Miss McBride Wins Paper-Chase

Miss Flora Jane McBride, on Bluebird, won the annual Thanksgiving day paper chase held by the Portland Hunt club yesterday. Nat McDougall Jr., on Pony Dundee, was second, and Walter Smith, on Arament, third. This is the second successive victory for Miss McBride in the annual chase. Splendid horsemanship marked the riding of the more than 40 contestants. There were no spills and the horses were well handled especially on the jumps. The course which started just east of Garden Home and ended on the new road one mile west of Garden Home was about four miles in length and was an exceptionally sporty trail featured by many jumps over fences, logs and water. Mrs. Stanley Smith and Fred A. Martin were the hares. The chase, which was the 21st held by the club, was featured by an exciting finish. Nat McDougall Jr., was leading most of the way, but just before the finish made the mistake of following a blind trail. When he finally located the right path again Miss McBride, who had skillfully piloted Blue Bird to the front, was so far in the lead that she could not be overtaken. More than 200 spectators were lined up for the exciting finish.—Oregonian.

Authentic Film Today

Not only children, but grown-ups as well, will enjoy the fifth film in the famous Chronicles of America series, which is scheduled for 10:30 o'clock this morning at the Oregon theatre under the auspices of the Salem branch of the American Association of University Women. "The Pioneer Woman" is the chosen film for the day. "Welcome Home" will be shown in conjunction.

Impressive Wedding At St. Joseph's

Miss Theresa Saalfeld and Mr. Henry Cooper were united in marriage on Wednesday morning, November 25, at St. Joseph's church, the ceremony being read at the eight o'clock mass. The church was beautiful with its soft lights and flowers. The Academy choir sang appropriate music. Miss Marian Boyle presided at the organ, playing the wedding march, and all choir accompaniments. Miss Minnie Saalfeld attended the bride as maid of honor while Mr. Lawrence Cooper acted as best man. A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride after which the happy couple left for San Jose and other California points. A special guest of the day was Rt. Rev. Msgr. Hillebrand, P. A., D. D., Administrator of the Archdiocese of Oregon City. Mr. and Mrs. Cooper will be at home to their friends at Oregon City after Dec. 1st.

Dinner at Mollencop Home

Guests at a delightfully appointed dinner at 1 o'clock on Thanksgiving day at the J. E. Mollencop home were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Hoppes, Miss Veda Korb, Mrs. Kathryn Korb, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Mollencop.

Mrs. Rahn Is Hostess

Mrs. Arthur J. Rahn entertained the members of her bridge club on Monday when at the last moment she was asked to preside in Mrs. R. M. Hofer's place—Mrs. Hofer having received an unexpected call to leave for California. Following a charmingly appointed 1 o'clock luncheon at the Gray Belle, the group adjourned to the Hofer home for an afternoon of bridge. The additional guests of the afternoon included Mrs. William Bell, Mrs. David W. Eyre, and Mrs. E. V. McMechan.

Thanksgiving Day Guest

Miss Jean Bell returned Thursday evening to Portland after spending Thanksgiving day as the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Bell. An additional guest at the Bell home on Thanksgiving day was little Nancy Jean Strickland.

Jolly Sixteen Club

The members of the Jolly Sixteen club spent a very pleasant evening when they met on Wednesday at Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Busey's. Mr. and Mrs. L. Bechtel received the high scores of the evening, while the low awards went to Mrs. Ed Keene and M. P. Dennis. Visitors for the evening were LaVelle Keene and La Doyt Davies. In two weeks, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong will entertain the group. The club members are Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Dennis, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Basey, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hensen, Mr. and Mrs. John Spong, Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Davies, Mr. and Mrs. L. Bechtel, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Keene, and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Busey.

Frank Patterson Engaged

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Nov. 27.—The engagement of Marian Hoskins of Tacoma, sophomore in commerce, to Frank Patterson of Salem, sophomore in commerce, was announced Saturday night at an informal dance at the Delta Delta Delta house. Mr. Patterson is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Guests in Portland

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Paulsen motored to Portland on Thursday, returning the same day, to spend Thanksgiving.

Dinner Guests

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Johnson entertained as their dinner guests on Thanksgiving day Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett and sons, James and Everett.

Children Enjoy Theatre Party

The children of Mother Salem were the guests of the Oregon theatre and the Oregon Statesman yesterday afternoon at a party as it was charitable. Douglas McLean in the unsurpassed comedy farce, "The Seven Keys to Baldpate," furnished all the diversion that could be asked. The prizes of the afternoon, of which there were a goodly number, will go, as in a fairy tale, to those who deserve them.

Highland Study Club

A Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters met at the home of Mrs. Batty Cooper on Water street yesterday afternoon. The branch is organized under the name of the Highland Study club. The general lesson was discussed, "Industry and Workers" being the topic. A social time followed, with Mrs. Emma Edwards and Mrs. C. M. Oglesby assisting in the serving. The next meeting of the club will be held on Friday at the home of Mrs. C. M. Oglesby on Hazel avenue.

Entertain at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Evans entertained as their Thanksgiving day dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. E. Jay Allen and daughter, Helen, of Woodburn, and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Zellar and little daughter, Marilynn.

