LIGHTNING CAKE

Using Snowdrift in your own favorite recipes is the best way to find out what a really good shortening Snowdrift is. Or, if you like new things try Kate Brew Vaughn's recipe for Lightning Cake.

- 2 cups flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 2 teaspoons mixed spices
- 1 cup sugar
- 1/2 cup Snowdrift (slightly softened)
- 1/2 cup sour milk
- 2 whole eggs
- 1 teaspoon soda
- 1 tablespoon boiling water

Sift together the flour, salt, baking powder, spices and sugar in a large mixing bowl. Combine Snowdrift, milk, and eggs in a small mixing bowl and beat well. Combine two mixtures. Dissolve soda in boiling water and beat well in batter. Pour into greased and floured square cake pans. Bake for 30 minutes in oven at 400 degrees F. Turn out on cake rack to cool and cover with confectioner's icing (1 cup powdered sugar, with enough boiling water to make a paste, and flavor to taste), 1 cup raisins and 1/2 cup nuts may be added to this batter if desired. At 4,000 feet (or over) altitude reduce the sugar to 1/2 cup and the baking powder to one teaspoon.
