

ENTIRE STUDENT BODY WILL ESCORT FOOTBALL TEAM TO TRAIN ON FRIDAY

STARTING LINEUP NAMED BY COACH

Small Delegation to Accompany Team South for Medford Contest

The entire student body of Salem high school will be out of school Friday morning in order that they might escort the member of the team to the depot, and see them off when they board the Southern Pacific train, that will carry them southward to Medford where they are scheduled to battle this Saturday afternoon.

This was made possible through the courtesy of J. C. Nelson, principal of the high school, and George W. Hug, city school superintendent.

Several students are planning to make the trip south for the game. Several auto loads of students will motor to Medford.

Students will hold an assembly this afternoon at which yells will be let loose. The girls will sing songs in their repertoire. Students will at that time be instructed definitely as to just how the members of the team are to be escorted to the depot, and how the students are to conduct themselves at the send-off.

When the men board the train and the engine starts rolling, Spot Simpson, who will lead the yelling, will also be one to wave goodbye, as he is going south to view the contest and to lead the Salem rooters.

Coach Hollis Huntington announced last night that the following men will accompany him on the conquest of Medford.

Temple and Adams, ends; Black and J. Drager, tackles; Jackson, Querie and Davis, guards; H. Lyons, center; R. Drager, quarter; Kelly and Noske, halves; and Lang full. This Says—Now Stiff Joints Must Go!

New Discovery Lingers 'Em Up and Even the Creaking Ceases.

Yes, it's true—the world progresses.

All you have to do nowadays to limber up that old stiff, creaky knee joint is to squeeze a half inch of miracle-working substance from a tube.

Then rub it on the offending part for about a quarter of a minute or until it soaks through the skin and disappears on its errand of mercy.

Then read the evening newspaper and go to bed.

The chances are that your misbehaving knee joint will lose its "creak" while you are dreaming about the high fences you used to leap when you were a youngster.

"And in the morning," says one who has tried the new discovery, "you'll feel so happy that you'll want to jump into your sportiest clothes and walk briskly down the street just to show the neighbors that you are not as old as they think you are."

Joint-Ease: They call this wonder-working substance, for the reason that when ordinary remedies fail to limber up the stiff, inflamed rheumatic joint or reduce the swelling, Joint-Ease succeeds.

It's a good name for a good, clean, stainless prescription that in just a few months has proven to a multitude of people that lame, swollen, distorted joints can speedily have the kinks taken out of them and work as smoothly as ever.

But Joint-Ease is for bothersome joints, whether in knee, elbow, ankle, hip, shoulder, spine or finger, and for that purpose its sale, at 60 cents a tube, is immense.

Dan J. Fry Drug Co. sells dozens of tubes of it every week and druggists everywhere report a big demand.

Always remember, when Joint-Ease gets in joint agony gets out—quick.

Biggest Selling Joint Remedy in the World

Coach Huntington announces, will be the starting lineup.

The following will also be taken along as reserves: A. Lyons, to substitute for full, quarter, or end; French, to substitute for half; Bache, for full; Keppinger for half; Olinger, for quarter or end and Dolby for guard or tackle. These 18 men combine the aggregation. They will be accompanied by Coach Huntington and Bob Kitchen, student football manager.

J. Drager declares himself to be in fair condition, and states he will be able to start in the game. Coach Huntington says that Drager's knee, sprained in the Franklin contest Thanksgiving Day, has improved rapidly. He expects Drager will be able to start.

In case a renewal of the injury should force Drager out of the game, Jackson will be put in his place at tackle, and Temple will do the punting.

R. Drager will do the generalizing for the local team. In case he should receive injury to take him out of the game, Olinger or A. Lyons will call the signals. In that case it is likely Salem will resort in part to the huddle system.

FIGHT POSTPONED AS DATES CONFLICT

Harry Plant, local matchmaker states that the fight which was to have been scheduled for December 9, has been postponed, due to the re-matching of George Ingersoll and Frankie Lewis in Silverton on December 11.

The two dates were held too close to be practical. On December 16, however, Phil Bayes of Salem is expected to meet Harry Harris of Pendleton, who put on a fine fight last week in Astoria against Cracker Warren of Oregon City. Warren fought here twice last year, and has been in the ring against Bennie Dodson of Portland.

When the men board the train and the engine starts rolling, Spot Simpson, who will lead the yelling, will also be one to wave goodbye, as he is going south to view the contest and to lead the Salem rooters.

ROSENBERG LOSES BOUT JOE LYNCH IS VICTOR; TITLE WAS NOT AT STAKE

OAKLAND, Cal., Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—California Joe Lynch of San Francisco won a decision over Charley (Phil) Rosenberg, New York, bantamweight champion of the world, after ten slashing rounds at Oakland auditorium tonight. The title was not involved and both men came in overweight, Rosenberg at 121½, and Lynch at 122.

SANTA CLAUS RECEIVES ROYAL RECEPTION HERE

on my trip from Portland to the capital city of your state fair. But seeing the Willamette valley in the daytime has thrilled me with wonder, and I have been repaid a hundred times for making this daytime trip to Oregon. "The fact is, I believe the cherries Mrs. Santa makes are Salem cherries. Mrs. Santa came to Salem a long time ago, and became acquainted with the cherries here. From then on I have had wonderful pie, built of sturdy and tasty cherries that could not have been grown any where else but in Salem.

