Oregon—James Kirkwood and Anna Q. Nilsson in "The Top of the World."
 Hellig—Association vaudeville.
 Bligh—King's Revue and Evelyn Brent in "Lady Robin Hood."

VAUDEVILLE TODAY

Five acts of Association vaudeville will be presented by the Hellig theatre today. M. Joseph Clifford, billed as one of the greatest exponents of mystery on the stage today, is one of the headliners on the program.

CAT SHOW HELD
 SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 3.—(By Associated Press.)—The 15th annual cat show of the Pacific Cat club opened today with 156 felina thoroughbreds holding the interest of the cat-loving public. Virtually every breed of the cat family, from the house cat variety to members of the royal Siamese species, awaited the apportionment of ribbons and caps.

GOVERNOR TO TALK AT SILVERTON HILLS

Jack Robbins, Old Time Resident, Dies After Protracted Illness

SILVERTON, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—The Silvertown Hills Community House will be dedicated Friday night at 8 o'clock. Governor Pierce will be on the program and the chief speaker, together with Commissioner Levens and some local men.

Five school districts, Porter, Davis, Coberly, Hult, Bridge Creek—with the business men of Silvertown cooperating, made it possible to erect a building 36x54 feet, one of the finest community buildings in Marion county.

There will be 200 invited guests. After the speaking a banquet will be served.

SILVERTON, Dec. 3.—(Special.)—Jack Robbins, an old time resident of Silvertown died Thursday noon after a long illness. Mr. and Mrs. Robbins made their home at Silvertown for a number of years some time ago, but for the past few years they have traveled about. They returned to Silvertown last spring and have since then made this their home. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

Besides a widow, Mr. Robbins leaves a brother, Peter Robbins, of Silvertown, and a sister, Mrs. Cheney of Portland.

LINEN WORK FROM YARN 150 YEARS OLD

The Flax From Which the Fiber Was Taken Grown in State of Michigan

Mrs. Robert Deene lives in the district that is known as the Silvertown Hills, between Silvertown and Silver Creek Falls. The Deene postoffice address is Silvertown, Star Route.

A Statesman representative visiting the Deene place this week found Mrs. Deene busy on some wonderful patterns of fancy work, table covers and other ornamental pieces that are dear to the heart of the housewife.

And Mrs. Deene is using flax "yarn" that is 150 years old.

This yarn has been in the Deene family all this time. It was grown by a relative named Jennings in Michigan 150 years ago, and retted and scutched and spun there in the pioneer days of that state.

Mrs. Deene has been offered as high as $50 each for some of the wonderfully beautiful pieces she fashions with this 150 year old yarn.

As Good As Ever.
 All flax men of the Salem district know that flax fiber in any form will last indefinitely, if kept in the dry. So this 150 year old yarn is as good as new. The fact is that flax straw is better after being kept a year. It is supposed to yield a better fiber, and about 10 per cent more fiber by reason of being kept over one season.

Linen are found in the tombs of the Egyptian kings, in weaves we moderns cannot duplicate.

Rouging Finger Tips a Fad in Fashionable Casino Set

MONTE CARLO—Rouging the fingers around the extreme edges of the nails is a fashion borrowed from the east that is gaining women's favor here.

On a beautifully manicured hand this touch of color is most effective. It has been reported to by a great many players in the Casino, whose hands are always within view of the other devotees at the tables. The fingers must be "touched up" rather frequently or they become streaked and fake on a sort of washed-out appearance.

"THE TOP OF THE WORLD" HERE

James Kirkwood and Anna Q. Nilsson are featured in the latest Paramount picture now playing at the Oregon theatre. Kirkwood, always popular with theatregoers, has an excellent role in this film. The picture will be at the Oregon

COSBY'S POULTRY TALK DRAWS MANY

Problems of Disease and Feeding Discussed Before Fanciers

"Oregon is as fine a poultry country as is to be found anywhere," declared H. E. Cosby, poultry extension specialist of Oregon Agricultural college. Mr. Cosby was the principal speaker at the poultry meeting, which drew a capacity house at the chamber of commerce Thursday afternoon.

Chickens are healthy in this district, although disease is a constant danger. OAC specialists are carrying on research work to combat this. Mr. Cosby discussed problems of poultry raising, spending half an hour to answer questions. Feeding was discussed. Mr. Cosby's work with OAC is in the field, consulting poultry men all over the state concerning their individual problems.

Rosenkavalier Proves to Be Winning Struss Horse

VIENNA.—Rosenkavalier is a winning horse for Richard Strauss the composer.

Attending one of the Sunday races in Kriau, Strauss was so greatly amused in learning one of the entries was named after his opera that he placed ten shillings on him.

"You are simply throwing your money away," his friends remonstrated. "He's a rank outsider."

'WHAT IS WRONG' SUBJECT OF TALK

Author to Appear on Program Set by First Spiritualist Church

"What's the matter with you and me?" will be the keynote of a lecture to be given at 7:45 p. m., Sunday, at the old WOW hall at 240 North Liberty.

The speaker, Rose Stevenson Shaw, formerly of New York City and a well known writer, will attempt to prove that thought power is the only key which can and does unlock all doors to health and success.

Charles R. Muston, English tenor, will appear on the program with the writer-speaker. He has chosen as his solo number "The Lost Chord," "The Holy City," "Oh for a Closer Walk With God" and "Adeste Fideles," which he will sing in the original Latin. He will be accompanied at the piano by Kenneth McCormick. Fred W. Jobelman, Jr., will give "Silent Night" on his silver trumpet.

Sergeant F. E. Carnes has consented to act as head usher in charge of the marines who have offered to act as escorts. Additional seating capacity is being arranged for at the WOW hall. The program is being given under the auspices of the First Spiritualist church, of Salem, and is open to the public.

A TIP!
 The "Merry" is taken out of Christmas for many people because they spend all of their savings (and sometimes more) for Christmas gifts.
 This year—at our Closing Out Sale—many thrifty people will purchase Jewelry gifts—getting five gifts for the price that they usually pay for three, and Christmas will be a "Merry Christmas" for everyone.
 Please bear in mind that we cannot rebuy for this sale—we are closing out our entire stock—contract goods included—and it would be wise to select your jewelry, silverware, glassware, watches and clocks now. A deposit will hold any article until Xmas.
