

GONZAGA WINS FROM PORTLAND CLUB MEN

Multnomah Athletic Club Is Defeated 13 to 7 by Fast Northern Team

PORTLAND, Or., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—The Gonzaga Bulldogs football team from Spokane defeated Multnomah club here today, 13 to 7.

All of Gonzaga's points were made in the first quarter. Starting a march from the kick-off, the Spokane team soon crashed over the club line for the first score. Lynch scoring on a quarterback sneak. Following the ensuing kickoff Gonzaga intercepted a Multnomah pass on the 20-yard line, after two plays and carried the ball to the Winged M seven-yard line. Lynch bucked over for his second touchdown.

Near the end of the third quarter, Bross in turning a punt 50 yards and with a clear field ahead fumbled the ball. Ingram grabbed the pigskin from the air and raced to the six yard line before he was slowed. Here Multnomah stiffened and forced Gonzaga to pass over the line. Multnomah staged a comeback in the last quarter that netted them their only score, a pass, Sax to Grunland being responsible for the touchdown.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Harold "Red" Grange today stepped from a college hero into business life as a professional football player, gained the hearty applause of a crowd of over 40,000, some $20,000 as his share of the receipts and a black eye.

His team, the Chicago Bears, played a scoreless tie with the Chicago Cardinals, their bitter rivals of the South Side.

"I never played against more expert team of football players," said Grange after the game. "I don't remember how I got the black eye, but I never saw a bit of international roughness and I enjoyed my first professional game immensely. I did my best, but had been able to practice with the team only a few days."

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Nebraska's crimson hosts realized the hopes of a year today in drubbing Knute Rockne's Notre Dame football team 17 to 0.

The bitter defeat suffered last year at South Bend was avenged, the all-time record was evened and Rockne proved a prophet as well as a coach—for he had predicted two defeats for his team this year and Army gave it the other one. To the line chopping tactics of "Choppy" Rhodes, the far kicking toe of Captain Ed Weir, who letted four points by the boot and staunch defense of the whole Cornhusker line is Nebraska's victory due.

OMAHA, Neb., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Creighton university of Omaha ended its 1925 football season today by trouncing the University of Idaho 24 to 19. A rally by the Blue Jays in the final period netted them two touchdowns and a victory over the Vandals, recognized as their hardest opponents of the year.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Colgate closed its season without a defeat when Captain Eddie Tryon, leading scorer of the east led his eleven an uphill fight to tie Brown today, 14 to 14.

In his final appearance, Tryon added eight points to his season's total, when he scored one touchdown and kicked two points after touchdown. The Colgate captain figured in almost every play but was closely covered by the Brown tacklers.

St. Marys Wins. SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—St. Marys college, of Oakland, defeated its ancient rival, Santa Clara college, here today, 19 to 7, in a "little big game," that was marked by considerable fumbling and taking of long chances by both elevens. A crowd of approximately 17,000 witnessed the contest.

Montana U. Wins. MISSOULA, Mont., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—Spectacular open field running by Billy Kelly, Montana university quarterback, enabled his team to defeat Montana State college, 23 to 7 here today. Kelly scored all four of the university's touchdowns. His most dazzling play came in the last period, when he intercepted a Montana State pass and carried the ball 68 yards for a touchdown.

WHITMAN WINS 13 TO 7

Pacific University Takes Short End of Score.

WALLA WALLA, Wash., Nov. 26.—(By Associated Press.)—In a game featured only by two long runs in the first five minutes of play, Whitman defeated Pacific university here today in the Turkey Day clash, by a 13-7 score. Aside from the first few minutes there was little scintillating playing by either team.

Whitman excelled in line plunging, while Pacific got away with a few nice passes. On the first kickoff Yenny took the ball to the Pacific 15-yard line after a 70-yard run through a broken field. Melster gained five and on the next play a Whitman back fumbled the pass back. Rannow, Pacific captain, grabbed the ball and raced 92 yards for a touchdown. Emerson kicked goal.

SALEM HOMELESS RECEIVE DINNERS

Salvation Army Dispenses Cheer and Goodies for Thanksgiving Feasts

The Salvation Army of Salem, in observance of Thanksgiving, yesterday served 35 homeless men turkey dinners, and gave baskets to 12 families.

For the men served at the repast at the Army's hall on State st. west of Commercial st., turkey and plenty of it was the feature. In addition there was dressing, mashed potatoes and gravy, corn, peas, celery, vegetable salad, cranberry sauce fruit, candies, nuts and pumpkin pie.

In the baskets that were distributed to what officials of the Army judged to be the most needy and deserving in town, each one contained a whole chicken. In addition to this there were trimmings of several sorts.

In the evening a special Thanksgiving program was presented at the Army's hall. One of the largest crowds in the history of the hall attended, until standing room was brought into use. There were 27 numbers on the program, of religious, musical and humorous nature. Major A. W. McCurdy, who for 16 years administered the affairs of the Army in India, will be in Salem this week end, and will address the meetings at the Army's home Saturday and Sunday. He will speak on his experiences in India and on the work the Army is doing in that country. Buy a Want Ad—It Pays Big

LINFIELD BEATEN AT ALBANY; 12-0

Surprise With Turkey Day Contest Is Sprung on Linn County Institution

ALBANY, Nov. 25.—(Special to The Statesman) —Upsetting all dope, Albany College defeated Linfield on a muddy gridiron, this afternoon, by a score of 12 to 0, touchdowns resulting from a long forward pass in the first quarter, and from straight line bucks in the last.

This is the third game that the Albany eleven has defeated its old rival, the game carrying title to the Willamette Valley college conference. Albany retains the loving cup, emblematic of the championship, having won for three years. Results of the game came as a complete surprise, comparative season's scores and weight favoring the visiting team.

FEASTS PREPARED FOR STATE WARDS

(Continued from page 1) gram, Vandeville, as well as moving pictures, were presented. The most tremendous repast of the day was that of the state hospital for the insane. Roast chicken, and giblet gravy, fruit salad, mashed potatoes, celery, cranberries, pumpkin pie, raisin cake, milk, coffee, tea, and plum pudding were on the menu. To give an idea of the scope of the feast, 2000 pounds of chicken were served, along with 1000 bunches of celery, 160 gallons of fruit salad, and the remainder of the dishes were in proportion in volume.

REED CAPTURES TITLE OAC WRESTLER DEFEATS JONES IN TORRID BATTLE

ALBANY, Ore., Nov. 26.—Robin Reed of Portland, instructor of wrestling at Oregon Agricultural college tonight won the western welterweight wrestling championship and belt from Henry Jones of Provo, Utah, by taking two out of three falls in their match here. The bout was a torrid affair.

Jones took the first fall with a leg cradle in 25 minutes while Reed took the second in 22½ minutes and the final fall in 21 minutes with the leg split. The men have been rematched and will wrestle here the night of Friday, December 11.
