Scholarship Loan Tea

At Willamette Lodge
The outstanding social event of the day will doubtless be the annual scholarship loan tea from 2:30 to 5:30 o'clock this afternoon at Willamette lodge which Mrs. Claudius Thayer has hospitably opened to members of the American Association of University Women for the occasion. Orchestra numbers and vocal duets will be heard at intervals throughout the afternoon. Prominent matrons who will preside at the urns are: Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. George J. Pearce, Mrs. C. P. Bishop and Mrs. J. H. Lauterman. Assisting in the serving will be Miss Mildred Christensen, Miss Frances Hrubetz, Miss Caroline Hrubetz, Miss Hazel Paden, Miss Dorothy Nicholson, Miss Mary Eyre, Miss Ethel McGilchrist, Miss Louise Townsend, and Miss Lella Johnson.

Interesting Visitor

Mrs. E. J. Huffman entertained as her house guest on Wednesday and Thursday of this week Mrs. E. P. Mossman of La Grande. On Thursday Mrs. Huffman honored Mrs. Mossman and Miss Marvel Rhine, the hostess's niece, who is a student at Willamette university, and who is also from La Grande, with a luncheon at the Gray Belle. The table was attractive with its centerpiece of bronze chrysanthemums, with favors and place cards in tints of yellow. Luncheon covers were placed for Mrs. E. P. Mossman and Miss Marvel Rhine, the honor guests, Mrs. B. J. Miles, Mrs. Harwood Hall, Mrs. E. E. Fisher, and the hostess, Mrs. E. J. Huffman. Immediately after the luncheon Mrs. Mossman left for Oregon City where she spoke before the Art Institute on the subject, "American Artists." Mrs. Mossman, who is chairman of the art division of the Oregon Federated Women's clubs, will speak today in Portland.

Mrs. Cooley Entertains Club

Mrs. R. W. Cooley entertained the members of her bridge club on Wednesday afternoon at her home on Summer street with a 1 o'clock luncheon, followed with cards. Yellow chrysanthemums and blue larkspur, harmonizing with the blue candles in crystal holders, made the table attractive. Mrs. H. R. Worth won the bridge prize of the day. Mrs. Cooley was assisted by Mrs. James Nicholson.

Covers at the luncheon were placed for Mrs. Harry N. Crain, Mrs. James Nicholson, Mrs. H. R. Worth, Mrs. Merle Rosecrans, Mrs. George R. Arbuckle, Mrs. C. B. McCullough and Mrs. W. L. Phillips.

At the next meeting of the club Mrs. Worth will entertain.

Children's Story Hour

The first children's story hour of the fall season will be held at 10 o'clock this morning at the city library. The following are the stories which Miss Clark, who is in charge, will tell: "Isabelle and the Green Dress," "The Pancake," "The Little White Rabbit," and "The Happy Prince."

Cooked Food Sale

Barbara Fritchie tent, Daughters of Veterans, are sponsoring a cooked food sale today at Stewart's repair shop at 347 Court street.

Film at Church

"The Triumph of Justice" is the title of a gripping motion picture which will show at 7:30 o'clock tomorrow evening at the First Congregational church. W. J. Herwig has the honor of being both the author and the producer of this play which combines truth, tragedy and triumph into one inspiring whole.

Episcopal Bazaar

Many Salem women will avail themselves of the opportunity to purchase attractive Christmas gifts at the bazaar which the ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church are sponsoring at the parish house. A tea table will be arranged for the afternoon.

Bridge and "Five Hundred" Tea

An interesting bridge and "500" tea is being planned for Tuesday afternoon, November 24, by the social afternoon club of the Eastern Star. The event will open at 2 o'clock in the afternoon at the Eastern Star hall in the Masonic building. Members of the order and their friends will be guests of the afternoon. Reservations should be made with Mrs. A. L. Wallace, chairman of the committee in charge.

Mrs. Nelson Is Hostess

Members of the Adolynk club and their guests were entertained Wednesday at the home of Mrs.

George Nelson with an enjoyable afternoon of bridge, providing the diversion. Mrs. E. C. Charlton and Mrs. Otto Hoppes were invited for the occasion. Pink and white chrysanthemums were used in a floral way about the rooms. The high honors of the afternoon were won by Mrs. Charlton and Mrs. Zellar.

Club members present were: Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Oral Lemmon, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Carl Chapler, Mrs. Oscar Zellar, and the hostess, Mrs. Nelson.

Mrs. Dalrymple Entertains

Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple entertained yesterday afternoon with a delightful 1 o'clock luncheon at her home, followed with bridge. The luncheon table was decorated in a most effective manner with red dahlias, red chrysanthemums, and red candles. Mrs. Will Moore won the high score of the afternoon while the consolation award went to Mrs. George Waters.

Covers at the luncheon were placed for: Mrs. Will Moore, Mrs. George Forge, Mrs. Harry Belt, Mrs. W. A. Dalzell, Mrs. George Waters, Mrs. W. A. Mullen, Mrs. Arthur Moore, Mrs. W. J. Lillie, Mrs. T. Quinland and the hostess, Mrs. A. M. Dalrymple.

Visitor From Seattle

Mrs. C. E. Schenk of Seattle was the guest of her sister, Mrs. James Sykes for two weeks recently. Mr. Mirlie W. Schenk and bride of a few weeks, a nephew of Mrs. Sykes, motored down Saturday all returning to Seattle on Sunday.

McMinnville Club Entertains

Mrs. W. J. Lilliquist entertained yesterday afternoon with an attractive bridge luncheon complimenting the members of her McMinnville bridge club. Pink chrysanthemums centered the luncheon table where covers were placed for: Mrs. Elijah Corbett, Mrs. R. B. McDonald, Mrs. Wisecarver, Mrs. Jack Weisner, Mrs. L. A. Courtemanche, Mrs. J. T. Irvin, Mrs. Chester Mulkey, Mrs. Ray Wisecarver, and the hostess, Mrs. W. J. Lilliquist.

Attractive Tea in Portland

One of the most elaborate society affairs of the week was the tea given this afternoon by Mrs. R. F. Prael and her sister, Mrs. William H. Eldridge, at Mrs. Pra-el's home on Cumberland road. Their sister, Mrs. William Brown of Salem was also in the receiving line. The prettily centered tea table was in charge of Mrs. George F. Wilson, Mrs. Leroy Parker, Mrs. P. F. Morey and Mrs. C. D. Bruun during the first hour. Later Mrs. Gustave E. Bruere, Mrs. W. H. Wallace, Mrs. S. M. Luders and Mrs. Franklin T. Griffith poured. Assisting in the living room were Mrs. F. A. Nitchy, Mrs. Walter M. Cook, Mrs. Allen Ellsworth, Mrs. Herbert Holman, Miss Caroline Bicket and Mrs. O. B. Prael.

The group of girls who assisted in the dining room included Mrs. Jefferson Leonard Wilcox and the Misses Lois Ann Nitchy, Edith Marshall, Harriet Griffith and Harriet Breyman.—Portland Telegram.

Cooked Food Sale

The Willing Workers' class of the First Christian church will hold a cooked food sale all day today at the S. P. Ticket office on North Liberty street.

Bethel Dorcas Club

Mrs. J. M. Nichols entertained the ladies of the Bethel Dorcas club at her home (Brookside Meadows) on Thursday afternoon. After an interesting business session the time was spent with needlework and visiting. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. John
