

TOM MURRAY MUST SERVE TIME, KING

Convict's Attorney Says 20 Year Term Must Be Served Before Hanging

CHAPMAN PARALLEL SEEN

Subsequent Sentence on Distinctly New Charge Cannot Be Substituted, Defense Attorney Says

The state of Oregon cannot hang Tom Murray, leader in the fatal prison break of August 12, until Murray has completed his sentence of 20 years in the penitentiary.

The case presents unusual aspects. Murray at the time of the break was serving a sentence of 20 years for robbery with a dangerous weapon, following his conviction on a charge of robbing the Florence bank.

It will be remembered that the attempt to forestall the execution of Gerald Chapman, most notorious of American criminals, is based on the same grounds.

Whether or not a pardon will be obtained for Tom Murray, absolving him from his sentence for bank robbery, is not known.

Improvement of Courses in Elementary and High Schools of State Object of Study for Legislature

With intent to improve rather than to expand on the curriculum now in use in elementary and high schools of the state, the committee called into being by the last legislature met last night at the Marlon hotel.

Organization of the course in study commission, provided for by the last legislature, was completed at the meeting.

"Object of the committee is to ascertain whether or not there is room to improve the courses of study in the elementary and high schools. This is not for the purpose of adding to the present curricula, but of securing more thorough training in fundamental branches."

Allan MacLaren, son of the Rev. W. G. MacLaren, prominent Portland social worker, was dressed in at the state prison here this afternoon to begin serving a four-year sentence imposed upon him two years ago by the circuit court of Clackamas county for a statutory crime.

MacLaren's incarceration follows one of the most bitter fights ever staged in this state to evade a prison sentence. Convicted in the lower court, MacLaren carried his fight to the supreme court where the decree of the lower court was affirmed.

Petitions bearing the signatures of several hundred citizens, together with letters and telegrams urged the governor to save the youth from the taint of prison life.

The Rev. Mr. MacLaren, a personal friend of the governor and until a month ago a member of the state parole board under appointment by Governor Walter M. Pierce.

When interviewed at the Marlon hotel last night, Senator Eddy said: "We expect to get the views of the people in education work as well as those who are not connected with it."

"Object of the committee is to ascertain whether or not there is room to improve the courses of study in the elementary and high schools. This is not for the purpose of adding to the present curricula, but of securing more thorough training in fundamental branches."

World Court Favored School Ballot Shows

ENDORSE HARDING-HUGHES-COOLIDGE IN VOTE

Ask Only Five Reservations Which Include Most Feasible Precautions

Willamette university students are in favor of entrance of the United States into the World Court, under the Harding-Hughes-Coolidge plan.

The Harding-Hughes-Coolidge plan polled 206 votes, the Harmony Peace plan as advocated by Kirby Page, 91, and the Borah plan, 43.

Five reservations are attached to America's entrance under the plan favored by the students: 1—that the United States shall not be legally tied to the league of nations upon entering the World Court.

Kirby Page's Harmony plan includes the five reservations, but adds that the United States shall have the option of withdrawing in two years if the Court has not outlawed war, and must withdraw if the Court has not outlawed war in five years.

Under Borah's plan the United States would not enter until the people have been educated to the Court and until the Court has made a complete codification of international law outlawing war.