"It would be a wonderful thing if we could only change Christmas time to the time of the year when cherries ripen in Salem! I would stop on my trip over the house-tops and feed up on cherry after cherry. But then, I might forget the children waiting for their presents in Ugwell, the little village in the land of the south, and then I might forget all my children friends. So perhaps it is best that Christmas comes when it does. Then, too, at any other time, my merry steeds would have no snow, and Dancer and Prancer especially detest a trip that has no snow. They do not mind occasional barren spots if every few hours I can lead them through a drift.

"Before I leave your city I want to say for the ears of all the children and for you who are grown up children that I hope this year you will have the merriest Christmas of your lifetime." Upon leaving the Marion, Santa proceeded to the street between the courthouse and the postoffice, where he received children all afternoon. He has left again for Portland, where, after a stay of some time he will hearken with his team back to Iceland "to pack his toys for the girls and boys the whole world over."

DOBIE NOT TO RESIGN

ITHACA, N. Y., Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—G.H. Dobie has no intention of retiring as coach of Cornell football teams. He so announced tonight when questioned regarding a report that he had been approached to become head coach at the University of Oregon.

BASKETBALL HELD TO FUNDAMENTALS

Prospects for a crack basketball squad at Willamette university were darkened somewhat Wednesday when it was found that three men, considered valuable to the team, may be unable to play because working hours conflict with practice hours.

Hartley, two year letterman at center, who last year was accountable for a good share of the converted baskets, has not reported because of this. Riedell, the only other prospect to turn up at the school for center berth, faces similar difficulties, and Baker, a speedy forward, completes the list.

The team underwent a stiff workout last night, Coach Rathbun confining the work to fundamentals. He intimates that the team will not be given any intricate playing work for a week or two.

New comers to turn out for the game are: Flesher, Litchfield, Faber and Scott, all of last year's "hook squad. Blatchford is showing well, and is considered as varsity timber. These men, with the three lettermen reporting, Robertson, Fasnacht and Erickson, appear to be contenders for the varsity squad. About twenty men reported last night.

THE COUNTRY WILL NOT LACK FARMERS

At Least the Farmers Will Not Run Out if All Bankers Are Like This

(The following appears in the current issue of The Pacific Homestead, the farm paper published from The Statesman building):

The country is not going to run out of farmers. The tendency is not all away from the farm. S. J. Smith, St. Paul, Oregon, is banker in charge of the bank at that place. He lives on a farm nearby, and he has two boys, Raymond, aged fourteen years, and Sylvester, aged fifteen, who have no intention of following the vocation of their father but are headed on a direct course towards future farm life. Something over two years ago The Pacific Homestead offered a prize Chester White gilt for a certain contest in securing subscriptions. These boys hustled out and were soon awarded the gilt. She was secured from Cass A. Nichols, a well known breeder of Chester Whites, when a pig. The gilt soon developed to be a mother and later a grandmother.

"As far as I know I am going to continue here until the expiration of my contract, seven years hence," was Dobie's comment.

NEW CHAMP CROWNED

TOD MORGAN CAPTURES JUNIOR LIGHTWEIGHT TITLE

OLYMPIC AUDITORIUM, Los Angeles, Dec. 2.—(By Associated Press.)—A long arm and a cool head from Seattle, carried by one Tod Morgan knocked the junior lightweight crown spinning from the head of Mike Ballerino of Bayonne, N. J., here tonight. Ballerino's seconds threw a towel into the ring toward the close of the tenth round, giving the northwest boy a technical knockout.

Ballerino opened with rushing tactics, which gave him the title and has made him famous, but eight inches longer reach on the Seattle boy's arms, coupled with his hard hitting ability were too much for the Bayonne slugger.

SAILOH GETS LIFE

SEATTLE, Dec. 2.—(AP.)—Lloyd L. Hudson, United States sailor was sentenced to life imprisonment here today after pleading guilty to the murder of Charles Earl Anable, taxicab driver, on a lonely road near the Fort Lawton rifle range in Seattle July 22. Hudson shot Anable from behind then stopped the car. He said Anable slurred Mrs. Hudson.

When winter's snow is falling outside—and the noise of wind roars through the trees—when the house is dark but for the blazing logs in the fireplace —have a Camel!

WHEN it's a winter night and the day that was busy is done, And outside the snow is driving through the trees before the wind. When, inside, the crackling logs catch fire and burst into flames above the hearth—have a Camel!

For Camel is the tried and trusted friend of millions of experienced smokers. Whether your returning steps bring you home tired or jubilant, no sweeter, more mellow fragrance ever came to you from a cigarette. There's not a cigarette after-taste, not a tired taste in a whole county full of Camels. Only mild and mellow flavor, deep-down contentment in your home or any home where Camels are lighted.

So this night, before your roaring logs of oak or hickory—have a Camel. Open up the famous package of Camels and know the fragrance, the contentment that brings happiness to millions. Put a Camel between you and a light and taste the mellowest, most delectable blend ever made into a cigarette.

Have a Camel!

Our highest wish, if you do not yet know Camel quality, is that you try them. We invite you to compare Camels with any cigarette made at any price. R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Co.
