

PACIFIC EASY VICTOR OVER BEARCATS AND TAI'ES GAME BY 23-0 SCORE

OLD RIVALS TAKE LAST 1925 GAME

Poor Headwork and Lack of Punch Blamed for Defeat of Willamette

Poor headwork and lack of punch on the part of Willamette and fast, alert playing and plenty of fight on the part of Pacific university gave the latter a 23-0 victory in yesterday's gridiron battle on Sweetland field. Willamette refused to take the offensive during the entire game until there were left about five minutes to play. Then she opened up on an aerial attack. One pass from her own 10 yard line was easily intercepted by Pacific, who raced for the final touch down of the game. Pacific made its score on two touch downs with the kicks converted each time and three field goals.

Willamette kicked off to Pacific's 30 yard line. On a trick play Pacific gained midfield. From then on for the rest of the half, the game was fought in Willamette territory. The first quarter was a punting duel with Willamette getting the worst of it by about ten yards to a punt. Whenever Pacific got the ball she used three strenuous downs in an endeavor to pierce the Bearcat line, but to no avail. Whenever Willamette got the ball, she punted, trying for yardage only once or twice in the entire first half.

Pacific scored her first touch down when they started a march from Willamette's 32 yard line. First down gave them the ball on Willamette's 15 yard, and a successive first down and they were on the five yard line. L. Emerson bucked it across, and converted the ensuing kick. Pacific kicked off, but again Willamette was satisfied to keep to the defensive, and there the half ended.

Pacific invaded Willamette's territory time after time through punting and clever passing, but the Bearcat line held, and they could not penetrate it. But E. Tucker proved an accurate place kicker, and scored nine points on three beautiful field goals.

The first field goal came after an exchange of punts had given

Pacific the ball on Willamette's 35 yard line. One first down gained the Badgers the 25 yard, and from there the place kick was made.

The next field goal was made possible by a Willamette fumble on her own 20 yard line, Pacific recovering. Failing to penetrate the Bearcat line in three downs, Tucker place kicked, making the score 13-0. The quarter ended with the ensuing kick off.

The last field goal came when Pacific gained the Willamette 10 yard line after having smashed over two terrific first downs from midfield. Tucker again place kicked.

The final touch down was made with 20 seconds left to play. Willamette had just completed a pass for a five yard loss, and had punted to their own 40 yard. Pacific was forced to punt. Willamette attempted to pass, Pacific intercepted, and raced for a touch down. Emerson converted the kick.

Whether Willamette could have pierced the Pacific line will never be known as she made the attempt but three times in the game. The Bearcats had one great chance to score but lost because of their own awkwardness. Fasnacht lay blind on the edge of the field, and not a Pacific man was covering as Willamette snapped into the play on their own 10 yard line. Just as Houston snapped the ball to Winslow, Scott came racing out on the field. Winslow passed to Fasnacht for a perfect completion, but Scott remained on the field. Fasnacht was not downed till he had raced 50 yards to Pacific's 40 yard line. But the pass was forfeited as Willamette had 12 men on the field.

Houston was the outstanding player for Willamette, mixing in every play, and spilling the bigger share of the attempts at scrimmage made by Pacific. L. Emerson stood out as the strongest player for Pacific. The lineup is as follows:

Willamette	Pacific
Herrman	Mc Coy
Houston	Ransom (C)
Woodworth	Horn
Stolzheim	Wal-
Mort	I. Tucker
Nichols	Heston
Mumford	E. Tucker
Riedel	M. Emerson

TRAIN CRASH IS FATAL

WOMAN DIES AS RESULT OF NORTHERN PACIFIC CRASH

OLYMPIA, Wash., Nov. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—Mrs. Laura Hahn, 31, of Aberdeen, who was injured Tuesday when a Northern Pacific passenger train was wrecked near here, died in a hospital here tonight after a delicate operation had been performed to lay in an attempt to save her life.

A 13 months-old baby boy who was uninjured through the wreck that killed his mother and the engineer of the train and injured 25 other persons, is being cared for by a local family.

HIGHWAY BILLS COMING

SPOKANE, Nov. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—United States Senator C. C. Dill of Washington declared tonight just before his departure for Washington that he was "alarmed" over efforts he believed would be made to abolish or at least curtail aid for highways. He said he would oppose any such legislation.

Hard Battle Fought on Idaho Gridders; Vandals Fail to Meet Demand

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—In a surprising reversal of pre-game dope, the Idaho Vandals made a game fight against the favorite Oregon Agricultural college eleven, the game going to the latter by a score of 16 to 7. Taking advantage of the breaks received during the first half of the game the visitors made two touchdowns and kept the lead throughout.

It was warfare all the way and in midfield the Vandals had a big margin, but the breaks were repeated against them. A blocked punt in the early minutes of the game—an intercepted pass which gave OAC the ball in midfield, a fumbled punt on which OAC scored a safety—these were the stepping stones in the Vandal downfall.

The Vandals received the first kickoff and started a march down the field which seemed irresistible. Then on the 23 yard line, a pass was smeared and the ball went over.

SYMPATHETIC RIOT CROWDS 'BULL PEN'

Disturbance by Convicts Leads to Disciplining by Deputy Warden Lillie

SPOKANE, Nov. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—Playing ragged, but at times sensational football, Washington State college and Gonzaga university battled to a scoreless tie before 6,000 fans here this afternoon. Drives launched by both teams, powerful at first, failed each time as they neared striking distance of goal lines.

Ingram led the hard hitting Gonzaga backfield that broke through the Cougar line repeatedly for substantial gains. Meeker, Waldorf and Sweet performed well for the state college backfield, and Parkhill and Mitchell, ends, loomed up in the line.

WSC lost its best chance to score in the second period, when a pass and a long run by Meeker took the ball to the bulldogs' six yard line. An attempted pass was grounded over the goal line and the ball reverted to Gonzaga. Gonzaga attempted a field goal in the first period, and Meeker tried a place kick from near midfield in each the second and fourth quarters for the Cougars.

Gonzaga made nine first downs and WSC seven.

COLISEUM, Los Angeles, Nov. 21.—(By Associated Press.)—The thundering herd of Trojans from the University of Southern California bore down on Iowa's football team here today and defeated the old gold squad 18 to 0, smashing, except on the two occasions, the latter's line almost at will. Both times the line did hold the Iowans did it on dangerous footing with their backs nearly under their goal posts.

Kisses Said of Various Kinds and Meanings; Business Office Not Proper Place or Effect

Warm, Not Cold-blooded, Ones Wanted; "Pair of Sixes" Reveals That Even Stage Variety May Be Made Interesting

"Kisses," declared Mary Kightlinger, charming leading lady of the De-Molay play, "A Pair of Sixes," when seen last night during a rest period between her scenes on the stage, "are of various kinds, and have a great many different meanings."

Then, suddenly, she was alone with T. Boggs Johns, and her betrothal scene was on. T. Boggs Johns, hard-boiled to everyone except his friends, took the opportunity on the wing and at an 80-mile an hour clip rushed an engagement ring on Miss Cole's willing finger. He was eager to close the bargain with a kiss; she was eager, too, but she did not want any cold-blooded kiss in a business office. Johns assured her that when she got it it would not be cold-blooded.

And the interviewer is here to record that the kiss was not a cold-blooded affair, and that from the viewpoint of the spectator Miss Cole returned to T. Boggs Johns the kind of kiss he gave her. And the interviewer was satisfied also that Miss Kightlinger knew what she was talking about when she said that kisses are of various kinds, and that stage kisses can be made interesting.
