author of three volumes of verse, for whom he is advance agent. In addition to outlining the arrangements that have been made for his appearance at Waller Hall of Mr. Vinai, Mr. Corning treated the local writers to a number of his own verses, "October Day" and "Abraham" being notable in the group.

During the evening Charles J. Lisle read a foot ball story full of much local color. Professor

F. G. Franklin read a timely prose sketch arousing considerable discussion. Delightful groups of verses were read by each of the following: Blanche M. Jones, Isabel Gray Clifford, Gertrude Robison Ross, Anna Van Horssen Nelson, and Ruth Fargo.

Mrs. F. G. Franklin made announcement of the meeting of the Northwest Poetry society which will take place on Saturday of this week at Willamette Lodge, the home of Mrs. Claudius Thayer.

The rooms of the Wells home were beautifully decorated with lemon, bronze and russet chrysanthemums used in profusion. The hostess served delicious refreshments assisted by her small daughters, Mary Elizabeth and Margaret Ann.

Mrs. John Van Zante will handle the Red Letter day offering this year, and checks for this purpose should be mailed to her in order that she may receipt and acknowledge them.

The personnel of the board is as follows: Mrs. Walter L. Hembree, Portland, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Goldsmith, Portland; Mrs. John Van Zante, Portland; Mrs. Ida E. Callahan, Corvallis; Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Eugene; Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Corvallis; Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Salem; Mrs. G. M. Glines, Portland; Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Portland; and Miss Jessie McGregor, Portland.

Mrs. Saitte Orr Dunbar, president, O. F. W. C., is a member ex-officio.—Portland Journal.

Musician Honored by Fraternity

The many Salem friends of Franklin B. Launer, professor of music at Christian College in Columbia, Missouri, will be interested to know that he has been pledged to the Phi Mu Alpha National Musical fraternity. Professor Launer writes enthusiastically of his new work and of the splendid school spirit on the campus.

Mrs. J. A. Churchill Made Board Member

The bi-monthly meeting of the scholarship loan fund board of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs was held Saturday, November 14, Mrs. Walter L. Hembree, chairman, presiding.

The board extended a sincere welcome to two new members, Mrs. J. A. Churchill of Salem, whose appointment was ratified at the Marshfield convention, and Mrs. John Van Zante, recently appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Mrs. Frederick Schilke.

Fourteen new applications received the favorable action of the board, making 62 granted since the middle of May, and 525 girls assisted during the history of the fund. The records show that the recent beneficiaries who are now employed are meeting their notes satisfactory, and the overdue accounts are few.

This is the most difficult financial period, and clubs who can make their contributions early are being urged to do so, so that the board may be able to take care of applications coming in between now and January.

Mrs. John Van Zante will handle the Red Letter day offering this year, and checks for this purpose should be mailed to her in order that she may receipt and acknowledge them.

The personnel of the board is as follows: Mrs. Walter L. Hembree, Portland, chairman; Mrs. Arthur Goldsmith, Portland; Mrs. John Van Zante, Portland; Mrs. Ida E. Callahan, Corvallis; Mrs. P. L. Campbell, Eugene; Mrs. W. J. Kerr, Corvallis; Mrs. J. A. Churchill, Salem; Mrs. G. M. Glines, Portland; Mrs. Grace Watt Ross, Portland; and Miss Jessie McGregor, Portland.

Mrs. Saitte Orr Dunbar, president, O. F. W. C., is a member ex-officio.—Portland Journal.

Sad Word Received

Mrs. Frank Churchill has received word of the death of her uncle, Mr. Murray Cox of Pella, Iowa. He has been in Salem several times and was known by a number of Salem people.

Miss Magers Honored in Portland

Miss Mnetta Magers was honored on Tuesday evening of this week at one of Portland's most attractive affairs, the formal music and reception at the home of Mrs. Sarah E. Richardson and her son, Dr. Frank Richardson. Two hundred invitations were issued for the event. Soloists featured on the program included Miss Eva Roberts, Kenneth Allen, and William Morris.

Guests with Miss Magers were the members of the Schubert octette with the following personnel: Misses Eva Roberts, Lorraine Fletcher, Hilda Amsler, Nina Ringo, Grace Fawk, Elaine Chapin, Myra Gleason and Ruth Swart. Miss Lois Nye is accompanist.

Silver Wedding Celebrated

Friday evening, November 13, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Harold were agreeably surprised when their friends came in to help them celebrate their Silver Wedding anniversary.

During the evening Miss Marie Harold entertained the guests with several piano solos. Mrs. J. L. Burns sang, accompanied by Miss Harold.

Mr. J. L. Burns, pastor of the Clear Lake church, gave a very appropriate toast in honor of the occasion.

Gifts and greetings were generously bestowed upon Mr. and Mrs. Harold. Mr. Harold expressed hearty appreciation to the many friends in behalf of himself and wife.

Refreshments were served consisting of coffee, sandwiches and cake.

The following people were present: Mr. and Mrs. John Eiter and son Glenn, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Johnson and little son Melvin, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Erickson, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bergner and little daughter Dorothy Marie, Mrs. Clara Snyder, and Miss Christina Harold of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Evans and daughter Joan of Fruitland; Mr. and Mrs. Joe LaFollette, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beckner, and daughter Evelyn; Mr. and Mrs. G. L.
