Ninetieth Birthday Celebrated

The 90th birthday of Mrs. Martha Byrd was celebrated in a memorable manner yesterday, December 3, throughout the entire day and evening when a host of friends and relatives gathered informally at the home of Judge and Mrs. L. H. McMahon to honor a beloved citizen and friend.

Mrs. Byrd was born in Missouri December 3, 1836, and came to Oregon 75 years ago. Mrs. Byrd is the mother of eight children, all of whom are still living: Dr. W. H. Byrd of Salem, J. C. Byrd of Spokane, E. F. Byrd of Spokane, Dr. Roy Byrd of Salem, L. A. Byrd of Salem, Mrs. Cordelia Hager of Salem, Mrs. L. H. McMahon of Salem and Miss Virginia Byrd of Portland.

Capital Bridge Club Meets

Members of the Capital Bridge club were entertained in a delightful manner on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. L. F. Griffith at her home on East Center street. A special guest of the club was Mrs. Prince Byrd.

Mrs. Edwin L. Baker won the afternoon's high score.

At the 1 o'clock luncheon table, attractive with its centerpiece of rose-colored chrysanthemums, covers were placed for Mrs. Prince Byrd, Mrs. E. L. Baker, Mrs. Geo. G. Brown, Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. Frank W. Durbin, Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. O. C. Locke, Mrs. Milton L. Meyers, Mrs. Frank Meredith, Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mrs. W. Carlton Smith, and the hostess, Mrs. Griffith. This will be the last meeting of the club till after the holidays.

Unitarian Luncheon

Members of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church are looking forward with pleasure to the luncheon at 12:30 o'clock today and the meeting at 2:30 o'clock. Julia B. Comstock of Portland, state director, will be the honor guest on both occasions.

Birthday Celebrated

Mrs. J. S. H. Walker, who resides on Garden road, was given a pleasant surprise Friday evening in honor of her 74th birthday.

Mrs. Walker was invited to dinner as the guest of Mrs. E. B. Perrine at 1096 North Seventeenth street, and while engaged in conversation by the fireside was not aware of any company until she was surrounded by about 35 of her relatives and friends who had quietly entered without her knowledge to bring greetings. The evening was spent in singing old-time songs, telling stories, and with instrumental music furnished by the stringed instrument orchestra composed of some of the members present.

After the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Perrine, assisted by Mrs. Frank Munson, Miss Gladys Walker and Mrs. Virgil Perrine.

Bridge Club Meets

A delightful bridge luncheon of the week took place on Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. R. Worth when she entertained for the pleasure of her club group. Yellow chrysanthemums and yellow candles were used in the decorative scheme. Mrs. W. L. Phillips won the card honor of the afternoon. At the next meeting of the club, on December 16, Mr. and Mrs. George Arbuckle will entertain. The affair will be a Christmas party.

The club members include Mrs. W. L. Phillips, Mrs. George Arbuckle, Mrs. C. B. McCullough, Mrs. H. N. Crain, Mrs. Ralph Cooley, Mrs. Merie Rosecrans, Mrs. James Nicholson and Mrs. H. R. Worth.