S. S. Department Holds Open House

The intermediate department of the Jason Lee Memorial Sunday school of which Mrs. Blackberry is the superintendent, held open house on Monday, welcoming all parents and friends. The old parsonage building has been moved and remodeled for use by the intermediate department and will be known as Wesley Hall. The president, John Adlard and the vice president, Dorothy Sawyer, welcomed the guests at the door, while two members from each class assisted in showing the guests through the class rooms. Refreshments were served during the evening by Bernice Richman and Edna Raymond. Musical numbers were given by Barbara Barhan.

Educational Film on Saturday

Seventeen leading Salem organizations in all have endorsed the Chronicles of America, the Yale University series of historical films which are being brought to the Salem public through the co-operation of the American Association of University Women and Mr. J. C. Stille, manager of the Oregon Theatre. The fifth chronicle will show in Salem at 10:30 o'clock on Saturday morning of this week when "The Frontier Woman," a true drama of the old southwest, will be presented. Accompanying the educational film will be "Welcome Home."

The seventeen organizations backing this interesting trend in film circles are: Chemeketa chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Salem Woman's club, the Salem Heights Woman's club, the Salem Arts' League, the Highland Parent Teachers' Association, the Lincoln McKinley Parent Teachers' association, the Salem branch of the National League of Women Voters, the Y.W.C.A., the American Legion, the Rotary club, the Kiwanis club, the Lions' club, the W.C.T.U., the Etokta club, Chapter AB of the P.E.O. sisterhood and chapter G of the P.E.O. sisterhood.

Salvage Shop Fills Need

Articles in second-hand ready-to-wear will be on sale from 10 to 5 o'clock today at the Salem Woman's club "Salvage Shop" at 460 N. Cottage street. The "Salvage Shop," which held a successful opening a week ago, affords the happy medium for a great many families between charity and the department store. It means much for those who have to be careful of their pennies, but still are independent of charity to have a permanent rummage sale as a wardrobe resource, when threads wear thin.

Mrs. C. K. Spaulding, Miss Mattie Beatty, and Mrs. W. E. Anderson are in active charge of the project and are not only engaged in collecting articles suitable for sale but are also planning to make bedding for use in impoverished households.

The committee is grateful for a variety of new garments which have come directly from a number of the stores. These have been distributed at once through the public schools—the best medium possible for locating the worthy poor.

The "Salvage Shop" will be open at the stated hours each Saturday throughout the winter.

W. H. M. S. Next Wednesday

Mrs. F. C. Taylor will be hostess to the Woman's Home Missionary Society of the First Methodist church at the Parsonage, 636 State street, Wednesday, Dec. 2, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. W. E. Kirk will present the lesson and devotions will be led by Mrs. G. W. Hickman. This will be a tea meeting and those assisting the hostess will be Mrs. O. E. Price, Mrs. Ida Shade, Mrs. Josephine Davis, Mrs. F. S. Utter and Mrs. Ronald Glover.

Guest From Kelso

Miss Jean Mackenzie is spending the week-end with her parents Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Mackenzie at 1498 N. Church street. She will return to Kelso by motor, where she is engaged as a teacher in the high school, on Sunday afternoon.

Neves Club Meets

Mrs. Otto Hoppes entertained members and guests of the Neves club on Tuesday afternoon with three tables of bridge. Pink and yellow chrysanthemums were used in an autumn decorative scheme. Three prizes were given during the afternoon—the guest prize to Mrs. Earl Paulsen, the club prize to Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, and the consolation award to Mrs. Edwin Armstrong.

Playing at the tables were Mrs. John Hoppes of Portland, Mrs. Esten Williamson, Mrs. Earl Paulsen, Mrs. Jesse George, Mrs. Oscar Zellar, Mrs. James Teed, Mrs. Oral Lemmon, Mrs. George Nelson, Mrs. James Smith, Mrs. W. Aubrey Johnson, Mrs. Edwin Armstrong, Mrs. Lawrence Imlah, Mrs. William Gosser, Mrs. Ted Purvine, and the hostess, Mrs. Otto Hoppes.

W. R. C. Ladies' Aid

The Ladies' Aid society of the Woman's Relief Corps will hold an all day meeting at the Fairgrounds building on Tuesday, December 1. The regular covered dish dinner will be served at noon. The ladies are busy with work on articles for the new and second-hand ready-to-wear bazaar which will be held on December 18 and 19.

Guests From New York City

Mr. and Mrs. William Duncan of New York City and Mr. Andrew Duncan of Great Falls, Montana, had the opportunity to surprise their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Duncan, by appearing at the Duncan home at 1305 Broadway for Thanksgiving dinner. Mr. Andrew Duncan will return to Great Falls the latter part of the week, while Mr. and Mrs. William Duncan plan to stay in Salem a month before returning to New York by way of California and Florida at which points they will make visits with friends.

Ever Ready Birthday Club

The Ever Ready birthday club will meet on Monday, November 30, at the home of Mrs. Hattie Kennon, 524 Union street. Mrs. Clara Lucas and Mrs. Hattie Kennon will be the honor guests at this time. A covered dish dinner will be served at 1 o'clock.

Cheeley-Hamman Wedding

Salem friends of Miss Carolyn Cheeley and Mr. Gilbert Hamman will be interested in the news of their marriage, the ceremony having taken place in Portland at the Cheeley home at 11 o'clock on Thanksgiving Day. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hamman are former Williamette university students, having been members of last year's sophomore class. Only a few close relative and friends witnessed the ceremony.
